ALLIANCE SEANCE.

The State Executive Committee Got Together in St. Paul and Had One Round.

Cincinnati Committee is Enlarged and Improved by Adding New Members.

Indications That the Old Parties May Gather in the Unearned Increment.

ST. PAUL, July 8.—The state executive committee of the farmers alliance met yesterday in this city and later a conference for the purpose of organizing the new people's party in Minnesota was held.

Mr. Donnelly, appointed chairman of Minnesota state committee by the Cincinnati convention, gave the names of a full state committee and hoped it would meet with acceptance. Senator Hompe leader of the anti-Donnelly alliance faction, objected to the new committee because it ignored the existing alliance campaign committee. He held that the Cincinnati convention proposed new committees only in organized states while Minnesota was fully organized for agitation. The debate then grew warm and finally a motion was made for a committee of five to report a compromise, three of said committee to be the three appointed at Cincinnaai. Donnelly objected but the motion carried.

This committee of five last night announced a new committee divided between the two factions. Another fight then arose on some members of the committee, in the course of which R. J. Hall, ex-president of the state alliance, denounced Editor Fish, of the Great West, as a traitor and called him a liar. Fish attempted to defend himself. The report was adopted and the new state committee met last night.

The Hompe and Donnelly factions have never pulled together, and the quarrel will do much to disintegrate the alliance in the state. Should the war be pushed to the bitter end, it is not improbable that one wing of the alliance will be eventually captured by the republicans and the other by the democrats. Donnelly's movements have been watched with grave suspicions, and his prominence in the Cincinnati convention ripened the jealousies of the Hompe-Hall crowd. Editor Fish has always supported Donnelly, and the Great West has been the mouthpiece of the sage.

OPINIONS UNITED.

Those Who Saw the Electrocutions Believe Them Painless.

NEW YORK, July 8.—Governor Hill arrived in town last night. Regarding the executions at Sing Sing, he said: "Electrical execution has come to stay. I received an official notice from Warden Brown merely saying that the executions had taken place successfully and I know nothing more about them."

DR. A. D. Rockwell characterizes electricity as being far more humane than hanging and said in none of the hangings he had seen did the men suffer as little as the murderers who sat in the death chair yesterday. He denies that any burning was apparent.

Dr. Daniels said, but for his promise not to talk he could tell a startling tale. He admitted that as in the Kemmler case it was necessary to shock the victims twice. One physician said he never saw anything so neatly done. It reminded him of a little family party as they sat in the room there.

Dr. L. P. Cortelyou attended the test in the interest of science and has made up his mind, if he found cruelty in electricity, to lay a complaint before the authorities, and seek to have the law repealed. Death in every instance was absolutely painless and instantaneous. The two shocks were administered simply as a matter of precaution.

The Sun says: This morning the Sun and every other real newspaper in the state openly and deliberately violate that section of the electrical execution law which forbids the publication of the details of an execution. The law defies a higher law, namely, the constitution, which decrees that "no law shall be passed to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech or the press." The press must bring about the repeal of this unconstitutional provision. To that end it should devote its utmost energies at the next election. The Sun is ready to engage itself to support any republican candidate who shall promise to vote or work for the repeal of the law.

Political Pleasantries in Rhody.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 8.—As a result of the decision of the supreme court on Friday last in ousting the recently elected democratic town council of Lincoln on the tissue ballot issue, the republicans stormed the town house yesterday afternoon, forced the doors and entered the office. Town Clerk Smith refused to give up the records pending the production of the certificate of election of his successor, and awaiting the arrival of some one to break open the vault, the day's proceedings closed.

Chicago Froth About Beer.

CHICAGO, July 8.—Chicago capitalists propose to build six big breweries, two to be located on the north side, two on the west side and two on the south side. Their capacity is to be 25,000 barrels each per annum. The latest improvements are to be introduced, and beer is to be sold at $3.50 per barrel, it is stated. As the present price is $6 the old companies will have some lively competition.

The Servia Disabled.

NEW YORK, July 8.—Prince George of Greece, who was among the passengers who returned here yesterday on the disabled Servia, sailed again on the Inman steamer Italia. A number of other Servia passengers sailed, while others will remain and go Saturday.

Arabia Lost to the Turk.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 8.—The Sultan is in a fair way to lose all Arabia. His advisers appreciate the gravity of the situation, but are paralyzed through want of the money needed to equip an effective army. Meanwhile the insurgents of Yemen have organized a separate government.

THE LAKE.

Evaporation Does Not Bother its Waters; Seeking its Source.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—Dispatches received by the railroad officials from Salton show that there is no material change in the level of the lake. An exploring party, sent out five days ago from Yuma, has returned, but they report unsatisfactory.

They went down the Colorado and found where the water was entering the desert at El Rio and traced it for fifty-two miles, as far as Great Lake at the Indian Wells. They found the stream leaving the Colorado forty feet deep. Water covered all the old stage route, and thirty-five miles from the Colorado it had a velocity of four miles an hour. The stream at this point was from one-half to two miles wide and from two to four feet deep.

The party came within sight of the ridge which separates the Indian Wells from Salton basin, but they did not explore this ridge to ascertain just how the water comes through. Another party will be sent out by the railroad, starting from Flowing Wells, with instructions not to return till they have solved the desert mystery. The Colorado river is falling, having dropped a foot in five days.

KAISER AND PRINCE.

One Headstrong But Bright, The Other Mild and Ignorant.

LONDON, July 8.—The kaiser is anxious to visit not only the naval exposition, but also the dock yards and at the state dinner in Windsor, he put the prince of Wales in an embarrassing position by asking him some questions about naval matters to which the prince was entirely unable to respond. The kaiser also tried to obtain some military intelligence from the prince, but it is said, found the royal field marshal hopelessly ignorant on all such topics.

A well-known nobleman has cruelly suggested that the prince would have been at home on baccarat. The kaiser, it is thought, takes a malicious pleasure in sounding the depth of the prince's ignorance on prominent public topics. They are, however, to all appearances, very friendly.

The prince of Wales had a baccarat party at Windsor Monday night, the kaiser being an interested onlooker.

Royalty's Time.

NEW YORK, July 8.—A dispatch from London says: Sunday was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of the prince and Princess Christian, the latter being Princess Helena of England, daughter of the queen, and today the event is being celebrated with a grand party. The guests include the queen, emperor of Germany, and nearly all who attended the marriage on Monday. Tonight the entire party will attend the Italian opera. The performance is given by command of the queen and will be a most imposing affair. The floral decorations are magnificent. The foyer and rear of the pit has been turned into a literal hothouse, the balconies are banked with fragrant blossoms, the sides of the house are lined with palms and choice exotics and the space usually occupied by the orchestra has been turned into a grotto, with a miniature lawn, beautiful beds of flowers and a playing fountain. The staircases and corridors of the house will be lined by a detachment of the Grenadier Guards in full uniform, together with the picturesque Yeomen of the guard from the Tower, known to the English as the Beefeaters.

For the space in the house not occupied by the royal party the tariff was decided upon a week ago of $110 for the boxes and $35 for other seats. Yesterday and today, however, as much as $400 has been offered for boxes and $100 for single seats.

Mrs. Potter Palmer in Paris.

PARIS, July 8.—Mrs. Potter Palmer of Chicago, was today granted a private audience with Mme. Carnot, wife of the president of the French republic. Tomorrow evening by special invitation Mrs. and Mr. Palmer will occupy the president's box at the opera. The press refers most favorably to Mrs. Palmer's ladies world's fair committee which was recently organized here. It is Mrs. Palmer's intention to promote the formation of a similar committee in London, where princess Christian Schleswigh-Holstein has promised her aid in the work.

They go to Frogmore.

LONDON, July 8.—The kaiser and kaiserine and suite drove to Frogmore this morning to visit the tomb of late Prince Consort. On their return to Windsor they lunched with the queen, the prince and princess of Wales, the duke of Connaught and the children of the German imperial family, and proceeded to Cumber Landing, where they will be guests of Prince Christian, at a magnificent garden party.

Mr. Gladstone Buried.

LONDON, July 6.—The late W. H. Gladstone was buried at Hawarden today. His father and the other members of the family accompanied the body to the vault, followed by the villagers and many friends from various parts of England and Scotland. Arnold Morley and Cyril Flower represented the house of commons.

Sue For Six Millions.

OMAHA, July 8.—Suit has begun by the Kansas & Colorado Pacific railway against the Fitzgerald & Mallory company for $6,000,000. The petition alleges that the defendants fraudulently obtained control of the road and converted to their own use money subscribed by towns and counties in its aid.

IN A HIGH COURT.

Northwestern Railway Magnates Who Are up in United States Court.

The Kansas City Road and Its Smashing of the Interstate Law.

What the Prosecution and Defense Expect to Claim in the Matter.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 8.—The trial of the United States against President Egan and General Passenger Agent Holdridge, of the Kansas City railway, began here today before Judge Thayer, of St. Louis.

Among the interested parties present are General Passenger Agents Bursenbark, Finley and Donald, of Chicago, and a special agent of the interstate commerce commission. Defendants are represented by Lusk & Bunn and C. D. O'Brien. The latter took objection at the outset that the indictment was incomplete in that it insufficiently described the offense. The objection was overruled.

H. L. Martin and Herman Brown, ticket agents of the Union depot at Minneapolis and St. Paul were the first witnesses. They testified as to the rates in force March 12, identifying the tariff of that date and one of three weeks later, in which the first-class unlimited ticket was unchanged. Their evidence was to the effect that there was much cutting of rates from January to June. The Kansas City had three classes of tickets. The changes and cuts related to limited tickets only. Both witnesses were questioned minutely as to the different classes of tickets. The defense will be that Charles Petsch, the ticket broker, bought special limited tickets. The prosecution claims, however, that these were sold for regular first-class unlimited passage.

NICHOLS OUT.

The Department Informed that He Intends to Withdraw from the Contest.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 8.—[Special to The Herald.]—A special to the Journal from Washington says: "The interior department officials have been informed that Monroe Nichols intends to withdraw from the contest for the Duluth land office registership."

The Lyceum Auction Sale of Seats.

The Lyceum auction of seats will take place in the Spalding house corridor Monday, July 27, at 8 o'clock in the evening. There is a great deal of interest being taken by the citizens of Duluth in the Lyceum opening and it will, no doubt, be a grand affair. Manager Haycock wishes it distinctly understood that no one person can have more than six tickets. This is done to prevent speculators from getting control of the best seats. The prices will be given in a few days and then every body can make preparations to attend the opening of the grandest theater in America.

A Convent Destroyed.

ST. HILAIRE, Que., July 8.—The convent of La Providence, commonly known as that of Sister Gadbois, situated on the Richelieu river bclow Beloit, is on fire, and there is no hope of any part of it being saved.

A New York Depot Burned.

NEW YORK, July 8.—The main depot of the Sixth avenue street railway company burned this afternoon. It occupies an entire block, between Forty-third and Forty-fourth streets and 200 feet back from Sixth avenue. The loss is $60,000.

Help Pay the Charleston's Coal Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Secretary Foster has authorized the acceptance of the offer of the Itata to pay a $500 fine for the violation of the navigation laws. This does not affect the charges of kidnapping an officer and violating the neutrality laws.

SECTION SIXTEEN.

The Title to Valuable Iron Range Land Settled

The supreme court has decided against appellant in the case of A. J. Whiteman vs. the Minnesota Mining company of this city. The land embraces valuable iron property in section 16, near Tower, which was taken by the company under lease by the state. Whiteman claimed his application for lease was a prior claim, and was defeated before Judge Stearns, whose decision is now affirmed.

The Huron Bay & Iron Range.

Senator F. B. Daugherty is back from a trip to Huron Bay, Mich., where his firm has a dredging contract from the Huron Bay & Iron Range railroad. He reports that the work of building the ore docks and railroad is being pushed for all there is in it. There are 2500 men at work on the road alone, which will extend from Champion to Huron Bay, a distance of thirty-five miles. The money is furnished by Michigan parties and it is believed that this new road will cut into the ore business of the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic to a considerable extent.

In Municipal Court.

Ira Johnson was sent up for drunkenness. J. Polson paid a fine for the same offense.

Wm. Cummings, a vag, was ordered to get out of town.

At this afternoon's session the new National society, which was brought into existence yesterday, will be formally inaugurated. A convention hymn written by Rev. S. F. Smith, author of "My County, 'tis of Thee," will be sung. There will be a night session, which will bring he convention to a close.

Washington's Wheat Crop.

TACOMA, Wash., July 8.—The Washington wheat crop is in danger of partial destruction by gophers and squirrels. For several days wheat buyers have been receiving advices that for five or six days these animals have been appearing in large numbers in the Big Bend and Palouse districts. Arsenic is being spread over the fields and is killing large numbers of the rodents.

THE RIGHT-OF-WAY.

The Property Owners Having a Hearing Before the Commissioners Today.

Messrs. E. G. Chapman, Thos. H. Fairfax and Franklin W. Merritt, the gentlemen appointed as commissioners to appraise damages to property owners along the right-of-way of the Duluth & Winnipeg road in Duluth vicinity, have carefully inspected the properties affected and today began a hearing of the owners and witnesses.

The hearing is being held in the office of Mr. Merritt, 303 Palladio building, and the room was today crowded with attorneys, property owners, railroad men, reporters and others. The sessions will probably last several days. Nothing can be predicted as to the outcome, but a general feeling of fairness prevails on both sides. Among the property owners in interest are James Bardon, New Duluth Land company, H. S. Stearns, Geo. J. McManus, S. A. Thompson, Emil Schmied, J. L. Washburn, E. Totman, James C. Dash, S. R. Payne, A. S. Leaviston, W. B. Howard, R. N. Seaver, Nancy M. Ewer, W. E. Fuller, R. G. Miller, F. D. West, W. G. Joerns, Amos Shepard, and a few small holders in Ironton and Minnewauken addition.

It is under the auspices of the Northwestern Sangerbund which this year completes the quarter centennial of its existence. The exposition building has been fitted up and provided with a seating capacity for 5000. There will be a mixed chorus of 2500 voices, a mammoth male chorus, together with a ladies' chorus and a children's chorus. The opening takes place this afternoon.

A Boy Catapult.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Rev. Dr. Wm. A. Shubert, an episcopalian minister 60 years of age, was killed last night by a little boy named Gaut. The old gentleman was crossing the street and the boy was riding a bicycle. As he neared Dr. Shubert the bicycle struck a stone and the boy was thrown with great force against the doctor, who fell to the pavement. He was carried to his home and died shortly afterward.

THE EASTERN LINE.

It is Again Doubtful if the Lakeside Street Railway Connection be Made.

East End People Given a Dose of the Medicine Fourth Street Swallowed.

The Excuse About "Grades" is Shown to be no Excuse at All.

Duluth has for some months back been eagerly looking forward to electric motor service this season to Lakeside, and now the scheme seems to be temporarily knocked in the head. When the company decided to go to Lakeside and agreed to build over a certain course most of its stock was held by Minneapolis parties. A week or so ago the control was obtained by Duluth men. No one dreamed that there was anything wrong with the present route mapped out until two nights ago when the Lakeside council deferred action on opening a new street because they were informed the line was to traverse Jefferson street instead of Bench street in Duluth.

The city authorities havee been notified within the past few hours by the company that it will be out of the question to use Bench street because the grade is too high. The company wants to run on Jefferson street because the grade is lower. However members of the council claim that the real reason for the proposed change is that the new owners of the railway have heavy property interests along East Superior street, and that by transferring the line to Jefferson street, which is nearer the lake, their property would be enhanced in value.

But the mayor and a majority of the council are opposed to the change for several reasons, as are residents and officials of Lakeside. Bench street was ordered improved for the benefit of the railroad company, and the contractor has been working a week. The change to Jefferson street would mean not only a great expenditure not necessary at present, but it would mean that the people near the lake front would get double transportation service, which is at present as good as could be asked, as the Iron Range road runs seventeen trains each way daily. It also means that the people several blocks back from the lake front would be as badly off as ever for transportation.

M. B. Harrison met with the board of works and mayor this morning and protested against the scheme. His reasons were similar to those given above. If Bench street is not utilized the railway cannot be used before next year, as much time would be needed for improving Jefferson street even were the council willing to order it.

But what are the facts regarding Bench street grades? The electric line can draw cars at a 10 per cent grade. On Third avenue west between First and Second streets the grade is 8.8 per cent. There is only one place on Bench street where the grade is over 5 per cent, as the following figures will show:

Between Montana and Virginia avenues, two blocks	6.1
Between Virginia and Kentucky avenues, two blocks	2.5
Between Kentucky and Massachusetts avenues, two blocks	4.4
Between Massachusetts and Connecticut avenues, one block	5.0
Between Connecticut and Delaware avenues, one block	4.5
Between Delaware and Michigan avenues, three blocks	1.9
Between Michigan and Mackinaw avenues, one block	6.8
Between Mackinaw and St. Clair avenues, one block	1.3
Between St. Clair and Erie avenues, two blocks	2.5
Between Erie avenue and city limits, one block	1.4

Sold Whisky to Reds.

James Simpson, bartender at the Rising Sun hotel on Lower Lake avenue, was somewhat surprised while walking along the street this morning to be arrested by Deputy United States Marshal Warren. Simpson, it is alleged, sold on June 14 a couple of pints of fire water to two Indians, named Henry Hudson and Zozay, who were brought here as witnesses in the Indian murder case. Hudson could speak English as fluently as most white men, but no one could mistake him for anything but a full blooded Indian. Notwithstanding his fine training received at the government school at Carlish, Pa., he allowed himself and his companion to get gloriously full. Simpson's case was continued by Commissioner Carey until Saturday. Last night Indian Que-Wis, of Leech Lake reservation, was brought here charged with introducing and selling whisky on the reservation. His case was continued to Saturday.

District Court Adjourns.

The June term of the district court closed this morning after a session of five weeks. Judge Stearns finished his work yesterday afternoon. The suit against Leopold, et al, was taken under advisement, as were also tax cases 1, 2, 3 and 4.

Evidence in T. M. Erickson vs. Wm. Fisher was all in this morning, and the case was submitted to Judge Ensign, who also heard a motion for a new trial in the St. Paul Trust company vs. Scott & Holston.

Mendenhall Made Vice President.

Hurt by a Motor.

Thomas A. Broley, a young carpenter of this city, met with a serious accident last evening. He attempted to step upon the trailer, when he was caught by the corner of the car and dragged down. He was picked up and taken to St. Lukes hospital. It was feared he would not live through the night, as one of his vertebrae was broken, but is still alive and may recover. He is not paralyzed.

AN EXPERIMENT IN IRRIGATION.

By a convulsion of nature, by which a desert in the southernmost county of California has been flooded, it is probable that many thousands of acres heretofore arid dust will be made valuable and productive land. Nature is performing, on a gigantic scale, the experiments in irrigation that have so long been looked on to solve the problem of the Dakotas, as well as the Southwest.

The Colorado desert covers 3000 square miles in San Diego county. Through its northern part, 263 feet below the level of the Pacific, runs the Southern Pacific, whose descent, in seventy-five miles from 395 feet above the sea into this sink, has no parallel in railroading. The desert is a great waste of granite points, sand hills, dry lakes, mud volcanoes, hot springs, growth of cactus and intolerable heat. The soil is sandy, alkaline and saline, with scanty vegetation. The surface reflects light like a mirror, and the dry lakes, which, in the rainy season, hold a few inches of water, are nine months of the year like a sheet of tin. Lizards and horned toads abound, unnoticed except when they assume a peculiarly bright hue. Rattlesnakes are numerous, the sidewinder, the most dreaded of all, being a frequent inhabitant.

The dispatches that have come to us have told of the heat. It is impossible of conception. The sun, shooting its almost vertical rays into these shining and windless valleys fairly cooks the atmosphere. Evaporation and perspiration is inconcievably great. Of plants there are none but the cactus. It is beyond human powers of description to picture the scene in some parts of the desert—the vast stretches of white plain variegated with black lava, the alluring mirages, the total absence of trees, the dearth of animal life, and the heat, from which there is no escape. Here and there, too, are pebble beds, miles in extent, made up of agate, moss agate, chalcedony, jasper and obsidian.

It is into this territory that the water is flowing. If it comes from the sea it will make a permanent lake of 3000 square miles and 265 feet deep. The effect on climate can hardly be realized. It will be worth more to the Southwest than a dozen land booms.

THAT SUPERIOR MEETING.

The Herald isn't saying much these bright July days, but we hope no one will suspect we are not thinking of Duluth's best interests. There are other days coming, and we are not in a hurry. Now and then we shall opine a little bit, trust us for that; and today we have a short report of the dude-caught meeting in Superior Monday night. It is told in kindly language, which, strive as we may, we cannot throw off. We love those Anglo-Saxon phrases that have such a tender and pungent meaning, and oftimes touch the heart with voluptuous delight. Not to desecrate our editorial columns with such a theme, we give it in the form of an open letter on another page. No word is there spoken in anger, for we are incapable of such an emotion toward such scaly, swimming spawn of the morass. We may loathe such creatures, but no one can feel anger even at a nest of snakes whose venom has been spewed upon him. Driven from the garden, they seek the swamps and lurk in the slimy environs of God's footstool. We ask the indulgence of our readers who have not seen the other side and become familiar with the daily personal abuse heaped upon the writer. But what we have said is in love, and we hope no one across the bay will take offense at our gentle chiding.

OUR WORLD'S FAIR BUILDING.

Hon. M. B. Harrison, national World's fair commissioner for Minnesota, informs the writer that some injustice was done the state board by the communication which appeared in The Herald yesterday. Nothing has been done yet to secure plans for a building at Chicago, but such steps will be taken after the meeting to be held in St. Paul on the 17th inst. The measurement of the grounds is yet unknown, but will be ascertained, and $500 will be offered by the board for plans to be competed for by Minnesota architects. The building will cost about $25,000, for which only $5000 is provided in the appropriation, and will be constructed wholly of Minnesota materials. Editor L. P. Hunt, of the Mankato Free Press, and George N Lanphere, of the Moorhead News, prominent members of the state board, are firm friends of Duluth, and there is no doubt our city will receive just recognition. Mr. Hunt, it is thought, will be made president of the board. The Herald sends its kindly greeting to the boys.

The Herald writer wishes to acknowledge a pleasant call yesterday afternoon from Judge Fridley, Editor French of the Call, and Capt. Gilmore of the Superior police force, all genial gentlemen from across the bay who dropped in to express disapprobation of the course pursued by the chamber of commerce dude factory in their town Monday night, and to assure us of a pleasant welcome and protection next time. We extend our thanks for their unexpected courtesy, and assure them in return that Duluth does not hold Superior responsible for the action of her dudes. We know how hard it is to control the disreputable classes. Mr. Buxton is the only gentleman we hold responsible. The others didn't know any better.

The Northwestern Lumberman asks The Herald to go into the details of the case and substantiate with facts and figures the short editorial article which appeared in these columns relative to the daming of the upper Mississippi and the accumulating of fortunes by denuding the lands of timber and then robbing the government. The Herald is not a prosecuting attorney and has a kindly feeling toward all mankind, but if this matter is pressed we may have to give a few facts that are stowed away behind the statute of limitation. We like history, so don't crowd us.

The Minnesota Fish and Game commission is doing what previous game wardens should have done long ago. It is making a compilation of the state laws relative to fish and game of all kinds and will put it in the hands of every justice of the peace and constable in the state. The new commission intends to see that the laws are enforced and that the previous indiscriminate slaughter of game is stopped. Now let Wisconsin do as well and a great reform will have been accomplished.

While we are smoothing out the riffles in our new dress it may not be out of place to remark that The Herald is sending out over three thousand papers daily with from fifteen to twenty new friends calling for it every day, and that it will try to accept with becoming modesty the many compliments showered upon it.

R. Quixote Mills, the distinguished Texan, has opened his speakership campaign with vigor, it is said, and will gather the persimmons if it is in reach of his pole. Crisp, of Georgia, would prove a better choice for the democracy though there can be no doubt about the exalted talents of R. Q.

DISPATCHES sent out from Superior under date of July 7 say that "a large manufactory today discharged 250 workmen who resided in Duluth, substituting Superior residents." This is in part true. The barge works had just discharged 250 men now walking the streets of that town, and substituted nobody. Five thousand people will leave Superior as soon as the public improvements stop, which must be soon. One of the contractors discharged a number of men last Saturday. Before they get their sewers built they will discover that the earth has inflammation of the bowels.

THERE can be but one great city at the head of the lakes. Superior will be the New York and Duluth the Brooklyn, or Duluth will be the New York and Brooklyn combined and Superior will be the Jersey City. Don't make any mistake about two great cities. The God of nature is not in the freak business.

THE Superior chamber of commerce has ordered 25,000 copies of the recent Herald editorials printed. They don't reproduce such stuff as is written on that side of the bay. The Herald accepts the compliment and in return will give the dudes plenty of matter for another edition.

MEN who talk two great commercial centers at the head of the lakes are not only mistaken, but they are disloyal to Duluth. The Zenith City is a solitaire. Set that in your commercial diadem.

THIS Superior business hasn't begun yet. There will be lots of fun when we get things to vibrating.

This is the Right Stuff.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Oliver W. Holmes says he often got upon the cars expecting to be magnetized into a blissful reverie and his thoughts shaken up by the vibration into all sorts of new and pleasing patterns—fresh ideas coming up to the surface as the kernels do when a measure of corn is jolted in a farmer's wagon. That "9:20 Short line train home on Monday" appears to have the business for you Mr. Editor, and after the indignity offered you by Superior while still suffering from the effects of their rude expulsion your locomotive journey though short, must have been painfully severe. The subsequent ideas coming to the surface after such rude jolting must certainly have had somewhat of a worrying ache about them. The first thought on your return appears to have been given to the preachers. This is good. It is natural that in your trouble you should think of them They have often to sympathize with the sorrowing, the suffering and the dying and their sympathy will not be found wanting in your case. The writer likes editors, etc., etc. The real truth is you should have stayed at home and not have wandered over to that naughty Superior with all its morasses, etc. I fear you will not be able to pacify them after your brilliant and powerful articles even by a sight of your genial face and the magnetism of your presence. But what is all your anxiety about Mr. Editor? Because the clergymen of our city protest againt ball playing on Sundays? Would you deny them this mild privilege? Would you consider it a good feature of our ministry if they advocated a personal-liberty-go-as-you-please policy with regard to Sunday sports? Would it be likely to attract the people we need to build up the city? Give the preachers a little liberty, Mr. Editor. We accept your verdict "that they can't preach," and such a regular attendant as yourself upon the means of grace surely ought to know. Don't kick if less than a yard of cloth ventures to protest. Without attempt to enter upon any argument of the question here, I would call your attention to the fact, which can hardly have escaped your notice, that the concensus of all thoughtful opinion appears to be for conserving our American Sunday and guarding it as one of the corner stones of our institutions, and that in proportions to the growth of lax ideas about its observance the number required to work increases. Hallam, the great historian, calls the continental Sunday "the holiday of despotism" and shows us that the despots have studiously cultivated a love of Sunday pastimes to keep the people quiet under political distresses." Trusting to have your company "in green pastures and beside the still waters" and that in future you will keep Superior at your pen's point, and be led in the paths of rightousness for your own sake as well as for the sake of the preachers. GEORGE H. KEMP.

"Has Been Worried Eighteen Years."

It should have been "married," but the proof-reader observed that it amounted to about the same thing, and so did not draw his blue pencil through the error. Unfortunately there was considerable truth in his observation. Thousands of husbands are constantly worried almost to despair by the ill health that afflicts their wives, and often robs life of comfort and happiness. There is but one safe and sure way to change all this for the better. The ladies should use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Excursion Rates.
On July 8 and 9 the St. Paul & Duluth railway, "Duluth Short Line," will sell round trip tickets to St. Paul and Minneapolis for $6, good to return until July 15 inclusive. Tickets good via any line. For information apply to Moving on the Heights.

There is still an opportunity to buy a home site or make a most profitable investment, with little money, in the new addition of Duluth Heights. Lots average only $200 and the cash payment is but $50. Two or three hundred of the lots have been sold in the first three or four days, nearly one-quarter of them to home builders, so that the speedy building up of the addition is assured. Will you join the crowd? Remember that this addition is as near the center of business as is the central section of aristocratic Endion, where lots are worth $3000 to $5000 each, and will be reached by the new incline road (completed Oct. 1) and the electric line on the hill in as quick time. No better investment can be made at the head of the lake; no other portion of Duluth will have such an advance in value in the next twelve months or be more rapidly improved. Lots are selling every day. The sale will be continued for a few days at present prices, after which an advance of $50 a lot will be made.

THE TIME To Invest in Real Estate is when there is no rush. When the demand is normal, and strong enough to indicate good advances.

THE PLACE To invest in Real Estate is Where Improvements Are Being Made that will insure healthy growth. Where the improvements are of such character, that a backward step is impossible. Where the foundation has already been laid, and on a foundation solid enough to guarantee a substantial superstructure.

THE OPPORTUNITY For investing in Real Estate is ripe when the conditions of time and place are most favorable.

New Duluth Offers you these conditions today. No suburb of Duluth has made such rapid strides or such substantial improvements as NEW DULUTH. Eight large manufacturing industries are now located which alone, when in full running order, will insure a population of 5000 people. Some of these are already in operation. The Atlas Iron and Brass Works, an illustration of which appears with this, has an order amounting to $45,000 for building paper machinery from one firm, the Marinette Paper Co., of Marinette, Wis. All the other plants are being pushed to completion as rapidly as men and money can. All of them have enough orders ahead, and are of such recognized standing that they will be run at their full capacity.

There are many other points too numerous to mention here that will convince any one that New Duluth offers the most substantial inducements for investors at the head of the lake today.

Call at the Office of the New Duluth Land Company for Transportation to New Duluth. One Trip Will Convince You.

THAT BOYCOTT MEETING

A Short and Simple Story of the Dude Gathering That Was to do up Duluth, but Didn't do It.

Visiting Reporter Bounced by Such Men as Murphy, Mannen, Buxton and Other Kindergarten Quantities.

Tale of Their Downfall, Together With a Few Kindly Words on the Leader of the Gawky Gang

So much pressure has been brought upon the writer to give his version of the meeting at Superior Monday night, that he can not refrain from making a short and simple statement of the facts, leaving the general article descriptive of the forty-mile morass till a later date. It was a few minutes after 8 o'clock when I entered the small room on the third floor of the First National bank building where the Telegram announced the mass meeting would gather to expound the gospel of bellyaching. Six persons were in the room, one being a reporter recently employed on The Herald, with whom I exchanged greetings. There was no attempt at secrecy, but as I know more about Superior than any of those present seemed to know about anything or everything, I had no occasion to commune with them. I went as a reporter, and can learn more than some folks know without asking any questions. In fact there was nothing to ask, as I had already made a verifying tour. I was in a happy frame of mind, and no ungenerous thought marred the tablet of my heart. Slowly the moundbuilders came in one by one, leaving their rubber diving suits in the corridor. There was in the mean time much conversing in whispers. They had discovered a stranger in their midst, and strangers are so scarce since the suckers were all plucked and the boom busted, that counsel had to be taken as to what they should do with me. They acted like all other small boys do when they find a hen on, fluttering around on tip toe in breathless silence and with eyes like their heads greatly swollen. It was to me an interesting study in kindergarten moundbuilding. They would withdraw from the room in twos and discuss in a grave manner the audacity of a Duluthian in attending a public meeting of citizens in Superior. They acted sillier than a seminary of old maids who had been proposed to in a job lot. Evidently they were at their wits' end as to what to do, but at ten minutes before 9 o'clock the meeting was called to order with thirty present, being nearly all young and irresponsible dudes of the Murphydite order of freaks.

Tommy Alvord, as chairman of the boycott committee, was called on for a solo. He talked a few minutes, stating that the committee was not ready to make a full report, but "as we have with us tonight the gentleman from Duluth who has seen fit to villify Superior and everything on this side of the bay, it is proper that we should ask him to make an explanation of what he has done." This pleasing opportunity could not be shunned, and my remarks interspersed with many queries was in substance as follows:

"I hardly know what you would have me say, and I certainly came here with no intention of making a speech, but having been pictured in your paper as a hump back I thought I might pass unrecognized, and report your meeting for the Duluth press as other reporters are doing for your own papers. However, as I have been urged to say something, and am charged with villifying your city, I will first ask all those who have been reading The Herald and know what they are talking about, to raise their hands." For a minute or two no one moved and a slight snicker went round, showing how happily they had been turned down. Then four or five pushed up their hands in a way that said they were lying, but that they had to do it. "I see that few of you know anything about the charges you have made, but if anything untrue for which I am responsible has been said of Superior, I will gladly correct it if you will furnish me the facts. I have said that out of 550 lake arrivals only four came in and one went out at the Superior entrance, and if that isn't true I want to know it. I have said that there isn't a set of grain books kept in Superior, that every bushel of grain at the head of the lakes is handled in Duluth, inspected under the Minnesota law by Minnesota inspectors, and that the Minnesota legislature investigated the management of your elevators at their financial office in Duluth. If that isn't true I want to know it. You say we have stolen your grain shipments, but if the offices were all in Superior, your banks handled the business, the grain was inspected under your laws, and the vessels cleared at your port, would not Superior claim the business regardless of what part of the morass the elevators happened to be in?"

These and other statements were made and repeated, but no one present could deny them, and then it became apparent that the dude fools didn't want the explanation they had called for; and while I had the floor obeying Tommy's orders, the resolution to exclude me from the hall was put and unanimously carried. I said in my remarks that The Herald had charged the First National bank of Superior with loaning $150,000 on call in Chicago because there was no collateral in the swamp, and that I had been informed, though The Herald had not said so, that Mr. Buxton's bank had done the same. Mr. Buxton arose and said his bank had not loaned "that amount there," implying that it was not so plethoric, and had loaned less, which humiliating fact I accepted. This was the only point in which I was corrected. I found time to tell the 'ass meeting that their chambar of commerce had placed its imprint on many lies about Duluth, made in words, in juggled statistics, and in maps, and that words, figures or pictures were lies if they conveyed a false impression. This gave one dude an idea which pained him, and he declared my statement that only four vessels came in at their entrance gave a false impression of their commerce. I explained that I would never think of attacking anything so small as Superior's commerce, and that my purpose was to show Duluth held the key to the commercial situation. I couldn't help what impression people might get from so luscious a truth. This gave him the cholera infantum, and then another shouted, "Didn't you say 5000 people would leave Superior within twelve month?" The answer came straight, "Yes, and I say so now." This produced a sort of family bellyache, and several voices cried, "Then we have no use for you here," "Get out of this," "Now's your time to git." Other charges were made which I denied, and with a cordial invitation to all to visit Duluth, also assuring them that the day they began an organized boycott I should begin issuing new edition of the gospel of fraternal affection, I withdrew amid threats and imprecations.

Among the sucking calves that had dropped the mamma teat and swam in to the cub gathering, bleating his belly-ache bleat along the corduroy cartrack, was the puny specimen of whisky-soaked egotism, the brainless pimp who serves as the tool of a babbitt boweled corporation, and is by some called the manager of the Telegram. His other name is Murphy. This vile companion of prostitutes, shunned and despised by all decent people in Superior, is the thing that has been lying about Duluth and distorting his carcass to say vile things of the writer. Having stumbled upon a little money in a mudhole, this inflated brothel bum rides around the pontoon streets on horseback like an English dude with his feet in his vest pockets, rolling his eyes like a sick calf, a disgusting spectacle even to the companions whose friendship he buys with the hire of prostitution. It is this slimy creature of whom heretofore we have kindly spoken, that is attempting to defame Duluth and malign me. But he can't do it. Such reptiles are incapable of slander. Essaying the carriage of a soldier, he has no military airs that were not acquired on Minnesota point. Not so much as the product, he is but the refuse dross of a dude factory, parts his hair in the middle, apes his ancestors, and would pass in any dog market as the step-father of a bull pup. And yet Mr. Buxton and the other gentlemen who invited me to explain, and then bounced me while I was on my feet, follow the lead of this corrupt and loathesome thing. "Forgive them, they know not what they do."

J. ADAM BEDE.

Notes of Big Work.

About 1000 yards of rock will have to be excavated on Seventh avenue west, between Second and Third streets for the incline. The rock is now being stripped for this purpose.

A solid wall or abutment ten feet at the base and four feet at the top with buttresses every few feet its length, is being built on Piedmont avenue at First avenue west and Sixth street. This abutment is for the handsome new iron bridge which is to span Clarkhouse creek at this point.

The pipe storm sewer which was put in on Fifth avenue west, between Second and Third streets two years ago, is being taken up and will be replaced with a brick sewer, which will have a solid footing of rubble masonry laid in Portland cement. Although the pipe sewer was laid in six inches of concrete, it was badly worn, in several places entirely through. It would be economy on the part of the city to construct none but brick storm sewers hereafter. In the opinion of several contractors it is only a question of a few years when all the storm sewers in the city will have to be replaced by brick ones.

As Wild as a Deer.

Speaking of Manager Miller, of the Spider and Fly company, whose sudden insanity became manifest here last week, the Minneapolis Journal today says: "He is no better and is as wild as a deer. No answer has been received to the telegram sent yesterday to his relatives in Indianapolis. Miller cannot be kept at the hotel. Dr. J. J. Linn, the attending physician, is of the opinion that with proper care Miller may recover. There has been a complete breaking down of his nervous system, followed by brain trouble. Miss Hilda Thomas, the soubrette of Shaw Opera company, will not leave until he has been taken care of. It is said on good authority that he is engaged to be married to the lady and that the wedding was to have taken place soon."

The Port Arthur Road.

Construction on the Port Arthur, Duluth & Western road has reached the township of Grange, near the head of Whitefish lake. Two of the three trestle bridges to be built at the lake are about completed and the way is clear for ties and track to the Whitefish. At the lake the line is 1000 feet above Lake Superior.

The New Burrows Building and How it Will Look When Ready for Use.

Is Planned and Built Entire, and to be Occupied by Duluth Men.

Imagine a show window 155 feet long, a stretch of great sheets of plate glass, and above it rising four massive stories of brick and stone. Such will be the appearance of the Burrows building, which is now rapidly rising on the vacant corner of Superior street and Third avenue west.

The building is so well shown in the cut that no long description is needed. It is five stories high, 50 by 140 feet. The main floor is glass, all glass, with the iron columns supporting the weight overhead, set back two feet into the building. Story two will be cut and sawn brown sandstone, with great windows between the pillasters; the third will be St. Louis pressed and moulded brick, with handsomely carved stone trimmings; the fourth will be moulded brick with large carved stone arches connecting the pillasters of the stories below; and with fluted mullions; the fifth will be square openings with carved stone capitals and stone plinths and baseblocks. The cornice, one of the most handsome that will ornament any building of the city, will be of copper of classic design. In its entirety the building is of a modern Romanesque. Its cost with grounds is about $200,000 and it is to be completed by November, with the store floors ready by Sept. 1.

The basement, which will be as light as any floor, and the first and second floors for 105 feet back will be occupied by M. S. Burrows & Co., the hustling firm that came here and launched a frail bark of trade only six years ago. The third, fourth and fifth floors will be for office purposes. They will be reached by a handsome avenue entrance, under a massive arch of carved stone resting on clusters of polished granite columns. The vestibule to this entrance will be in dome shape, made of beveled plate glass; flooring of vestibule and corridors will be of mosaic tile. Each office throughout will be provided with marble wash bowls and wardrobe and finished in antique oak. The offices are very desirable and a number are already rented. The elevator service will be as complete and perfect as possible, and the cars will be equal to those of the Auditorium, Chicago, which are considered the the finest in the United States. The building will be lighted by electricity from its own plant, there being fifty arc lamps in the stores and on sidewalks and 300 incandescents in the offices. There will also be gas and steam heat, and fireproof vaults on each floor. It is intended to carry the building to eight stories and to widen it to seventy-five feet front, the foundations and plans being so arranged. This will probably be done in a couple of years.

M. S. Burrows & Co., who started business as the "Great Eastern" six years ago with a small store, and by the skill and tact of the manager of the firm, Mr. Burrows himself, have grown into a great and very creditable business, not only creditable to himself but to Duluth as well, will use, as stated, three floors with about 16,000 feet of floor space. In the airy basement will be a wholesale department, thus adding another line to the growing wholesale trade of Duluth. On the main floor the entrance will be in the center and the great plate glass windows on either side are surpassed in size by but one window in the United States, being each seventeen feet wide. The same glass stretches around the side, the show window being thirteen feet deep in the front and six feet on the avenue. This floor is finished in antique oak, with tile floors and plate mirrors. It will be used for the retail suit, trousers, hat and cap and furnishing departments. On the second floor will be the boys' and children's department, and it will be the finest west of Chicago, furnished with especial reference to comfort for ladies. Duluth may well feel proud that such a building for strictly commercial purposes is put up here, and that a local store can carry a stock of new goods valued at $150,000, as will be carried here, making a total "plant" of about $350,000. The firm will close out its entire present stock, so as to go into the new building with a new stock throughout.

McMillan & Radcliffe are architects of this new building and McLeod & Campbell, Dwyer Bros. and W. W. Macmillan are contractors.

PERSONAL

Mrs. R. R. Briggs and family arrived yesterday from Moorhead and will be at home here in future.

Miss Munger expects to return from a month's visit in Maine tomorrow. Miss Young, of Brunswick, Me., accompanies her.

Rev. George H. Kemp lett on the noon train for St. Paul. He will take in the young people's meeting at Minneapolis.

A. M. Morison, of the firm of Simon Clark & Co., and M. Matheson, left last evening for Montreal, where they will sail for Scotland.

Mrs. Louden and family left last evening on the China for Detroit, where they will visit two months. Miss Lizzie Frazer accompanied them. She will visit in Port Huron.

Mrs. J. Waugh has returned from Greenville, Pa., where she has been for the past three months. She was accompanied by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Tillotson, who will spend the summer in Duluth.

Last evening Miss Fannie C. Edson, cousin of R. P. Edson, gave her Duluth and Superior friends an excursion on the Estelle to West Superior and thence around the horn. There were over fifty in the company.

Rev. Dr. Dunn, late pastor of the First methodist church, is on a short visit to the city. He says it is certainly refreshing to spend even a few hours in a city that has no peer in the United States, when delightful climate, rapid and substantial growth and the unbounded possibilities of future beauty and greatness are taken into consideration.

THE MARKETS.

France Will Send Back Some of That Gold; Local Wheat Prices.

NEW YORK, July 8.—Money loaned at 2½ per cent. Exchange lower. Posted rates, 484½@487½; actual rates 484¾@485 for sixty days and 486½@¾ for demand. Governments steady; currency, 6's 109¾ bid; 4's coupon 116 bid; 4½'s do 100 bid.

It was stated today that Lazard Frers, who has been shipping gold abroad so freely of late, had entered into an arrangement whereby it may be expected that a portion of gold may be returned in the fall. The details are matters of conjecture, but it appears that the firm is practically loaning gold to the Bank of France, receiving interest upon it and receiving also the privilege of drawing bills on the bank at such low figures as to make the reshipment of gold to this country profitable. The Paris correspondent of London Times estimates the total sum which Lazard Frers will draw from America at $30,000,000.

The stock market this morning was duller than for months past. The sales were insignificant. By noon they amounted to 32,3000 shares and this small total was made up wholly of transactions in Burlington, St. Paul, Chicago gas and Jersey Central,

Sioux City Not in it When Pitted Against the Local Team.

A great streak of batting on the part of Duluth, several fine catches by the outfield and Inks' pitching were what won yesterday's game from Sioux City. The latter club struck the ball quite freely, but was, on the whole, unable to send it where it would do any good. The Duluth boys did not use the head work that they ought to have used, while Sioux City took every advantage. Baldwin's fine catching was a noteworthy feature of the game, but he seemed unable to throw properly when trying to reach second. This was the score:

The Standing.

Interest in the standing of the various clubs increases as the days roll by. Yesterday's two games did not make any change in the positions of the Western Association clubs, but they made it impossible for Minneapolis to reach second place for several days. Sioux City is gradually coming down in percentage and, as Denver seems to be playing good ball of late, it is possible that ere many days the corn huskers will be just above Duluth. Philadelphia yesterday jumped from sixth to fourth place in the National. In the American Boston took the lead from St. Louis. Following is a bird's eye view of the situation:

THE YOUNG PEOPLE

Nearly 20,000 Members of the Young Peoples Societies of Christian Endeavor

Gather Today in Minneapolis in a Great and Soul Stirring Conference.

The City's Welcome is Sunny Skies, a Balmy Day and Kindness.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 9.—The Flour City has opened its homes to between 15,000 and 20,000 strangers today. They come from every state and every territory in the United States, from little Oklahoma yet in its swaddling clothes and even from the most remote points in Canada. They are the delegates and visitors to the international convention of the Young Peoples Society of Christian Endeavor.

Sunny skies, balmy air and hospitable homes. This was the welcome of the city of Minneapolis to the throngs of endeavorers who have been trooping into town ever since daylight. A very ingenious system has facilitated the work of quartering the visitors. Couriers met the twenty-eight special trains at points forty or fifty miles from the city. They provided each delegate with a slip giving the location of the home to which he was assigned and explicit directions how to reach it. The largest delegation was the New England train bringing 500. The St. Louis train brought 250 of the most enthusiastic young people. The Omaha and Nebraska delegation, 200 strong, steamed in with silk banners flying. The endeavor motto "For Christ and the Church" was emblazoned everywhere. Canada sent 400 in one solid train to ask the next convention for Montreal—a plum which will be battled for by New York.

Rev. Dr. F. E. Clark, of Boston, the founder of the society, is perhaps the most prominent figure here. He is very proud of the million strong society which has grown from the little beginning in the Williston street church of Portland, Me., ten years ago. "I think God's hand has been in this thing from the very start," said he today. "It has not been my work nor that of my associates. The future is full of promise. Do I look for a final breaking down of denominational lines? No, but I believe deeply in federation. The work in the foreign field is just three years old. Today there are 120 societies in Great Britain. In missionary lands are several hundred. I believe interdenominationalism is the endeavor movement's strongest feature."

Many noted faces were to be seen this morning in the rotundas of the hotels. Among those encountered were: Rev. Dr. Burrell, of New York; Dr. George H. Wells, of Montreal; Bishop Vincent, Bishop Gilbert, of Minnesota; Dr. Dale, of California; Drs. Worden and Chapman, of Philadelphia; Dr. Patterson, of Toronto, Dr. Ronthaler, of Indianapolis; Dr. Tyler, of Cincinnati: Dr. Carandall, of Cleveland; Drs. Faunce and Judson, of New York; Dr. McPherson, of Chicago; President Andrews, of Brown university; Miss Alice May Scudder, the evangelist; John G. Woolley, the temperance evangelist; Dr. Fulton, of Canton, China, and Ira B. Sankey, who has prepared a new book which he proposes to introduce into the convention in person.

The delegates when they assemble this afternoon will represent over 13,000 local societies of Christian Endeavor, covering no less than thirty-two denominations. The presbyterians lead, then come the congregationalists, next the baptists, then the methodists. Each of these denominations has over 2000 local societies, the presbyterians having 4000. For over six months the preparations for the event have been in progress, and ample arrangements had long since been made for the accommodation of the visitors. Private houses in both cities have been thrown open and all abundantly taken care of. At 4 o'clock this afternoon the thousands will assemble in the exposition building. Frank B. Daniels, chairman, will call the immense assemblage to order and deliver the address of welcome. Then there will be addresses of welcome on behalf of Minneapolis pastors by Rev. H. H. French, pastor of the Centenary methodist church; on behalf of St. Paul pastors by Rev. Robert Christie, of the House of Hope presbyterian church, and on behalf of the Y. M. C. A. by John H. Elliot, secretary at Minneapolis. The response on behalf of the trustees and delegates will be made by Dr. George H. Wells, of Montreal, Canada.

At the evening session Rev. O. H. Tiffany, of this city, will preside, and the annual report of the united society will be presented. Then the annual address of the united society will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Francis E. Clark, of Boston, and Bishop John H. Vincent will preach the convention sermon.

Duluth's Representation.

About 9 o'clock this morning a special Northwestern train left for Minneapolis bearing the delegates to the great Y. P. S. C. E. convention at that city. There were fifty-two delegates present, and most of them will remain in Minneapolis till Monday next. The following is the party:

Dr. and Mrs. Ringland and Master Ringland, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hawkes, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Cline, Mrs. J. S. Dinwoodie, Mrs. H. W. Collin, Mrs. M. A. Shenk, Misses J. H. Blois, Elizabeth Selden, Ella Greiser, Dunlap, Carrie Russell, McPhail, Ida Neilson, Florence Collin, Agnes Campbell, Torrance, Wishart, Augusta Seipel, Bertie Miller, Conrad, Adsit, Marvin, Rathbun and Cross, and Messrs. J. F. Patten, Wm. McRae, H. L. Sisler, R. H. Rathbun, D. A. Dunlap, I. A. Shaw, W. C. Wishart, D. A. Pierson, G. L. Gorton, W. S. Hale, R. R. Gilkey, Leon Shaw, H. G. West and T. R. Johnson, all of Duluth; Rev. William Moore and Messrs. R. W. Kelly, W. N. Dow, E. H. Randall and J. C. Edmundson, of West Duluth; Miss Shultz, of Two Harbors; Misses Parks and Blackmarr and the Misses Hicken, of Lester Park.

The party is under charge of City Passenger Agent Sisler, of the Northwestern road.

Will Affiliate With the C. E.

CHICAGO, July 9.—The convention of baptist young people came to a close last night. Interviews with the delegates indicated that the impression that the new organization is intended as a competitor of the Christian Endeavor was erroneous, but, on the contrary, it is intended to work in harmony and to induce close relations with all similar societies in existence.

PARNELL'S DEATHBLOW.

The Carlow Election Casts His Faction Down.

DUBLIN, July 9.—The Parnellite press is very much dejected over the result of the parliamentary election in Carlow. The Freemans Journal declares there is no more chance for Ireland obtaining home rule than there is of getting her the moon. The paper adds: "The electors have abandoned their independence for the British party yoke." The Dublin Express (conservative) says that "The English will learn from Carlow that the Irish tenant farmer, when not actuated by insane land-huoger, is a puppet in the hands of Roman catholic priests and unfit to be an elector." The National Press (McCarthyite) says: "The Carlow men dealt the death blow to the faction of Parnell, from which there is no longer any peril. It is merely a temporary nuisance."

THE COMING CROP

The Greatest Ever Known in the Northwest; That Supposed Alliance Corner.

ST. PAUL, July 9.—General Passenger Agent Whitney, of the Great Northern road, has just received an extended report from all of the company's agents in the Red River valley and the 1 hard wheat-raising district.

The reports are general that the yield will be far ahead of any previous years. A shortage of harvest hands is reported throughout the entire locality.

Up Grand Forks Way.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., July 9.—Wheat is heading out nicely and an average crop of twenty bushels is expected. Barley will be ready to cut in a week and wheat harvest, with favorable weather, will commence Aug. 1.

The Alliance Has No Corner.

TOPEKA, Kas., July 9.—The alliance men here and elsewhere profess to know nothing about the scheme to corner the wheat market. Many temporary schemes have been discussed by which the farmers would get the benefit of any advance in wheat until the sub-treasury plan could be tested. At the office of the Alliance Advocate it was stated no circular had been received there outlining a corner, and Senator Peffer declares he knows of no such alliance plan.

SMILER'S HARD LUCK.

The Doctors Dissect and a Reporter Writes Him Up.

NEW YORK, July 9.—The following are the findings of the autopsy upon Smiler's body: "Rigor mortis well marked. Body well nourished. At a point on a level with the internal canthus of each eye there is an area of seared tissue about an inch wide, extending on the right side upward about three inches; also the left side about the same distance, above and below and also upon the bridge of the nose. The epidermis is peeled off from both cheeks, a slight distance below the lower eyelids, and that region was somewhat ecchyonoiic. The neck, at a point directly over the thytroid cartilage and extending in a cresenitic form about one and one-half inches each way is an area of seared tissue.

The surface vessels of the head everywhere distended with blood. Slight amount adhesion between the colvarium and the bone and pariatial sutuer. Spinal cord was cut as far down into the vertebral canal as possible with a long thin knife, removing about three inches of spinal cord. The gross appearance of cord was normal, the central canal being filled with fluid, and cord in all other conditions apparently normal. All nerves at base of brain apparently unaffected.

The Evening World had several reporters follow the body of Smiler to this city, and one of them saw the body. On the dead man's forehead were two red spots. They seemed to be sunken in and burned. The rest of the forehead was discolored. The eyebrows were mostly burned away. The lids were burned and the lashes singed. Across the bridge of the nose was a burn. On each side of the face the skin was shrivelled up. The face looked like red beef that had been placed on a white-hot iron. The lips were compressed and the corners showed that they also had been burned.

The body of Smiler was laid to rest in Woodlawn cemetery this morning. Mrs. Lizzie Smiler, who is an inmate of Margaret Strache home, was the only mourner.

The Free Press Wins.

WINNIPEG, Man., July 9.—The libel suit, Martin vs. Free Press, was decided last night in favor of the newspaper. The jury being unanimous. The plaintiff is the ex-attorney general of the province who was accused by the paper of having made a corrupt contract with the Northern Pacific railway while a member of the government by which he was to line his own pockets.

A Competitor For Minneapolis.

NEW YORK, July 9.—A movement is on foot in this city to secure the holding of the next republican national convention at Manhattan Beach. It is urged that the seaside would be a great attraction to delegates and that with the seaside pleasures they would have a jollier time than could be possible in an interior city.

Phoebe is Couzined.

CHICAGO, July 9.—The suit of Phoebe Couzins against the World's fair commission and the board of lady managers was decided by Judge Blodgett today. The decision was against Miss Couzins in every point. Her position as secretary was not a public office, but merely a clerkship.

The Young Kaiser Abroad.

LONDON, July 8.—An officer of the steamship Fuerst Bismarck, in which the kaiser and kaiserine voyaged to Heligoland states that the latter asking the former whether they would go to America in that vessel, the kaiser replied: "Do you really think we should go?"

AS TO THE FAIR.

General Handy Gives a Succinct Account of Work up to Date.

It Will be the Greatest Exposition of History in all its Features.

How the Foreigner is Preparing to Help 1893 in the United States.

NEW YORK, July 9.—The national commission of the Columbian exhibition sailed on the Columbia early today for Europe. The commission will confer with those appointed by the governments of Europe and will visit the leading cities of the Old World, London, Paris, Berlin, Brussels, Vienna, St. Petersburg, Moscow, Stockholm, Copenhagen, Constantinople, Venice and other centers. It consists of Messrs. Handy, Tindsley, of Kentucky; Bullock, of Massachusetts; Butterworth, of Ohio, and Peck, of Chicago. They have been made special agents of the United States treasury.

They have full power to arrange regarding customs duties, patent protections, transportation, space and other details. In an interview roday Maj. Handy said: "We are astonished at the interest taken by foreign nations in the exposition. Russia intends to make the greatest exposition she has ever sent to a foreign country. China will do the same. Japan has just appropriated $500,000 to the enterprise. The Japanese government proposed an appropriation of $300,000, thinking that it would be fought by the opposition. Strange to say the leader of the opposition added $200,000.

"The Central and South American republics have shown great enthusiasm in the matter. Persia and Turkey have sent their acceptances during the last few days. Our mail is enormous and letters reach me from all points of the globe. An Englishman told me he was in Sydney, Australia, not long ago and had dealings with a parsee merchant. 'I'll see you in '93,' remarked the merchant as they were about to part, 'Where?,' returned the astonished Britain, 'At Chicago of course, I and my six sons will be there.' So it goes all over the world. A discussion is now going on in France regarding the advisability of sending the entire Paris salon of 1892 to Chicago and the proposition has strong backing.

"The enthusiasm regarding the exposition in this country is growing. Already twenty odd states have appropriated $2,000,000. Hardly half a million was appropriated by all the states for the Philadelphia exposition, California alone has voted more than was appropriated by all for the centennial. New York is yet to be heard from, but her contribution will be large. More than $4,000,000 will be voted by all the states. Instead of a $10,000,000 fair we will have a $17,000,000 one. The contracts are all out and in a few weeks 15,000 men will be at work. I carry with me a birdseye view of the grounds and buildings, a result of competition among artists of designs and descriptions furnished them. The successful competitor is Charles Graham, of Harpers weekly.

"You may say for my colleagues that we are elated with the outlook. The fair of 1893 will be a proud one for the United States."

An Immoral Official Removed.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, July 9.—Special Treasury Agent Moore returned yesterday from El Paso, where he has been investigating the accounts and character of Frank B. Clark, collector of customs for that point. Col. Moore has recommended Clark's removal on the ground of immoral conduct and neglect of business. His reccounts are all right.

A Good Fond du Lacer.

On the night of the Fourth, while indulging in a dance, two Indians named Antonia Caudron and Frank Houle, got into an altercation at the Fond du Lac reserve. Caudron received a bad wound in the head and felled Houle to the ground, smashing his skull. In the excitement the other Indians placed a rope around Caudron's neck, and but for the interference of whites would have hanged him. It is reported that Houle died last night from his injuries.

Died for Her Niece.

Mrs. Hislop, wife of the St. Paul & Duluth agent at Fond du Lac, was drowned yesterday while trying to save her little niece. The bend of the St. Louis river is in the rear of the station. The little child fell into the river while playing, and Mrs. Hislop, in trying to save her, was drowned. The current is strong at that point.

A School Afire.

There was a fire in the Franklin school, Seventh street and Sixth avenue east at daybreak this morning that would have been serious had it burned a few moments longer. It caught in one of the rooms and would soon have been in the ceilings. As it was the loss is $1400, fully insured. How it caught no one can tell.

The eastern part of the building was occupied by Henry Geirschoffer & Co. and their loss is $300,000. The Pope company, next door, lost nearly $200,000 more.

THE RAILWAY WINS.

The Kansas City Road Beats the Government in its Ticket Cases.

ST. PAUL, July 9.—In the case of the United States vs. the Chicago, St. Paul & Kansas City railway, for violation of the interstate commerce law in selling a block of 5000 St. Paul-Chicago tickets to Charles H. Petsch at a rate of $7 each, Judge Thayer this morning instructed the jury to find a verdict for defendants, The judge's decision is as follows:

The evidence in this case shows that at the time of the alleged unlawful sale of 5000 tickets the Kansas City railway had on sale two kinds of first-class tickets from St. Paul to Chicago, one "unlimited" at $11.50 and one "limited" for $7. Tickets of these kinds were accessible to everyone who chose to buy them. The government contends that the 5000 tickets sold by the defendants at $7 each were in reality "unlimited" tickets, and hence that the sixth section of the act was violated. The court is satisfied, however, from the uncontradicted evidence in the case, that there was a difference between the tickets sold by the defendants and what were known and sold as "unlimited first class tickets." The latter class, under the company's regulations, were entitled to "stop-over privileges," while the company, under the undisputed evidence in the case, had the right to insist that the holder of such tickets as were sold by defendants, should make a continuous passage.

The company had a right to insist on a continuous journey when it was once begun by the holder of a limited ticket, even though the ticket as sold was not punched in the margin, so as to limit the period of use."

The Sangerbund.

MILWAUKEE, July 9.—The first of a series of concerts of the Northwestern Sangerbund, in which others than the local organizations appeared before the public, was given this afternoon. Mrs. Marie Ritter-Goetze made her debut and earned her first laurels in the West. The drawing card was the singing by 2000 pupils of the public schools. The orchestral features were the overture to Figaros Wedding by Mozart, Torceadore et Andalouse by Rubenstein and Menuette by Bizette. The mass chorus will be heard tonight for the first time.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—The representatives of the Chilian congressional party in Washington last night received a cablegram from Iquique saying that the army of Balmaceda, which was advancing to the valley of Huasco, was met by the constitutional army south of Vallenar, where an engagement took place yesterday. The constitutional army, the dispatch says, obtained a brilliant triumph.

A Middleweight Beats.

LONDON, July 9.—In a fight today between Ted Pritchard and Jem Smith for £2000 and the championship of England, London prize ring rules, catch weights, Pritchard won in four rounds. The result was something of a surprise, as the men were unevenly matched. Pritchard belongs to the middleweight, and Smith's fighting weight is about 185 pounds.

LONDON, July 9.—Mr. Spurgeon is no worse this morning and maintains his strength.

The West Duluth Extension.

Mayor Davis and the members of the Duluth board of works and Mayor Martin, Engineer Kuhn and Alderman Hall, of West Duluth, held a conference yesterday with reference to the building of the West Duluth extension. It was agreed that everything should be done by both cities in the way of pushing the street grading that could be done. It is feared by some that the change in the owners of the street railway will have the same effect with regard to the West Duluth extension as on the Lakeside extension, for some of the new men have large holdings near the water front in Oneota and may pull that way. Any attempt to move the course to the south will be strongly resisted.

THE TABLE TURNED

Regulators Who Regulated in the Most Appropriate and Decided Manner.

Three are Shot by the Wife of the Man They Would Punish.

The Rest Get Away Before She Has Time to Use Her Battery.

NEWTON, Mo., July 9.—A report has just come from across the Arkansas line of a case wherein a band of regulators got decidedly the worst of an attempt to reform one of their neighbors. Charles Lawson has been living about eight miles from Newton for the past two years. He was unfortunate enough to incur the ill-will of James Daggett, a member of a band of black caps, by selecting a piece of timber land that had been occupied by the said member as a squatter. On the night of the 30th as Lawson was entering his yard, having been to town, he was suddenly confronted by about ten men wearing black gowns and their heads covered with black caps.

He was grasped and tied and the band started off to the timber with him. Mrs. Lawson grasped her husband's rifle and followed in the dusk, until the band stopped and proceeded to strip the victim, preparatory to administering a whipping. Just as the lash was raised to give the first blow a shot rang out and the whipper dropped. In quick succession came two more shots and two more fell. The remainder of the black caps fled, panic stricken.

While Mrs. Lawson was cutting her husbands bonds the last two who fell crawled away in the darkness and escaped. But the whipper lay with a broken thigh. When his black raiment was stripped from him, it was found that he was Daggett. Five of the band are now in jail to await trial.

THE LAND OFFICE.

Nichols Says he Hasn't Withdrawn; the Leading Candidates.

Late yesterday afternoon The Herald received a telegram stating that it was understood in Washington that Munroe Nichols had withdrawn from the local land office fight. This was received too late to allow an interview with Nichols, as was desired. In a morning paper he states: "This is the first time I have heard of my intended withdrawal. The matter is now left in the hands of President Harrison, and nobody but himself knows who is going to be appointed."

As a matter of fact The Herald learns that Mr. Nichols has been requested to withdraw, but has refused to do so, believing that Messrs. Davis and Merriam would be able to pull him through. It also learns that his commission as register was signed by the secretary a day or two ago, but was later withdrawn, and it is generally conceded that it would be a matter of policy if he should withdraw also.

As far as is now known the contest for the place lies between Messrs. Selden and Hays. The former is in Milwaukee and the latter is watching his fences here. Had Mr. Nichols been willing to step out of the fight Senator Davis would have named the man for the place, but, Nichols staying, Davis must stay by him.

Another Redstone Company.

Articles of incorporation were filed this morning with the register of deeds by the Portage Red Sandstone company. Its capital stock is placed at $100,000. The incorporators and directors are Joseph D. Lloyd, F. B. Chew, Chas. W. McFadden, Joseph H. Hillyer and Caleb T. Le Tourneau, all of this city. Joseph D. Lloyd is president, F. B. Chew, vice president; Caleb T. Le Tourneau, general manager; Joseph H. Hillyer, secretary, and Charles W. McFadden, treasurer.

On the Death of Miss Keene.

At a business meeting of the Oneota Epworth league the following resolutions on the death of Miss Abbie Keene were presented and adopted:

Resolved, That we, the members of the Oneota Epworth league, in view of the sad decease of our friend and sister, Miss Abbie Keene, hereby tender our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family in this their great sorrow, and trust that this slight token may express in part the esteem in which our friend was ever held by her many associates. Be it further

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread on the minutes of this league; a copy be sent to the family and a copy be published in the Duluth Evening Herald.

In Municipal Court.

Charles Poline, Charles Anderson and Joe Mack were sent up for drunks.

David Buchanan, charged with being drunk and disorderly, had his case adjourned. J. C. Smith was sent up.

John Mooney, Robert Martin, Frank Bellinger, Charles Richman and James Watson, charged with vagrancy, asked for an adjournment.

Fred Orben, arrested for assault, had his case adjourned.

William H. Myers, arrested for larceny, was discharged on the ground that the complaint did not state a public offense.

Back From the Coast.

Fred Renard, formerly in the real estate business here, has returned from the northwest Pacific coast where he has spent several months. He speaks highly of the climate and scenery there but says business is very slow, and as regards real estate in the leading cities on the "sound," it is all told in one word—overdone. Mr. Renard leaves for Chicago tomorrow to arrange for the preliminaries of a concert tour throughout the Northwest. The star will be Mlle. Augusta Ohrstrom, a young Swedish prima donna, who has sung with great success in all the leading European centers. She will probably appear here in November.

Pathfinders at Temple Opera.

THE AREA OF MODERN PARIS.

We call the attention of Mr. C. E. Lovett, and others, to the extract in another column from the pen of Dr. Albert Shaw, editor of the American edition of the Review of Reviews. The article from which it is taken appears in the Century magazine for July, and is the authority on which we based our editorial statement of a few days since, to which exceptions were taken by Mr. Lovett in a communication to the News last Sunday morning. Dr. Shaw states that "the existing Paris covers 19,275 acres, or about thirty square miles, while metropolitan London with 4,000,000 population contains 118 square miles." By reducing the acres we find that the area of Paris is 30⅛ square miles. We gave it as thirty, which we deemed close enough for a general argument.

The Herald writer is not infallible, and sometimes makes statements on the authority of others that are quite inaccurate. But in serious matters we nearly always know our grounds. However that may be, no one is more ready to acknowledge a mistake when made and do full justice to all concerned. Had Mr. Lovett come to our office he could have obtained the authority for our statement and saved himself any humiliation. He had no mercy for our sensitive feelings, but ruthlessly called us down on the charge of ignorance and misinformation. Our reply was gentle, as soft answers save many a friendship; but we felt deeply the unkindness of a Duluthian who should thus throw his influence against us and heap ridicule upon our efforts in what to us was an earnest, honest, and honorable battle for Duluth. Our feelings were the more decply touched because on Friday Mr. Lovett had spent considerable time in our office in very intimate conversation, beseeching us to stop the fight against Superior. He had just come over the bay, and said the moundbuilders all felt badly whipped. We told him we had some needed advice already in type for that day, but as we should print no paper on Saturday and Sunday, the feeling would probably cool down, and if no one "sassed" us we could assure him the direct fight should end there, reserving always the right to sample new statements from the other side. We spoke earnestly of the need of concentrating all efforts to the building up of one great city, pointing out that his Ironton property would be more valuable by such a course. We went so far as to tell him we had in type the article on "Busted Booms" in the South, to which his letter in the News referred, and outlined our policy of showing up the over-boomed condition of things in the Southern and Pacific states, and indeed all over the country, with the ultimate object of pressing all confidence back upon Duluth as the one town that stands unscathed and triumphant amid the ruins about her, thus concentrating every dollar here to the development of our own peerless city.

It was these accompanying circumstances that made the attack more inexcusable. And as both Sunday morning papers contained editorial articles demanding that the fight be discontinued, it looked like too much harmony for an accident, and we felt that some Italian hand was behind it all. But of this we have no knowledge, nor does it matter now. Mr. Lovett's misleading letter has been copied in the Superior papers to boost their water-logged town, and he is numbered among the jewels of the morass. All this we deeply regret. Nor would we refer to the matter if it concerned only the writer in his personal capacity, but a paper has a reputation of its own to defend, The Herald has used no subterfuge, and our resentment is wholly on its behalf. Kindly but firmly we still insist that the area of Paris is thirty square miles.

EQUAL AND EXACT JUSTICE.

The Herald has heretofore had nothing to say of the Duluth & Winnipeg right-of-way matter, further than to urge our people as a whole to take stock in the enterprise and thus afford the sinews of war for the early settlement of claims and the immediate construction of the road. We realize the vast importance to Duluth of having the road enter our city at once, that the managers may transfer their energies to the other end and push their line into the wheat fields this fall.

But as to the differences between our suburban property owners and the railroad company, The Herald would urge equal and exact justice to both and all. We expect no property owner to suffer a dollar of net loss for the benefit of the road, nor do we wish to see the road bled a single dollar to feather the nest of any man. Wherever business principles are departed from and the fields of generosity traversed on either side, there the whole community should step in and bear the burden of the company or the individual. Were the property along the proposed course owned in large holdings the right-of-way could profitably be deeded gratis to the road, but unfortunately for the city and the company, recent movements in realty have placed it in many hands at what a few years ago would have seemed fabulous prices.

It is one of the hugest blunders that all necessary rights-of-way were not secured by the city years ago that a free entrance might be offered to every comer. As this was not done, we can now do only what is fair and just between man and man. If unkindly feelings have been aroused by supposed obstinacy on either side, they should be allayed in the interests of our whole people. The present is a time and an occasion for the fullest play of manliness and judicial action. We trust the property holders will not underestimate the general good in which they are to be no small participators, nor the road discredit any real damage it may occasion. Reasonable differences may be reached by argument; prejudice can only be dissolved. Let us be reasonable, and settle at once this important matter. The city has too much at stake to permit the delay of litigation. Get together, and may the Lord be with you,

THE DEATH RATTLE.

The Superior Tribune with its little 500 readers in Duluth says this morning:

The agent of the sugar trust in Duluth has received a notice from Superior that no more sugar is wanted of him. Other Duluth merchants and tradesmen have also received similar notices from the boycott committee of Superior. Running a Duluth "Sunday Sun" may be fun for Mr. Bede. It is not fun, however, for the Duluth merchants and tradesmen.

This is really too bad. But as the Superior boycott committee has as yet no authority to speak, the chamber at its recent meeting having deferred action till next Monday night, the item quoted is faked like most other things by the Tribune's editorial babes in literature, purely for effect. The Tribune is a Superior paper of the boiler-plate fakir kind, half of whose editorials are stolen bodily from the Eastern press, and the balance are a composite formation of praise for its own town and slurs on Duluth. We are surprised that such a thing cares to live when it would gladly be given a christian burial. But it is dying. We call on Bishop Bowen to administer extreme unction.

The Daily Union, which since the 17th of February last has represented organized labor in Duluth, having fulfilled its mission, did not appear yesterday. It effectually plugged up the rat hole into which the Tribune had voluntarily placed itself, and not believing in punishment after death, gracefully withdrew from the field with its seried labor forces in good order. Superior papers printed here must conform to our local regulations, and the Tribune ought to have known it would run against a rock in Duluth.

A Superior gentleman, referring to The Herald's statement that 5000 people would leave that town within a year, said to us Tuesday that it was not only true, but that it would be a blessing to the town to have them go. "We have 5000 more people than we can use or comfortably house over there, and the sooner they go the better it will be for the rest." These idlers are now loafing about saloons or wading the morass in search of bird eggs for the dinner pot. Such things are not good for a town. We are Superior's best friend.

THE Herald tomorrow will contain an editorial on "One Ground of Faith," pointing out why we have confidence in Duluth, and why the one great city must be on this side of the bay. It will be one installment of our side of the case. Along with numerous communications it is crowded out today. We all have to take our turns.

"THE average distance from the center of Paris to the circumference is only three miles," says Dr. Albert Shaw, a careful writer and good authority. It is four miles from the center to the circumference of Superior. Paris has 2,500,000 population. Superior had 11,000 by the United States census. Please don't dispute this.

BY a careful revision of the figures we find that Paris has 83,000 people to the square mile. Wichita has over 500, and Superior 275. Paris never had a boom to drive prices up and folks away.

SILENCE is consent. The Superior chamber of commerce at its recent meeting, thirty members being present, admitted that the entire grain trade at the head of the lakes belongs to Duluth.

THERE may be eagles' nests in the proud peaks of our cliffs, but no mud hens roost on this side of the bay.

DON'T get worried about boycotts. Contain yourselves. West Superior began that about three years ago.

That Bottomless Boomsite.

Duluth News: The council of the city of Superior, having heard that Duluth has a steam roller, decided to have one too, but they now regret the expenditure of money for a thing which cannot be used on their streets. An attempt was made to utilize it, but it sank so deep in the bogs that even its fire boxes disappeared. After a few ineffectual attempts, they concluded that they "could get along with a horse roller" and sold the steam machine to the city of Lakeside.

A Baseball Idea.

To the Editor of The Herald.

Why is it that when we have as well regulated a city as we have at present that certain people cannot be satisfied to let well enough alone and not rack their brains to devise some way to bring themselves before the public. I wish to speak particularly regarding the movement being made to stop the ball games on Sunday. I wish to say in this connection I am not interested in any ball club, never have been, neither do I expect to be any further than paying my fifty cents admission when my time will permit me to attend. But it is strongly impressed on my mind that our Rev. Sirs of this city, can if they choose look around them and find far more crying evils than such a ball game as was had last Sunday at Recreation park. I think almost every person of the many thousand there will agree with me that it was a most orderly assembly, no boisterous noise, no drunkenness, no baudyism. The people came quietly and at the close of the game quietly returned to their homes in an orderly manner. Can this be said of every place young men and old men might have been at that time and no doubt some would have been had it not been for the ball game. No not by any means. We have in this city, as well as in every other locality, people that have been reared and educated that Sunday was in part a day of recreation and it will take more than the breaking up of Sunday ball playing to change their minds. I think our mayor has taken the right ground in this matter and so long as he shall give us good order and the present reasonable government that he should receive the support of all citizens, as I believe he will receive that support from all reasonable thinking people. While holding all due respect for the ministers of the gospel and their calling, there is no man but sometimes oversteps his calling or business and I see no good reason why they should not err sometimes, and one of the errors at present most apparent to me is the recent action in relation to ball playing and music. No good citizen wants Duluth to be what is called wide open and no one who has been in some of the larger cities of late, will venture to make such a charge in comparison with cities of her size. Let us have done with such small quibbling and look at matters in an every day reasonable way, thoughtful, not alone for ourselves, but for the good, the pleasure and happiness of all, so long as we can do so quietly and with orderly behavior. Our religious friends have their churches to build and uphold. Who are building them, I ask, if not the people, and Duluth people, too? and I venture to say that many a man who attended the ball game last Sunday put his hand down in his pocket to help build them, and some of them went down for a good round sum, too, and every man of them are proud of Duluth churches. Then why not be fair and divide the good of this world. I doubt if any of our ministers would think of arresting or stopping any one for taking a team and driving around our grand terrace on a Sunday afternoon, and if he should stop and show a friend with him a snap in real estate, it would hardly call for an injunction from the court. Still it would be a recreation and a business transaction that under the bluelawism they are seeking to enforce, would be almost, if not quite as bad, as listening to a good musical entertainment.

Yours for fairness, M. T. S.

The Superior Side of the Story.

To the Editor of The Herald.

A feeling akin to pity stirs the breast of the Superiorite. Words cannot depict the humiliating condition of the effeminate Telegram. The citizens of this city, whilst they deprecate the war of words between The Herald and the Telegram, knowing no good can result, are free to confess that in this one struggle, particularly, Superior "is not in it." The lofty manager, he, who like the fallen chancellor of British romance, since his elevation from the obscurity of a penny-liner on a Duluth paper, and the acquisition, through "luck," of a little wealth, endeavors to emulate his British brother, and at once blossoms into a snob of purest type, a living prototype of the strutting turkey gobbler, as he "swells" or "bowles" along Tower avenue, exciting the commisseration of sensible friends. Little Lord Fauntleroy, the managing editor, is another striking illustration of the "swelled head," or an inflation of a vacuum. If perchance by nature he was endowed with a brain capacity of a limited quantity, cigarettes have got in their work, and soon there will be a little mound in the graveyard, bearing this inscription: "A Warning. The result of the deadly cigarette—here lies all that was mortal of the Liliputian editor of the subsidized Telegram." So one might go on and picture the entire editorial corps, but it is too humiliating a confession, and I draw the veil of sympathy over the scene.

Wanted—Bids for a quantity of brain food to be furnished the Telegram.

Lost—The "pimple" on the Telegram. Last seen of him was under a coat with a large cape. SUPERIORITE.

Superior, Wis., July 6.

The Area of Paris.

Dr. Albert Shaw in the Century magazine for July: The existing Paris covers 19,275 acres, or about thirty square miles, while metropolitan London, with 4,000,000 population, contains 118 square miles, and Chicago, as recently enlarged, provides an area about as extensive for 1,100,000. The average distance from the center of Paris to the circumference is only three miles. Minneapolis, with only 167,000 people, has a municipal area more than twice as large as that of Paris. Almost the entire population of Paris is housed in the flats of tenement structures, averaging from four to five stories in height. According to the revised figures of the census of 1886 there were nearly 75,000 houses in Paris, and the average number of people in a house was about thirty. In the old arrondissements of the inner Paris there are probably 30,000 houses, accommodating about 1,000,000 people. For a total contrast in the plan of house construction we have only to cross the channel and examine London, where we find an average of about eight persons to a house for the whole metropolis. But the people of Paris, are better housed, all things considered, than those of London. A population of 2,500,000 within a circle whose radius is only three miles is certainly very dense, but it must be remembered that Paris is a many-storied city.

THE TIME To Invest in Real Estate is when there is no rush. When the demand is normal, and strong enough to indicate good advances.

THE PLACE To invest in Real Estate is Where Improvements Are Being Made that will insure healthy growth. Where the improvements are of such character, that a backward step is impossible. Where the foundation has already been laid, and on a foundation solid enough to guarantee a substantial superstructure.

THE OPPORTUNITY For investing in Real Estate is ripe when the conditions of time and place are most favorable.

New Duluth

Offers you these conditions today. No suburb of Duluth has made such rapid strides or such substantial improvements as NEW DULUTH. Eight large manufacturing industries are now located which alone, when in full running order, will insure a population of 5000 people. Some of these are already in operation. The Atlas Iron and Brass Works, an illustration of which appears with this, has an order amounting to $45,000 for building paper machinery from one firm, the Marinette Paper Co., of Marinette, Wis. All the other plants are being pushed to completion as rapidly as men and money can. All of them have enough orders ahead, and are of such recognized standing that they will be run at their full capacity.

There are many other points too numerous to mention here that will convince any one that New Duluth offers the most substantial inducements for investors at the head of the lake today.

TO BOND FOR A RAILWAY

The Duluth, Mesaba & Northern Railway Wants a Somewhat Modest Bonus From the County,

And Gives a Strong Verbal Assurance That it Will Build Immediately Upon Securing It.

A Delay Made for the Duluth & Winnipeg and the Chamber's Proposed Plan.

K. D. Chase, president of the Duluth, Mesaba & Northern, was seen in regard to the scheme of bonding the county just sprung to the public notice.

"You see," said he, "several of the prominent business men of the town came to the conclusion that it was a proper thing to do and as the comprehension of the bond scheme of the chamber of commerce had been discussed for two months and now seemed impracticable, because illegal, it was determined to ask the county auditor to advertise a special election for July 28 to vote on the proposition to bond the county in $150,000. The auditor was notified on Tuesday and that afternoon the secretary of the chamber of commerce asked us to withdraw our request for an election until a discussion could be had. That night the chamber of commerce met us and it was agreed to ask for a special election and so yesterday the auditor was again notified and the election set for the 28th inst.

"Are'nt you afraid that the opposition in Tower will be great enough to defeat you?"

"No. I think the laboringmen are friendly to us both at Tower and here. Mind you, we are not asking the county to give us anything, but to furnish $150,000 for so much stock. Of course, the stock will not be worth much until we begin showing what a good profit there is in our business."

"Suppose the election goes against you, what then?"

"It will make no ultimate difference, as far as building the road is concerned. It may delay us a long time, but the road is to be built anyway. If we receive aid from the county, we could get terminal facilities in Duluth. We have arrangements for getting the money immediately to build from the Minnesota Range Iron company's mine in 58-18, on the Mesaba range, the cost of which will be about $1,500,000, if the bonds are voted. Early in August we intend to begin construction and are certain that by Jan. 1 we shall have gravel trains running from 58-18 to Duluth, a distance of seventy-one miles. During the winter we would do a small traffic in carrying logs to West Duluth mills and in the spring ballast the road in preparation for summer ore business. In the winter we would build our dock, probably in Marine division, the cost of which we figure at $170,000.

"Last winter when our line was located a swamp was crossed about thirty miles out of here. Last week explorers found that it would be better to run the line two miles farther west and so next week we will send out surveyors to relocate it for a few miles. We have a great advantage over the Iron Range road in the matter of grades. They can haul only nineteen or twenty loaded cars in a train, whereas it is estimated that our grades will allow forty-five loaded cars to a train. We are in hopes of using the Duluth Transfer Railway company's facilities, but fear that they will be somewhat late in accommodating us."

Capt. Thomas Wilson, who owns one of the largest fleets on the lakes, will be here next week. It is hoped that an ore traffic arrangement will be made with him.

The "comprehensive scheme" of the chamber of commerce. referred to by Mr. Chase, involved the voting by the county of $500,000 in bonds to be distributed among several roads, of which the Mesaba, the Duluth & Winnipeg and others should have the advantage. It was found a day or two ago that the law would not allow any such vote and it was abandoned, this plan of the Mesaba & Northern taking its place. No definite arrangements can be made with the Duluth & Winnipeg as its officials cannot be pinned down to a statement and the citizens' committee that has been at work with it has grown weary. It is now generally conceded that the Duluth & Winnipeg will build a line into both Superior and Duluth.

The Mesaba & Northern expects to use the Duluth & Winnipeg tracks from Cloquet down, and will run its passenger trains into the Union depot. A vote on bonds this year will block action on any similar proposition until after Jan. 1 next.

EXHIBITING FURNITURE.

Duluth Furniture Company Enters an Exposition; Industrial Notes.

The Duluth Furniture company has recently sent between two and three cars of furniture to Grand Rapids, Mich., to be placed on view at the grand furniture exhibition which opens there next week. This exhibition is one of the great events in Grand Rapids and thousands of buyers from all over the country attend it in order to learn the styles and compare prices.

The Duluth company has on exhibition a piece of every kind of furniture it manufactures. The company is getting into good working shape, having sixty men employed, although this is the dull season of the year. The furniture is excellent in make and design and is having a ready sale. Large quantities are being sold right here in Duluth. Most of the product is shipped to the East because the competition of lake against rail is sufficient to give low prices. Thus far it has been difficult to do anything in the West because the roads will not make a fair rate for Duluth.

The company has been pleasantly surprised to find that it can get the hardwoods several dollars a thousand cheaper than can the great factories at Grand Rapids and the freight on the same is reasonable.

Notes of Improvement.

Pile driving is about finished for the new enlarged cooper shop of the Imperial mill. Several car loads of machinery have already been received for the enlargement of the mill's capacity, and some twenty millwrights are at work on the building.

It is probable that the double circular saw mill of Peck & Son will be moved from Rices point to West Duluth. Its present location will probably be occupied by other concerns.

The structure of the incline road is raised from the end of the stone work to First street. It is a simple looking affair but of tremendous strength.

A steam drill is at work at Piedmont avenue east and Superior street starting the grade. By a slight change in line the grade of the avenue is cut from 13 feet in 100 to 11. In all its length there is no other grade so steep except at Sixth street, where it rises to 13 feet.

On the Garfield avenue work pavers have begun operations at the lower end.

Stone work on the new High school is about two-thirds done. At the Emerson school the brick walls are up nearly a story above the basement. Last night a heating and ventilating contract was let for this school to C. S. Wentworth, of Minneapolis, who was $3000 higher than the lowest bidder, the latter specifying the Sturtevant system. The Wentworth bid was the same as that of a local firm.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

A Duluth Firm Turned by the School Board; West Superior Rewarded.

To the Editor of The Herald:

The morning papers note the action of the school board in reference to the heating and ventilation of the Emerson school, stating that the contract was awarded to C. S. Wenthworth, of Minneapolis, because our concern did not have as much experience as the other. We would like to say in the first place that C. S. Wentworth & Co. are doing business in West Superior, where they occupy a 3-story building on Iowa avenue owned by the Land & River Improvement company. The work in the Emerson school will be done by West Superior fitters who have homes on that side of the bay and no interest whatever on this side. We also want to say in regard to experience that we have done and are now working on contracts that will figure up ten dollars to every one Mr. Wentworth can show, and ours are all working satisfactory. The action of the school board in this matter is a surprise to many residents, and they would like to know some better reason than the one published in the morning papers.

P. V. Dwyer & Bros.

The above is a straightforward statement of the facts, so far as The Herald knows them. Both firms bid $7375, and Dwyer Bros. stand ready to give the bond required. It is said some change in the plan will be required, and Dwyer Bros. have offered to pay all expense of bringing the architect to Duluth when wanted. If it is really true that the school board has charged Dwyer Bros. with inexperience, which means incompetency, it is a rather serious—serious to many property owners if true,* and serious to Dwyer Bros. in either case. Some of the buildings on which they have done the plumbing and steam fitting are the Lyceum, Spalding house, First National bank building, Chamber of Commerce, Stenson-Pastoret block, O'Brien & Knowlton block, Oppel block, Berkelman block, police station, engine house No. 2, Graff block, and many other business blocks as well as residences, among the latter being those of Clinton Markell, M. B. Harrison and A. J. Whiteman. Dwyer Bros. are doing the work on the Burrows block, their bid though $800 higher than the Wentworth's, having been accepted because of the excellence of their work. They also have the Hardy school contract, and in $100,000 of work in Duluth have had no trouble, while the Palladio building, which was fitted by Wentworth has, we are informed, spent $3000 for repairs. Surely the board will not in the face of such facts as these insist on going out of town to award the job to an equal bidder. The matter should be given more deliberate consideration.

Ad Irondack on Swamp Fry.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Thanks for Superior papers and Heralds sent me. They would be amusing, those Superior bogtrotters, if they were not so touchy. Suppose you were as mean as they about calling names and spoke of them as snipes, mud turtles, poopendoodles, crabs, swamp angels, pelicans, plovers, peewees, storks and loons and other occupants of moors and marshes, that would be no worse than the names they give Duluthians. Allow me to correct a few errors in their criticisms of my communication. I merely compared one side of the bay with the other and said nothing derogatory of West Superior except that it was overdone and pointed out the undeniable fact that prices of real estate are much higher in Superior than in Duluth, with the single exception of a few blocks on Superior street, while their city has less than one-third the population and business of Duluth. I notice that no exception was taken to this statement, but on the contrary they are rather proud of their high prices. I would like to know what peculiar advantage there is in building on an immense flat and leaky townsite if the principal result is high-priced lots and blocks and consequently higher rents? Since they have so much room to spread why is inside ground so expensive? West Superior will be a good-sized, prosperous city some day in spite of its flat townsite, not because of it; in spite of its windy boomers, not on their account. But I have seen no arguments to convince me that a monotonous extensive old lake bed possesses great advantage over a townsite that has variety of surface, fine building spots, excellent railroad facilities and the best harbor on the lakes.

As to those 150 atlases, my reference to them was merely to show how enterprising, wide awake and intelligent your business men are, and what a large proportion of the Superior real estate deals are made at Duluth with Duluth capital. It can't be anything but jealous spite that keeps Superior people from investing in Duluth, since they have made large investments in Galveston, in Winnipeg and in cities on Puget Sound, but none in Duluth, which is certainly the best of all. AD IRONDACK.

THE MARKETS.

New York Money and Stock News; The Local Trading; Notes.

NEW YORK, July 9.—Money loaned 2 per cent. Exchange steady. Posted rates 485½@487½; actual rates, 484¾@485 for 60 days and 486½@486¾ for demand.

The stock market was a little more active today, but prices were weak and declined during the greater part. The opening figures were generally lower with the greatest decline in Jersey Central and Union Pacific. During the morning there was considerable selling of Burlington, St. Paul, Louisville and Chicago gas at times. Prices went steadily lower under the selling of those stocks and at noon values were ⅛ to 1½ per cent below those of last night.

Wall street gossip is as follows: Louisville & Nashville will declare the regular 2½ per cent cash dividend today. A few selling orders in Burlington caused considerable weakness. A prominent investment house reports having placed in Great Britain a large block of American railway bonds, and, at the request of buyers, gave an option on another block.

Duluth Wheat Prices.

The market today was easy with prices somewhat lower. St. Louis received 93,000 bu wheat. Clearances from the seaboard amounted to 714,493 bu. New York reported some export business. The Ohio board of agriculture reported the condition of wheat at 97. The Price Current's report is that wheat prospects are unchanged. There is more loss to wheat in Northern France by unfavorable weather. The Pall Mall Gazette has an article showing a bad condition of Russian crops.

Cash 1 hard closed at 98c. Cash 1 northern, 95c. Cash 2 northern, 90c. July 1 hard closed at 99c. July 1 northern, 96c bid. September 1 hard closed at 89½. No. northern sold at 86⅞c and closed at 87½c. December 1 northern, 88¼c.

Grain Movement.

Cars grain inspected today, 12, of which 2 were 1 hard and 10 were 1 northern. Receipts 15,665 bu wheat, 4524 bbls flour. Shipments 135,666 bu wheat, 900 bbls flour. Cars wheat on track, 11.

Chicago Live Stock.

UNION STOCK YARDS, Ill., July 9.—Cattle: Receipts, 10,000; strong, 10@15c higher. Hogs, Receipts, 25,000; strong 5c higher. Heavy $4.60@$5.05; mixed and medium, $4.65@$5.05; light, $4.45@$5.00. Sheep receipts, 8000; steady.

Chicago Wheat.

CHICAGO, July 9. — Wheat opened lower and weak on easier cables and fine weather in the winter wheat country. The offerings were generous. Corn easier on free selling and the weakness in wheat and warmer weather. Oats quiet and easy. Provisions quiet, but steady. Hogs were 5c higher at the yards. September pork sold at $10.25@10.30; September lard, $6.30@6.32½, and September ribs at $6.20@6.22½. Receipts today were: Wheat, 108 cars; corn, 300 cars; oats, 122 cars.

The close was as follows: Wheat: July, 91; Sept., 87⅛. Corn: July, 55⅞@56; Sept., 51¾@51⅞. Oats: July, 37¼; Sept., 28½. Pork: Sept., $10.27½. Lard: Sept., $6.32½. Ribs: Sept., $6.25.

Local Bank Clearings.

Today's bank clearings were $520,824.68 and for the week were $2,317,595.55.

"Has Been Worried Eighteen Years."

It should have been "married," but the proof-reader observed that it amounted to about the same thing, and so did not draw his blue pencil through the error. Unfortunately there was considerable truth in his observation. Thousands of husbands are constantly worried almost to despair by the ill health that afflicts their wives, and often robs life of comfort and happiness. There is but one safe and sure way to change all this for the better. The ladies should use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

ARE ON THE SEA.

Three of the McDougall Ships are Beyond Cape Breton, Bound Out.

Capt. McDougall, who has just returned from the East, this morning received a telegram from Sidney, Cape Breton, stating that the steamer Colby and barge 107 had left there last night for Baltimore and that the Wetmore would leave this afternoon for Liverpool.

Several of the new boats made by Davidson, of West Bay City, are now on Lake Superior on their maiden trips, the City of Paris, City of Berlin, City of London and Adriatic. These and the Celtic and City of Glasgow have all been chartered in the Two Harbors iron trade and from now on big shipments from that port may be looked for. The "city" line, which was built for Schlesinger, who recently failed, is composed of big steamers, while the other two are barges. If vesselmen hereafter notice that the Celtic is flitting from one lake to another with wonderful swiftness they need not be superstitious as there are now two boats by that name engaged in the Lake Superior trade.

During the month of June there passed through the Sault Canal east bound 8704 tons building stone, 9444 tons of copper, 526,152 tons of iron ore, 3271 tons pig iron, 450 tons silver ore, 11,720 tons of unclassified freight, 456,915 barrels of flour, 239,302 bushels of corn, 2,421,461 bushels of wheat, 65,717,000 feet of lumber and 1731 passengers. West bound: 390,674 tons of coal, 6577 tons of manufactured iron, 39,847 tons of unclassified freight, 25 barrels of flour, 40,897 barrels of salt, 5400 bushels of grain and 2335 passengers. Total tons of freight, 1,234,211; total number of passengers, 4066.

Total freight tons for May were 994,225, and for April 16,644. Passengers for May 1542, and for April 318.

Plenty of grain is offering here at two and one-quarter cents but boats prefer to take ore from Ashland at $1.

The Mitchell, Gratwick and Castalia took 5695 tons of Minnesota from Two Harbors yesterday. The Peck and City of Paris took 3798 tons of Chandler. The Ketcham, 107, City of Berlin, Adriatic, Mariska, Hesper, Chisholm, Martin and City of London are now in port.

A Tremendous Sensation

Would have been created one hundred years ago by the sight of one of our modern express trains whizzing along at the rate of sixty miles an hour. Just think how our grandfathers would have stared at such a spectacle! It takes a good deal to astonish people now-a-days, but some of the marvellous cures of consumption, wrought by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, have created wide-spread amazement. Consumption is at last acknowledged curable. "The Golden Medical Discovery" is the only known remedy for it. If taken at the right time—which, bear in mind, is not when the lungs are nearly gone—it will go right at the seat of the disease and accomplish the work as nothing else in the world can. It is the only medicine of its class, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee that it will benefit or cure in all cases of disease for which it is recommended, or money paid for it will be promptly refunded.

Turkish bath tickets sold by Mr. Faller will not be accepted after July 15.

THE ENDEAVORERS

They Begin Their Second Day by a Meeting that Surprises Sleepy Minneapolis.

A Six O'clock Prayer Meeting Attended by Thousands Young and Old.

Its Committees Appointed and the Big Gathering Fully at Work.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 10.—The members of the Young Peoples Society of Christian Endeavor manifested their zeal and piety in a remarkable manner this morning. The doors of he exposition building were thrown open at 6 o'clock this morning, and half an hour later several thousand delegates had assembled to participate in a meeting of prayer and praise. The devotions were conducted by William Shaw, of Boston, treasurer of the united society, and occupied threequarters of an hour.

The opening hymn was, "This is My Story." Rev. Dr. S. M. Ware, of Omaha, read from Corinthians ii, 6. Rev. Dr. McMillan, of Allegheny City, Pa., offered prayer and another hymn was sung. President Clark then announced his four committees on residence, nominations, greetings and business. Their chairmen were J. H. Barrows, D. D., Chicago; B. F. Baller, Mississippi; Professor W. W. Andrews, Nova Scotia, and Secretary Baer.

At 9 o'clock the convention resolved itself into a free parliament, and a general discussion was inaugurated of the society in the Sunday schools, in the midweek prayer meetings, in the Sunday service, in works of systematic benevolence and as a circulating medium for religious reading. Then there was a prayer service led by Jesse A. Chace, president of the Minneapolis union, after which the convention took up the topic: "What the Society May Do." F. O. Holman, D. D., of St. Paul, spoke upon "The Society and its Relation to Pastors; Elbert R. Dille, of California, treated "The Society and the Church Officers," and James A. Worden, of Philadelphia, delivered an adress upon the "Influence of the Society Upon Sunday Schools."

Among the features of the afternoon session was a review of the English campaign by C. A. Dickinson, of Boston, who reported that there are now 130 societies in the mother country. Several spoke upon the influence for good that had been manifested through the prayer and consecration meetings inaugurated by the society.

The ranks of the delegates was largely reinforced today by arrivals from all parts of the country. The arrangements for entertaining, however, are still ample and visitors are loud in their praises of the hospitalities and the admirable provisions that have been made by the local committee.

START FOR DULUTH.

The Congressional Party Leaves Cleveland for this City.

CLEVELAND, July 10.—A party composed of senators and representatives who are already, or expect to become, members of the commerce committee of the senate or the river and harbor committee of the house, left here today for a tour of the lakes. The trip is being made at private expense, the gentlemen, who are in almost every case accompanied by their wives, being the guests of Senator McMillen and Representative Stephenson, of Michigan.

The party has the use of the revenue cutter Fessenden. They go from here direct to Detroit, where they will be elaborately entertained, and thence northward by regular boat to Mackinaw, Duluth and the various smaller places on the south shore of Lake Superior. Cleveland will be reached on the return trip about the 23rd.

A Rapist Shot.

LITCHFIELD, Minn., July 10.—In the northeastern part of this county a few days ago a tramp raped a 13-year-old girl when she was returning from school. The girl ran home and told her parents. Her father and two other men started in search of the villain and just before dark found him in a marsh in the woods. He started to run, but one of the party, Ike Shupe, fired three shots at him. The tramp fell twice and did not rise the last time. The party at once started for an officer and returned to the scene of the shooting, but the tramp could not be found. Deputy Dart returned to the city tonight and says that the people think that the tramp was killed and that he was buried and the persons who did it are keeping the matter quiet. Others think the tramp was wounded and crawled off through the brush.

A Romantic Pair of Tramps.

ALLIANCE, Ohio, July 10.—Two youthful tramps alighted from a west-bound freight Wednesday morning and were arrested. It was found that one of them was a girl dressed in boy's clothes. It has been learned that their names are Bessie Stevens and Wesley Mosley, and that they ran away together from Allegheny City. They are lovers, and when Bessie's father proposed to place her in a convent, their young hearts bled. Bessie donned boys' clothes and eloped with Wesley. Bessie's father, R. W. Stevens, is a rich business man in Allegheny and young Mosley is connected with one of the best families of that city.

Campbell Will Decline.

CHICAGO, July 10.—A Tribune special from Cincinnati says: Governor Campbell will be renominated at Cleveland next week beyond all question. He has secured more than enough delegates to accomplish this result. Then, according to the statement of one of his most intimate friends, he will make a sacrifice of himself and decline the honor. This project was agreed on in New York at a conference of Campbell's friends within the last four or five days, and the man who was deputised to make the necessary arrangements for the dicker arrived in Cincinnati Wednesday night.

It looks as if the arrrangement would be a go. If it should Campbell will play for higher stakes than the governship of Ohio.

A STORY FOR A DICKENS.

A Father Who Would Train His Little Boy to Burglary.

PITTSBURGH, July 10.—Charlie Snowden, a little chap of eight summers, fell into the hands of the police Wednesday night, to whom he related a remarkable tale. He says his father is a professional thief holding forth in Wheeling, and because he wanted to train his son up as a burglar the boy fled. The lad declares that his father, whose name is George Snowden, is the leader of a gang. It was their practice to use the lad to crawl through windows and coal holes of houses they wanted to burglarize.

Recently, when the gang supposed Charlie to be asleep, they one night planned a desperate burglary near Wheeling. The next day the boy heard that the old man they robbed was killed in the encounter. He then determined to run away. The police think the boy is telling the truth, and have taken the case in hand.

WHO BARDSLEY HIT.

His Confession to the Public Ledger and Its Suppression.

PHILADELPHIA, July 10.—Rumors have been prevalent in political circles for several days past that a confession written and signed by John Bardsley, the defaulting city treasurer, had been submitted for publication to a daily paper of this city, but had been retained and suppressed in consequence of the fact that more than one man of national reputation was implicated in the statements therein made, and the document is still on the inside of the safe in the newspaper office in question.

It turns out there is more truth than fiction in this story. The paper to which the confession was submitted is the Public Ledger. The confession is a lengthy document telling pretty well all that Bardsley knows and also including some pretty sensational features which he had gathered in conversation with Marsh, the defaulting absconded president of the Chesnut Street bank. Bardsley sent it to the Ledger in the belief that as an independent paper having no affiliations with any of the political parties in Philadelphia, it would be safer in its hands than in any of the other publications which espouse the cause of one or other of the political parties, while it was also his opinion that its publication in the Ledger would free both it and that paper from any charges of political bias. The Ledger carefully went through the confession from beginning to end. Having done so it was the unanimcus decision that it would be better that the confession be suppressed. The reasons therefore are officially stated in this language:

"The document was a repetition of accusations and scandals against reputable persons upon no better authority than of two witnesses wholly unworthy of credit, John Bardsley and Gideon Marsh. A large portion of it was, moreover, hearsay testimony. It is the habit of the Ledger to decline to publish scandalous attacks upon individual character upon no other any such testimony, consequently its publication was suppressed and the document impounded." This extraordinary statement has set every body asking two questions which are vital at the present time: First, what are the accusations and scandals; and secondly, who are the people who are indorsed by the editor of the Ledger as "reputable persons?"

Taking into consideration the manner in which John Bardsley was smuggled into court before the regular hours of business for the purpose of being sentenced, the manner in which he was smuggled back to the jail, and the fact that not only have newspaper men been refused access to him, but that he has been refused all opportunities of communicating with the outside world, there is an almost unanimous demand on the part of the citizens that the contents of the impounded document be made public property, no matter whom it may hurt.

Bay City Torn Up.

DETROIT, Mich., July 10.—Wednesday night, George Considine, a member of the gang of crooks who have infested this city for years, and Miss Gertrude Walton, the 16-year-old daughter of Banker A. W. Walton, of Bay City, were married here under sensational circumstances. Considine, who is at present under bonds as a disorderly person, has the worst criminal record of any man in the state. He recently visited Bay City and met Miss Walton, who has the reputation of being rather wayward. Plans were immediately formed for marriage. Wednesday the girl left her home and came on here, where Considine met her and they were wedded.

Quay Talks.

BRIGANTINE BEACH, N. J., July 10.—"I see by the papers," said Senator Quay yesterday, "a division of recollection between Col. McClure and Mr. Nicolay regarding President Lincoln's attitude towards Vice President Hamlin during the convention of '64. I have no desire to enter the controversy, but justice to Col. McClure causes me to speak. It is fresh in my mind now, the recital of the events of the Baltimore convention upon his return to Harrisburg from the national convention. He came to talk with Governor Chartin. I have not the slightest hesitancy in supporting Col. McClure's statement as it has been printed." Senator Quay remarked that he will call a meeting of the executive committee of the national commission upon the return of John S. Clarkson from Europe.

Sewell For Secretary.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Corroboration comes from official sources of the rumor that ex-Senator Sewell, of New Jersey, will have a seat in the cabinet as secretary of war, when Secretary Proctor resigns to succeed Edmonds in the senate. Gen. Sewell has beeen in communication with the President and has signified his willingness to take the job. The President and Gen. Sewell were very closely attached while in the senate and the friendly feeling has been kept up until the present time.

The Knights and the Farmers.

NEW YORK, July 10.—General Master Workman Powderly yesterday issued a special circular to all local assemblies of the Knights of Labor, declaring off for the present the proposed industrial conference which was to have been held on July 29 to take up the platform of the farmers alliance and join hands with the third party. The conference has met with so little response that Mr. Powderly deems it wise to take this action.

The Young German Emperor Gets His Fill of Pomp and Flattery for Once.

Great London Turns Out to do Him Homage With Flowers and Bunting.

The Prince of Wales and the Diplomatic Corps Leading the Big Circus.

LONDON, July 10.—As early as 8 o'clock the streets through which the kaiser and kaiserine were to make their triumphal progress from the gates of Buckingham palace to the Guild hall were crowded. At 9 the sidewalks were packed, and policemen galloped along the route clearing it of vehicles. The mounted men were promptly followed by officers on foot who forced the swarms of people back upon the sidewalks. This done, the officers mounted guard and handled the crowds as best they could until the long lines of regular and volunteer infantry appeared to relieve them. When this had been accomplished the sunbeams brought out with impressive effect the contrast created by the dusty white pavements of the unbroken streetway, the flaring scarlet, metal and tinsel of the soldiery; the somber mass of people in the background and the waving of banners and bunting over all.

On Fleet street the house decorations and flag display were especially fine. The buildings of Daily News, Telegraph, Chronicle, and the Provincial Press offices were apparently mere masses of color. In the midst of innumerble German and English flags, however, there appeared over the offices of the United Press, the New York Herald and the New York Sun, the stars and stripes, and it was in front of these offices that repeatedly the marching Englishers and sidewalk groups saluted "Old Glory" with ringing saxon cheers.

At 8 o'clock the gates of Buckingham palace were thrown open. The household troops on duty in the grounds stood at present, and riding at a swinging gallop the emperor and his staff passed in on their way to breakfast. Breakfast over for the emperor was a hurried one, for by 9 o'clock he, together with his attendents were en route for a private view of naval exhibition. This business was satisfactorily concluded there came another rapid return to Buckingham palace.

At noon there was a glitter of sunlight on helmets, sword and sheath, and kaiser and kaiserine began the imperial entry into royal London. First came a detachment of life guards, blue with waving plumes and sabres drawn, then the state carriage in which rode the family, and following the imperial coupe another detachment of the lifeguards' blue. A long line of magnificent carriages followed, in which were seated the pink and pride of English and German aristocracy. This was headed by the prince and princess of Wales. A most brilliant feature of this was contributed by the diplomatic corps, who occupied a group of carriages immediately behind the imperial guests and royal hosts.

Looking up the Strand at this moment the decoration of the great thoroughfare was seen to be superbly flashy, though there was a lack of artistic design. The feature of the occasion was the vast quantities of flowers used for the purpose of ornamentation.

The Frenchmen United.

PARIS, July 10.—M. Ribot, the minister of foreign affairs, yesterday delivered an address on the occasion of inauguratting a new line of railway to Montreul-Sous-Bois. In speaking of the foreign policy of the republic the minister said that it was inspired by an absolute confidence in the strength of the country, and unfaltering reliance upon the spirit of national pride which formed the proper basis of grandeur of nations. "When," continued M. Ribot, "the country is in danger, party divisions must disappear." A tremendous outburst of applause greeted this sentiment.

Palestine for the Jews.

NEW YORK, July 10.—Dr. Gotheil, professor of Syriac in Columbia, will arrive at Southampton tomorrow. His mission is to confer in London on a movement for the amelioration of the condition of the exiled Russian Jews, by the formation of colonies near Palestine and elsewhere. There is money back of the scheme and it is expected that the conference will result in the adoption of definite plans.

Pritchard and Smith.

LONDON, July 10.—A report reached this city last night that the fight between Ted Pritchard and Jem Smith for the championship of England and $10,000 took place. Pritchard, it was said, had won the fight after four fierce rounds, during which he had made a chopping block of Smith, and had finally knocked him out. If the report proves true, Pritchard will be the first middleweight belt holder since Sayers. It is doubted, however, and may not have taken place.

Hoppers in the Southwest.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 10.—Henry Smith, of Springer, N. M., is in the city. In an interview last night he said that the grasshopper pest in New Mexico and Arizona was becoming serious. Mr. Smith owns large ranches in New Mexico and Arizona. He says the grasshoppers have stripped them of nearly every vestige of vegetation and have done great damage.

"Gold Ore."

MARTINSVILLE, Ind., July 10.—John Collins, living near Monrovia, this county, yesterday found a piece of gold ore on his farm weighing about ten pounds. For several years gold has been found in Sycamore creek. This find has set the entire neighborhood wild with excitement and the people may abandon all work to search for the metal.

Three-fourths of the Itata's Cargo in the Hands of Chileans.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—A British officer named Smith, who has just come from San Diego reports a conversation he had with Second Officer Taylor of the Itata, which, if true, clears up the mystery of disappearance of arms and ammunition which the Itata took away from San Diego, but did not have on board when she was turned over to the United States at Iquique.

This officer met Taylor in a saloon, and, both being Englishman from the same county, they became great friends. He says Taylor bragged of the shrewed trick Capt. Maunzen had played on the Americans, and said the transfer of 15,000 out of 20,000 stand of arms was made from the Itata to the Esmeralda far out from the coast of Mexico.

MARINE MENTION.

The Wetmore's Liverpool Cargo; A Barge Launch; Marine Notes.

Capt. Alex. McDougall says that the Wetmore started for Liverpool with nearly 90,000 bushels of wheat and 20,000 feet of lumber. It appears that the port regulations at Montreal require that grain cargoes taken across the ocean shall be divided by bulkheads in order to prevent shifting.

"I don't see how the cargo in the Wetmore could have shifted," said the captain, "as she was loaded chock full. We offered to run a bulkhead on either side, close to the posts, throughout the length, but the rules called for one right in the middle, and so in the middle we had to put it. Then it had to be braced by stays every eight feet, which were made of pine, 4 by 6. The result was that you couldn't see anything a few feet away and we had put 20,000 feet of 3-inch plank into her in bulkheads."

The Wetmore will carry merchandise to New York on her discharging cargo at Liverpool and will then take on 1000 tons of machinery for the Puget Sound shipyard and 1000 tons of merchandise. Her earnings on the latter trip will be fully $24,000.

The captain says that the Cuba iron mines of the men interested in his company are being developed at a rapid rate aud that they will be ready to ship to Philadelphia next March. It is expected that the first season's shipments will amount to 500,000 tons.

The Barge Yard.

The Edward B. Bartlett, the No. 113, and the fourth steamer of the whaleback fleet, was launched yesterday afternoon. The vessel is of the same general build as the other whaleback steamers afloat. Her length is 265 feet; beam, 38 feet; depth, 24 feet. The dimensions are the same as those of the Wetmore and Thomson, but two feet more in beam and depth of hold and nineteen feet shorter than the Colby. The engines are English make, triple expansion, from Sunderland, with cylinders 17½, 30 and 47 inches and a stroke of 33 inches. The Bartlett has all her machinery in and is further advanced than most of the others were when launched. It will take about three weeks to complete her. She is designed for ocean trade, but will probably not get to salt water till next year.

Barges 115 and 116 will be ready for launching in about three weeks. The small barge built for the Standard Oil company may be launched Saturday. The steel plate for 118 and 119 arrived yesterday and work will be started on them. These are to be larger than any of the others. The length of each will be 292 feet, or eight feet longer than the Colby and twenty-eight feet longer than the ocean whaleback steamers. They are to be 36 feet beam and 22-foot depth, and will ply on the lakes exclusively. They will carry nearly 4000 tons each.

A Big Southern Bank Fails.

LOUISVILLE, July 10.—Financial circles received a tremendous shock this morning when it was announced that the Falls City bank had closed its doors. It was a private corporation, and has been in a shaky condition since last fall, when a run was made on it by its depositors. The liabilities are supposed to be about $1,300,000. Assets, $1,000,000. Its capital stock was placed at $600,000. It is not thought that the depositors will lose any of their deposits.

The Falls City bank officers now state that their assets will be $120,000 and liabilities a little more than half that amount. The depositors will be paid in full, and it is expected that there will be something left for the stockholders. The bank's money was tied up in loans, and this, together with the depositors' withdrawals, brought about the collapse.

A Southern Feud.

NORFOLK, Va July 10—A feud between McPherson and McRay families in Warwick Co, resulted in the murder yesterday of Leon McPherson and his 6 year old daughter. The heads of the two families recently had a dispute over the ownership of certain lands. Yesterday the quarrel was renewed and resulted in the shooting of McPherson and his little girl. McRay is being pursued.

The Guatemala Unpleasantness.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 10.—The news of the revolution in Guatemala has been confirmed by a dispatch received here. CHANGE THE ROUTE

The Motor Line Track Will be Changed from Woodland Avenue if Possible.

But Owners on Clover Hill Do Not Intend it Shall be Possible.

Mr. Hartley Talks on the Lakeside Line and the East End's Service.

The people who own property in Highland Park, Clover Hill, Wood Lawn and vicinity and who are familiar with common report are not happy. It has come from several sources that the Motor Line Improvement company is about to extend the Fourth street line from its present end at Indiana avenue to Connecticut avenue, and from the latter point run the track out to Woodland Park, connecting with the existing track at some point over the hill in the vicinity of the Hardy school. If this is done the line running through the properties just described will be abandoned.

G. G. Hartley, an influential member of the Duluth Street Railway company and Motor Line Improvement company, told The Herald that nothing had been decided on by the latter company about what means it would take in order to go to Woodland in the future. They had decided to lower the grades on the line, in order to make it less expensive to handle business and also in order to give better service. Already men have been placed on the farther end of the line to lower the grade. The grade in Highland Park and Clover Hill is at present too great and he did not think it could be lowered enough to make it pay, and there would be so much rock work as to make a change of grade expensive. The line might be continued out Fourth street. That was a matter that had not been settled. There were more easy grades to Woodland to the east of the present line.

Frank A. Day, of Richardson, Day & Co., said that if the company attempted to abandon its line throug the properties controlled by them they would serve an injunction to restrain it from so doing. He claimed that the grading of Woodland avenue through their properties had been done free of cost to the railway people as an inducement to the latter to furnish transportation facilities. This had cost the property owners $10,000.

In speaking on the Lakeside extension Mr. Hartley said that the whole matter was really in the charge of Manager Chase. Mr. Hartley was the one who had suggested the change to Jefferson street on account of the grade on Bench street. "We can accommodate the people in the upper portion of Lakeside just the same if we go over Jefferson street," said he. "In fact if you look at the map you will notice that the Jefferson street route is shorter than that via Bench street. We cannot afford to wear out cars in going up a long hill when we can run passengers on a 2 per cent grade much more swiftly and at less expense.

"When Mr. Harrison and Mr. Sherwood, who want the line on Bench street, get enough people to live on their land we will be glad to accommodate them with a line. I have no property along Superior street to be benefited by the change, and I don't know whether the other members of the company have or not. If we build to Lakeside over Jefferson street, we will probably diverge from the Bench street line in the vicinity of Thirteenth or Fourteenth avenues east and continue the present Bench street service. We will not extend the Bench street line until there are houses to warrant us in so doing.

"I admit we run cars up a steep grade on Third avenue west, but it is because that is the only way to get up on the hill. We have no choice in the matter. Because cars can run on a 10 per cent grade, it is no sign that it is wise to do so when you can get a lower one."

In concluding, Mr. Hartley said that the Iron Range company would be obliged to discontinue its short line service when electric service to Lakeside was inaugurated.

At a meeting of the board of works this afternoon it was decided to finish the work of grading Bench street, as the contractors would want $5000 to stop now. An effort will be made to get a 5 per cent grade. This probably means no street cars to Lakside this year.

TONIGHT'S EVENTS.

Pathfinders at Temple Opera.

ONE GROUND OF FAITH.

The glories of Duluth have ever afforded an inviting theme. And never before have they borne such an electrifying influence, such inspiration, as they do now. But for the present we pass them by to point out in a blunt and humble way one of the grounds on which we build our faith.

Everybody concedes there must be a great city at the head of the lakes, and the only point in question is as to which side of the bay to build it. We declare for Duluth, not merely in a blind love for our superb city, though love for such beauty might well be blind, but because sober reason dictates that nature has so ordered it. Circumstances, too, are not to be forgotten, and they are now vastly in our favor. Let us reason a moment. There are four chief elements to be considered in the selection of a home: Cheapness, convenience, healthfulness, beauty. Where are they to be found? Certainly on the Duluth side. Lay a map of the head of navigation on the table. Look at it. Consider. All the important future commerce of Superior will be on the water front from near Connors Point up the river. Along this front for a mile or more back the land has been disposed of or is to be for railroad terminals and manufacturing sites. This part of the city across the bay will therefore be uninhabitable, and the men who do all the labor along the water front, including wholesaling, railroading, elevator business, coal handling, and all the myriad employments that go with terminal grounds and dock fronts, must go back beyond the business portion of West Superior for homes. But when they have gone back three miles the property is still beyond the reach of the laborer, and higher than residence property a mile from the water front on the Duluth side. Even at South Superior, part of which is beyond the forty-mile limit, lots are as high as they are half the distance back on this side of the bay. The boom has placed everything over there beyond the reach of common every day people, and the cheap homes are on our side.

As to convenience, that, too, is all with Duluth. At present Superior has no street car or short line connections with her various municipal ganglia that are worth mentioning. From the old town, which is much the prettiest residence portion, it is seven or eight miles to the point in question, and it now takes two hours to make the trip. On this side all transportation facilities are perfect, and as a result all locations are of convenient access. Ferries are run between the cities, and as the commerce grows and Duluth develops nearly everything on the opposite water front, and indeed in the whole town, will be done by happy throngs of laborers from bright and cheerful homes over here. We are nearer Superior's water front than she is herself. We hold the key and will turn the lock. From the point of rocks to West Duluth is room for a million people. Why, then, should not those who supply the wants of manufacture and commerce on both sides the bay select homes within this limit? No one need doubt that they will do so.

As to healthfulness and beauty, all argument is superfluous. Basements in Superior are not habitable for human beings. They are always damp, oftimes flooded, and constant disease breeders. The townsite is so flat that in the forty square miles of its municipal area—much beyond is platted—there is not a site from which the lake or harbor can be seen. This means bad drainage, stagnant sewers, foulness in the humbler homes, and malignant fevers as the population increases. It is a most serious matter to contemplate. But back of West Duluth, and from there to Piedmont avenue west, could be found 50,000 charming homesites accessible to any point of business on either side of the bay. These homes would be high and dry, well drained, healthful, and in most cases commanding pretty views of the entire head of the lakes. Close connection with railroads, street cars and ferries is certain to fulfill our prophecy, and make Duluth the New York and Brooklyn of the West.

As to the rocks and hills which are our strength and beauty, just a word. When our population was one or two or three thousand they were in our way. A small hamlet cannot afford to cut through mountains of rock nor build a terrace driveway to enchant all comers with the beauty of the situation. But with our 50,000 population, soon to be swollen to 100,000, these obstacles are transformed into wonders of beauty and advantage. Who in Duluth would give away a single hill? A vast population can afford any miracle of engineering, and all thought of hills being a disadvantage has passed away. The burden of improvements constantly decreases. But across the bay things are reversed. A small community can get along very well in a level, sluggish townsite with no fall for sewerage. With a growing city, however, there must be drainage, and with every increase of population the situation becomes more serious. Already they are putting in a ten-foot sewer in Superior, the fall being so slight that a vast subterranean corridor is required to bear the refuse away and drain the swampy lands. In time pumping stations will be imperative.

Sometimes it is said Minneapolis outgrew St. Paul, and Superior may outgrow Duluth. The conditions are not alike. St. Paul is an ancient city, begun in the days of river navigation. Minneapolis is a modern city or large village, located for manufacturing purposes on water power. The railroads killed river navigation, and then Minneapolis had things greatly in her favor. All the logs from the Upper Mississippi came to her door. Her wonderful mills gathered in the vast wheat crop of the West. She had all advantages St. Paul possessed and these potent ones beside. They turned the scale. Had railroads preceded the settlement of Minnesota, as they have done in the states beyond, there would never have been a St. Paul. She is a relic of river navigation pushed to her present proportions by an energetic and resourceful people. But Duluth lacks nothing desirable that is found across the bay, while she has the only residence sites and charming driveways. Besides, we have suburban resorts which the other side does not possess; electric lines will run to Pike lake within a few seasons, our harbor is open a month longer each year, Minnesota has the only reputation for wheat and flour, the adjacent iron mines are all on our side, and everything is coming our way. These are but a few of the points we hope in time to press upon the attention of our people.

DON'T CROWD THE PROCESSION.

Our editorial space for today was spoken for before the Superior Tribune, printed for convenience in Duluth, came to our notice. As it has only 500 circulation and $40,000 debts, it can afford to take its turn, and wait, if deserving of notice at all, until tomorrow. Jim Hill of the Great Northern road holds a $25,000 mortgage on the plant of the Superior paper in question, has another unsecured claim of $5000, and there are other debts aggregating $10,000. The proprietors have given an option to certain parties if they would assume the indebtedness, which is $6000 less than the plant cost them a year or so ago. The Herald on the other hand has gained 500 regular subscribers since the little pleasantry between it and the mudpouts across the bay began. The Herald is honest and successful; the Tribune is an expiring fraud. Don't crowd the funeral procession. We may say here that we did not begin either the general or personal quarrel with the mudpouts, but don't forget for a moment that we shall end it. Also let us say at this time that if the people who are blubbering because we won't let Superior alone, had themselves let it alone during the past three years there would be no occasion for the present contest and we should have been robbed of its untold delights. They have given us lots of fun. As soon as space permits we shall publish a column of extracts from Superior papers showing attacks on Duluth and the writer, thus justifying our recent nude nuggets of thought told in kindly vein.

LET THE PUBLIC JUDGE.

The following reached us this morning on a postal card:

MR. BEDE.—Your infamous article concerning a citizen of another place, which appears in The Herald issue of July 8, ought to debar you forever from trying to edit a paper. It was a disgrace both to you and to Duluth for harboring such a "monster" in human form as you seem to be. If you had a particle of manhood about you, you would never have put such language in print, even if you did give utterance to it. This note is but a sample of what the general public think of this article. Yours truly,
A PUBLIC CITIZEN.

July 9, '91.

If the writer of the above were as manly as he wants us to be, he would not sneak through the mails under an assumed name. We know he is a coward and we'll wager ten cents that he belongs to the recently-listed four hundred or to those who don't want music on Sunday—perhaps to both. Give us your name, brother; if you are a public citizen don't be so confounded private about it. The Herald writer never stabs in the dark. Be a Christian, and gird on the breastplate of righteousness. Duluth still harbors us. She has the finest harbor in the world. Out of 550 arrivals all but four came in at the Duluth entrance. There isn't a set of grain books kept in Superior. Over 5000 people will leave that town within a year. Hadn't you better fill the vacancy? Perhaps you could edit the Telegram and lie about Duluth.

WILL the Tribune or any one else point out the particular words or allusions in the personal communication of the 8th inst., signed by the writer, that were indecent? Some, for instance, that we can't duplicate from the Bible, which is our guide in life. Can "A Public Citizen" do so? Trot out your indecencies.

THE HERALD prints over 3000 copies every evening. The Tribune circulates 500 in Duluth. We have put the Trib to sleep also. This is our answer.

The Scandinavians and Col. Geggie.

To the Editor of The Herald:

The statement appearing in a local paper to the effect that Col. Geggie's appointment to the land office would be offensive to the Scandinavians of Duluth borders on the ridiculous. The only manner in which Col. Geggie has come in contact with the Scandinavians is as general manager of the gas and water company and of the motor company's interest. Not one of these employes but would gladly vote Col. Geggie into any position within his gift. What opposition there is from the quarters named has its sole root in private interests, and is in no shape or manner entitled to any recognition as an representative opinion. Col. Geggie is too well known here to be made the subject of such baseless criticism. It is as useless as it is injurious to foster such class politics, and none detest it more than the intelligent Scandinavians themselves. K. O.

Moody on the Millenium.

Mr. Moody has no sympathy with those who aim to fix the time of the Lord's second coming. "It is certain, but the time is unknown. It may be today; it may not be in a thousand years. The Christian has nothing to do with the time. He has only to watch. Those who outline a program of events which are to occur when the Lord appears do not have His approval. Four facts must be noted: The Son of God came; He has gone; the Holy Spirit has been given; the Son of God will come again."

A Tremendous Sensation

Would have been created one hundred years ago by the sight of one of our modern express trains whizzing along at the rate of sixty miles an hour. Just think how our grandfathers would have stared at such a spectacle! It takes a good deal to astonish people now-a-days, but some of the marvellous cures of consumption, wrought by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, have created wide-spread amazement. Consumption is at last acknowledged curable. "The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only known remedy for it. If taken at the right time—which, bear in mind, is not when the lungs are nearly gone—it will go right at the seat of the disease and accomplish the work as nothing else in the world can. It is the only medicine of its class, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee that it will benefit or cure in all cases of disease for which it is recommended, or money paid for it will be promptly refunded.

Through the medium of a a handsome folder just received, we learn that the Minneapolis Exposition reopens its doors this season on August 26, and continues one month. The folder contains a long list of attractions, from a perusal of which we are satisfied that the Exposition of 1891 will be superior to that of any other season. The list includes such sterling features as the Mexican Band that created such a furore at the New Orleans Exposition in 1885, a genuine Japanese village, the Sanford Girls orchestra, a display of weapons, many of them relics of the civil war, etc.

THE TIME To Invest in Real Estate is when there is no rush. When the demand is normal, and strong enough to indicate good advances.

THE PLACE To invest in Real Estate is Where Improvements Are Being Made that will insure healthy growth. Where the improvements are of such character, that a backward step is impossible. Where the foundation has already been laid, and on a foundation solid enough to guarantee a substantial superstructure.

THE OPPORTUNITY For investing in Real Estate is ripe when the conditions of time and place are most favorable.

New Duluth

Offers you these conditions today. No suburb of Duluth has made such rapid strides or such substantial improvements as NEW DULUTH. Eight large manufacturing industries are now located which alone, when in full running order, will insure a population of 5000 people. Some of these are already in operation. The Atlas Iron and Brass Works, an illustration of which appears with this, has an order amounting to $45,000 for building paper machinery from one firm, the Marinette Paper Co., of Marinette, Wis. All the other plants are being pushed to completion as rapidly as men and money can. All of them have enough orders ahead, and are of such recognized standing that they will be run at their full capacity.

There are many other points too numerous to mention here that will convince any one that New Duluth offers the most substantial inducements for investors at the head of the lake today.

Call at the Office of the New Duluth Land Company for Transportation to New Duluth. One Trip Will Convince You.

THEY TALK TERMINALS.

Citizens Meet the Duluth & Winnipeg in Conference Over Its Terminal and Financial Affairs.

Mr. Fisher Makes His Statement and Another of Those Many Committees is Appointed.

No Decision Arrived at, but a General Understanding of the Situation is Reached.

There was an important terminal meeting at the chamber of commerce rooms late yesterday afternoon, at which a number of the heaviest Duluth capitalists were present. They came together to confer with General Manager Fisher, of the Duluth & Winnipeg, on the future course of his road and what could or should be done to locate it as Duluth wants it located. While nothing could be definitely settled, there was a good deal of talk that will doubtless result beneficially.

Manager Fisher stated that his road had made a number of definite propositions to Duluth, the last being that of some months ago, when he wanted half of the needed money to build in from Cloquet subscribed as stock in the construction company by Duluth people, but that nothing had ever come of any of his offers. The men who have put in 90 per cent of the money that has gone into the road so far have, outside of it, not a dollar's interest in Duluth. They want to build a railway, and build it at once. To do this they must take any course that promises the best result. The Consolidated Land company of Old Superior came before the railway meeting last month and made certain formal offers of what it would do in return for the ore docks of the company, to be located on the Nemadji river. These offers, though liberal, have not yet been accepted.

The question was asked Mr. Fisher as to what was necessary to be done. He could make no definite statement. He thought a guaranty of a certain amount, $200,000 to $300,000, in bonds, might be made. The grade of the road is now down to Spirit lake and it wants to get into town. The only hindrance is a lack of money and a high claim for damages from property will make this hindrance greater. The intention of the Duluth & Winnipeg to get into Duluth as soon as possible and the desire that it build on westward, was shown to be common with all present.

The action of the Duluth, Mesaba & Northern in calling for a bond election July 28, was spoken of and explained and the meeting soon after adjourned.

Before adjournment, however, a committee of citizens was appointed to look up the bond question and see if something could not be done after the idea broached by the chamber for a general gift, to be available for several roads, rather than a special one for the Mesaba & Northern. A. M. Miller was made chairman of this committee, which is already at work.

ABOLISHING MIDDLEMEN.

Association of Grain Raisers to Ship Direct to Europe.

The Red River Valley Scandinavian Anti-Monopoly Protective association, with headquarters at Grand Forks, has decided to secure an agent at Duluth to give his entire time to receiving, selling and shipping grain. The association will rent storage room in an elevator, each member to ship grain there, the best grades to be shipped direct to Europe. The association estimates they will have 1,000,000 bushels of grain to ship this year.

Ore from Atic Okan.

J. M. Millar, who has lately returned from the Canadian iron ore beds of the Atic Okan, speaking of the Port Arthur, Duluth & Western and the ore, says: "On the road they are ballasting night and day; rails are laid to Whitefish, more than half way to the boundary; ties are out to the boundary; the country is swarming with men, the grade is well under way for the whole distance and the steel rails are all purchased and en route, and if that track is not laid to Gunflint Lake by the end of September you can send me up in birch bark. I am off for home to see about getting to work on some of our iron. The company offers to contract with us to carry out ore, either this fall or next, just as we see fit."

The Jobbers Meet.

The Jobbers union held a short meeting last evening. Mr. Johnstone, representative of the St. Paul Pioneer Press, wanted to arrange with the union for half-inch advertisements in that paper under a general head of "Duluth Jobbers." No action was taken. The matter of poor mail service from Duluth was discussed, complaint being made that there are no mail cars on night trains, and all business letters must be posted before 8 p. m.

Stevenson-Wood.

Miss Libbie Stevenson, daughter of Col. D. H. Stevenson, will be married at her father's residence on Thursday, July 23, to Thomas Wilson Wood. Invitations have been sent to about 200 friends. As both these young people are well known and very popular the coming event will be looked forward to with interest.

The Labor Assembly.

At its meeting last evening the Trade and Labor assembly passed a resolution strongly condemning the school board's proposed action in discriminating against a Duluth firm. It also endorsed the action of the mayor in the matter of Sunday ball games by a vote of 14 to 2. The secretary was instructed to write the mayor a letter expressing the thanks of union for the brave stand he has taken. The officers were installed with the usual ceremonies. D. H. Morrison having resigned as recording secretary, Charles Freimuth was elected in his place. Reports of the different unions showed them all to be in good condition.

The Rowers at Winnipeg.

It is quite possible that Duluth will be shut out at the annual regatta of the Minnesota and Winnipeg Rowing association at Winnipeg this summer. It was originally intended to have the race late in July but the Manitobans objected to that and want the first two or three day in August. Duluth's best rowers will be unable to be present at that time, and are trying to make the date the 7th and 8th of next month. As yet they have not succeed but hope to do so later.

THE MARKETS.

Wheat Weaker and Lower on Crop News; Stocks at New York.

Wheat opened weaker and lower today on flattering returns from the new crop in the Northwest, good weather, increasing receipts of new winter wheat and easy cables. Later on there was a better demand and prices recovered. The feature here was the big local demand for July 1 northern, which opened at last night's price and under the good buying advanced 2½c before the day was over. Futures did not share in this strength. The close was dull and easy, except for cash wheats and July, which were firm.

Cash 1 hard closed 2½ up $1.00½. Cash 1 northern 97½. Cash 2 northern 92½. July 1 hard sold at $1.00½, closing at $1.01. July 1 northern opened at 96 bid, sold up to 98½, closed at 98. September 1 hard opened at 88¾ and closed at 88¾. No. 1 northern opened at 86¾, advanced to 89, closed at 86¾. December 1 northern 87½ sellers.

Grain Movement.

Cars grain inspected today, 16, of which 1 was 1 hard and 15 were 1 northern. Receipts were 6923 bu wheat, and 4077 bbls flour. Shipments 31,040 bu wheat, and 2100 bbls flour. Cars wheat on track, 13.

New York Money and Stocks.

NEW YORK, July 10.—Money 2 per cent. Exchange steady. Posted rates 486@488; actual rates, 385¼ for sixty days and 486¾@487 for demand.

There were only 52,600 shares sold on the stock exchange during the morning hours, and this total was made up of St. Paul, Burlington, Louisville, Richmond & West Point and New England. The rest of the list was almost wholly neglected. Prices opened weak and during the early trading there was a general decline of ¼ to 1 per-cent.

The announcement of an increase of $53,385 in St. Paul's earnings for the first week in July caused a rally in that stock. At this writing the market is stagnant with values only slightly changed from the opening.

Day by day becomes more patent the fact that the public refuses to be tempted into stock speculation. The new bear pool in Burlington promises to be an aggressive one. The banks grow daily more severe in their restrictions upon collaterals.

Chicago Money.

CHICAGO, July 10.—The clearings were $13,604,603. Foreign exchange opened dull at 484¾ for 60 day bills, and 486½ for sight drafts. Exchange on New York sold before clearings at 12½ cent to 25 cent discount, a change that had been expected.

Chicago Live Stock.

UNION STOCK YARDS, Ill., July 10.—Cattle: Receipts, 9500; firm. Hogs: Receipts, 18,000; strong, 5c higher; heavy, $4.65@5.10; mixed and medium, $4.70@5.10; light, $4.60@5.10. Sheep: Receipts, 1000; firm.

Chicago Markets.

CHICAGO, July 10.—Wheat opened weak at about 88¾c to 88⅞c for December. Cables were easy, weather fine and the demand rather light. Partridge is taking advantage of the break and covering some of his short sales of yesterday. Corn weak; offerings are liberal, the weather favorable, receipts nearly 100 cars more than expected. Oats easier. Provisions strong and higher on smaller receipts of hogs than was expected and an advance of 5c at stock yards. September pork started at $10.32½ and sold to $10.40. Lard sold from $6.32½ to $6.40 and September ribs from $6.35 to $6.32½.

The Cotton Crop.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—The following is the July cotton crop report: The general average for the whole breadth has advanced three points, standing at 88.6. This is three points below the July return of last year and one above that of 1889. In but three seasons since 1874 have the July returns been so low.

THE HEARING ENDED.

Wide Divergences Between the Various Realty Experts.

The hearing before the commissioners in the Duluth & Winnipeg right-of-way cases was finished this morning. Commissioner Merritt said to a Herald representative that a report would not be made before the last of next week.

The testimony on behalf of property owners placed values at from $1000 to $1500 an acre on the acre property, while those for the other side scattered from these figures down to $25 an acre for actual farm use. L. Mendenhall testified that acreage such as that owned by McManus is worth about $1000 an acre from a speculative standpoint and about $150 an acre for actual use. The same was held of the Totman and other properties. A. M. Miller made the $25 estimate on the lands for farm use. W. G. Joerns made an itemized statement showing a loss of $57,000 on the property owned by himself and Register of Deeds Shepard. The commissioners will have a meeting tomorrow.

The City of Lakeside Begins Proceedings to Recover $10,000.

The city of Lakeside has brought a mandamus against County Auditor La Vaque to compel him to give an order on the county treasurer for $10,000 due the city of Lakeside as successor to the village of Lakeside. The matter will be heard by Judge Stearns today, and Auditor Lavaque says the county attorney has advised him not to give the order on the ground that there is doubt at to the constitutionality of the act making Lakeside a city. The point is that the title of the act is inconsistent with what is contained in the act.

Want the Taxes Abated.

Several of the stockholders of the St. Paul & Duluth held a conference with State Auditor Bierman yesterday for the purpose of having abated certain taxes on property belonging to the road, situated in Duluth. The taxes referred to amount to between $6000 and $7000 and are said to be on property used for railroad purposes and hence exempt. At any rate counsel asks to have the tax lists changed so that they shall exempt any part which may be used for railroad purposes.

CONJECTURE OF DISTRIBUTION OF POPULATION IN 1900.

In all Western towns there is a tendency to grow—westward—up stream—and along where the railroads meet the water transportation. In Duluth there is a slight deviation from this rule, for the fine residence sites on the lake shore have drawn the residences, to a considerable extent, eastward.

But in the main the general rule holds good, for the business and miscellaneous growth has been westward until the Spalding House, Palladio, Chamber of Commerce, Lyceum, and other large buildings have lodged against the rocky bluff which obstructs the westward growth of Duluth much as drift lodges on the upper side of a snag when floating down stream.

This, however, does not bar the westward progress of the city, as it has broken out in a new place and that place is WEST DULUTH.

While "Old Duluth" is crowded in toward the lake shore by the steep hillside on which it stands, West Duluth is situate on a nearly level plane, in width from water's edge to foothill about equal to that on which Cincinnati stands, but much longer. Beside, when you get further west there is a more easy ascent, making a reasonably good up-hill grade for streets and furnishing residence sites like those east of Duluth.

On the water side of West Duluth you find St. Louis bay and river, the latter having a channel about twenty feet in depth for several miles above West Duluth. Together they make the finest natural harbor on the "Chain of Lakes."

The news that a loan of $2,000,000 had been secured by the Duluth Terminal & Transfer road is full of significance: It means that the iron bands will reach from the present harbor to Fond du Lac, putting every foot of that desirable dock front within reach of the draw bar of every locomotive which comes to the head of Lake Superior.

The center of this vast commercial arrangement will be at West Duluth, where it connects with the railroads across the water.

The center of general trade is on the level land nearest the center of commerce, and convenient to this without being in it is the highest priced residence property.

It is there you find Belmont Park, Sharp's, Dickerman's, Belvue Park and Stewart's Addition, so situated that while they have a view extending from Fond du Lac to the horizon on Lake Superior, they are only about five minutes' walk from the railroad, and then ten minutes' ride to Union Depot. Central Avenue runs through them, with cedar block pavement, to be followed by Electric Motor Cars.

HOW IS MR. BLAINE

Not Easy to Say From the Reports Just How the Secretary Really Is,

But Apparently Evident That he Has no Serious Disease and May Recover.

At Which the Country, and Especially the West, Will Much Rejoice.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The Herald prints the following this morning from its special correspondent at Bar Harbor:

It is still an open question among those who think themselves in a position to know whether James G. Blaine will return to his duties at Washington in the fall or whether he has come to Bar Harbor to die. I think that I am safe in making these two statements:

First, that Mr. Blaine is by no means the man he was a year ago, and that the habitues of Bar Harbor are shocked at the change. Second, that if Blaine is really dying, from whatever cause, he is dying very gamely and is making such a fight against the grim monster as only a man of his iron will can make. To sum up the situation then, Mr. Blaine may be a wreck on a priori grounds but he may be one of that particular kind of wrecks which laugh scientific deductions in the face and refuse to sink.

What can you expect of a "dying man" who rain or shine, insists on driving his twenty miles a day? I had a good look at the secretary this afternoon. He was in a brown study, walking with slow stride up and down a favorite piazza. He wore a soft hat pulled down over his head, while a black coat with long tails flapped about his legs. He was dressed for comfort and nothing else. But dress is a trivial detail. What struck me was the expression of his face—pallid, while in a frame of silver hair and beard. His eyes shone bright as of yore, but they shone with a feverish, unhealthy lustre, and there was in their look something of mental disquietude. People who have known Mr. Blaine for years are impressed in a similar way by the difference in his manner and expression. You cannot indicate precisely in lines and adjectives what that difference is. You feel it. Mrs. Blaine and her daughter, Mrs. Damrosch, are almost worried to death about the condition of him who is so dear to them, and whose condition they are able to appreciate by loving intuition far better than the doctors with their learned formulas.

As one of his physicians told me "there are no drugs or medicines which can do the statesman any good. Who knows the great recipe for calming the nerve centers of the overworked brain? The patient will either pull through or he won't and that is all there is to it. His nerves are the trouble. He has not Bright's disease. His kidneys are as sound as any man's. Do you think a man who had paralysis could go about as he does? Mr. Blaine eats and enjoys three square meals a day, composed of pretty much the same dishes that anyone else eats. He has a touch of dyspepsia now and then, but not more than most Americans of his age."

During the five weeks he has been here he has made steady improvement, and as likely as not will go back to Washington all ready for the work ready for him.

The Boston Herald says: Secretary Blaine continues steadily to improve, and he said today that he felt himself on the road to complete recovery. Emmons Blaine said: "My father is better than he has been for seven or eight months. There is absolutely no truth in the alarming statements made. He has no organic disease. He has neither kidney complaint, diabetes or Bright's disease. He has not been placed on a milk diet at any time, but on the contrary, he eats heartily of meats, vegetables and fruits."

The Stock Yards Stay at Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 10.—Referring to the understanding which has been reached between the stock yards and the big Chicago packers, the Financial News Bureau says: The stock yards company will give to the packers $1,000,000 in common stock to be held for five years and will loan $2,000,000 cash, at 4 per cent. In return, the four leading packers, Armour, Swift, Morris and the Anglo-American company, surrender part of the land bought for their new yards and agree to remain at the Chicago yards for ten years.

Washington's Negro Importations.

WASHINGTON July 11—Editor Rader, who has just returned from a trip to the scene of the mining trouble, declares that these troubles arise from a political scheme. The company will continue to import negro miners until there will be at least 2000 of them qualified to vote in the state election in 92.

Breaking Up Opium Smuggling.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., July 11.—During the last fifteen days five opium smugglers have been captured by United States revenue cutters. This activity is practically breaking up all smuggling on the straits.

In Memory of Sir John.

TORONTO, Ont., July 11.—A meeting of leading citizens resulted in a decision to erect a statue, with allegorical representations of the provinces, as a memorial of Sir John A. Macdonald. The estimated cost is $50,000.

Those Unhappy St. Paul Roads.

ST. PAUL, July 11.—As foreshadowed yesterday Chairman Finley has filed a complaint against the Milwaukee road for selling tickets to Toronto by a route not running through Chicago. A similar complaint was also made against the Wisconsin Central.

Fitz Gets His Sparklers.

ST. PAUL, July 11.—Through efforts of detectives, Robert Fitzsimmons, the pugilist, has recovered diamonds lost in the robbery at White Bear Lake some days ago.

False Economy

Is practiced by many people, who buy inferior articles of food because cheaper than standard goods. Surely infants are entitled to the best food obtainable. It is a fact that the Gail Borden "Eagle" Brand Condensed Milk is the best infant food. Your grocer and druggist keep it.

TO BUNCH MORTGAGES.

What a Great Head Those Kansas Alliance Men Have!

TOPEKA, Kas., July 11.—The Kansas alliance has formulated a plan for the payment and renewal of farm mortgages which will be of great value to the farmers of Kansas as well as to the capitalists of the East who loan them money.

A committee was appointed yesterday to ascertain the number of mortgages on farms owned bp alliance men in Kansas, to lump them in a whole and to go East and negotiate with capitalists for their renewal or payment at a low rate of interest.

The object of this action is to dispel the idea that the farmers of Kansas are in favor of repudiation and to also do away with middlemen and agents who filch from both capitalists and farmers. It is believed that this plan will reduce the rates of interest to 6 per cent.

President Frank McGrath, of the state alliance, pronounces the report that the alliance had sent out a secret circular appealing to its members to hold their wheat until it would bring $1.25 per bushel, a fake.

AT MINNEAPOLIS.

The Society of Christian Endeavor Continues its Annual Sessions.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 11.—This is the third day of the great international convention of Christian Endeavor. The proceedings of the day were inaugurated at 6:30 this morning with a prayer meeting conducted by Miss Grace Livingston of Winter Park, Fla. At 9 o'clock the delegates met in regular business session and after the usual religious exercises reports from the world-wide field were made by General Secretary Baer. He gave some interesting details of the growth of the movement in England and presented particularly encouraging figures from Japan. On Feb. 2 the Christian Endeavor societies in that country celebrated the decennial anniversary of the first society, meetings being held in Kobas, Okayema, Kumamota and Kyoto. The native churches are also organizing the young people into Christian Endeavor societies. The growth of the movement in the Australian colonies was also dwelt upon. After a praper service conducted by Rev. W. H. McClain, of Louisville, there was a symposium of pastors. This proved to be one of the most interesting events of the meeting, the different denominations represented by the speakers developing the widespread interest in the movement and the fraternal good fellowship that is manifested.

The morning session was brought to a close with a short, but interesting address by Rev. Dr. A. A. Fulton, of Canton, China, upon the "Society for All the World." This afternoon the delegates will take an excursion to Lake Harriet, after which the officers and trustees of the united society will hold a reception and there will be a conference of state, provincial and territorial officers. Tomorrow, with three sessions, the greatest convention ever yet held by the Christian Endeavor will come to an end.

FOR POOR IRELAND.

But Ireland Got a Small Share of the Contributions.

NEW YORK, July 11.—A dispatch from London says: Considerable indignation has been created in Ireland, as well as among the friends of Ireland, in this country by the revelations contained in the financial statement of the "plan of campaign," and which, despite its suppression, has just been made public. Mr. Parnell has been forced to admit that, so far as the books show, the statement is a correct one. The exhibit is certainly a most extraordinary one. The total amount collected for the "plan of campaign" was $600,000, of which $466,000 came from the United States. Of this $235,000 have been expended in law expenses, $200,000 is claimed to have been spent into New Tipperary, $15,000 has been devoted to sundries, another $15,000 is put down as missing and the balance of $135,000 was distributed among the tenants for whom the entire total was subscribed. The lawyers, therefore, have secured $100,000 more than the tenants, and altogether $465,000 out of the $600,000 have gone elsewhere than to the people whom it was sought to relieve.

A NEW MAMMOTH.

A Rival to the Kentucky Cavern is Discovered on the West Coast.

The Mammoth Cave Will Have to Close Business at the Old Stand.

Its Beauties and Wonders Are Found by a Newspaper Exploring Expedition.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—The Examiner announces the discovery of an enormous cavern in Oregon twelve miles north of the California line and forty miles from the coast. The Examiner's exploring party, which visited the caverns, travelled thirty miles by stage from the railway to Karby and then proceeded into the mountains, with pack trains.

Two openings in the cave were discovered. These openings look like small fissures in the great limestene bluff. This limestone extends for miles and appears massive and solid outside, but is honeycombed within with crevasses which extend for miles without any apparent order or system. Many of the passages within the cave are described as of great beauty, containing in them semi-transparent stalactite giant milk white pillars and pools and streams of clear water. A creek flows from the main opening to the cave and it was here that the party entered.

They spent a week in exploring the cave and found innumerable passages and chambers, and several miles from the entrance they discovered a small lake of clear water and a waterfall thirty feet in heighth. All kinds of grotesque figures were found in various chambers. Large numbers of flashlight photographs were taken. The only sign of any animal life was found a short distance from the entrance where a few bones indicated that bears had used it for a lair.

It was estimated that the main body of the cave was 1500 feet from the surface of the mountain, and the cavern itself appeared to be fully as large as the mammoth cave in Kentucky.

FIRST CATCH THE RABBIT.

A Long Island Robber's Cage for His Wife.

ISLIP, L. I., July 11.—Nearly 200 armed men scoured the woods for Tom Richardson, who has recently held the county in terror by his robberies.

They failed to catch the robber, but discovered two cunningly constructed caves in which he has concealed booty and in one of which it is supposed he wished to cage his wife after he succeeded in abducting her from her fathers home, where she fled some months ago. This cave was furnished in a comfortable style and was evidently intended for a long occupancy. The most significant thing was a chain securely fastened to a stake.

FIRES AT THE SAULT.

Severe Forest Fires do Great Damage at the Sault.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., July 11.—The entire forests of Chippewa county and those of Canadian territory north of it are burning. A number of settlers have been burned out. The country is parched for want of rain, none having fallen for the three months the air is filled with smoke, making breathing difficult and obscuring the sun. Navigation on the river has been made difficult by the heavy volumes of smoke. Unless rain comes to their aid the damage will be very large.

The Sangerfest Elects.

MILWAUKEE, July 10.—At the business meeting of the Saengerbund this afternoon it was decided to hold the next sangerfest, in 1894, at LaCrosse. A. Camannan, Milwaukee, was elected president; Ferd Schleget, Chicago, vice president.

Spirit Lake.

The steamer S. B. Barker will leave St. Paul & Duluth slip tomorrow (Sunday) at 10:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. for Spirit Lake, touching at Northern Pacific dock.

C. S. MORROW, Manager.

An Apology.

I desire to to state to the friends and patrons of the steamer S. B. Barker, that owing to the misfortune of losing the stern bearing of the boat it has been impossible to keep any of our dates or fill any engagements since Wednesday last. We realize that our failing to put in an appearance at times and places advertised has been an annoyance to excursionists, but no time nor money has been spared to put ourselves again in shape to attend to our patrons and trusting that they will bear with us, we are respectfully, STR. S. B. BARKER,
C. S. Morrow,
Manager.

The steamer will leave St. Paul & Duluth slip at 10:30 and 2:30 tomorrow, for Spirit Lake, touching at Northern Pacific dock.

THE FRANCHISE LEGAL.

West Duluth Cannot Get Around the Water Franchise Given.

Adjutant General Mullen and Col. R. C. Elliot came down from St. Paul yesterday. They were here to arrange with the Duluth city government and water company to furnish water for their West Duluth plant on which work is being pushed. As to the question of their franchise, J. G. Williams, who acted as their attorney and will be accepted as a high authority in the matter, said to a Herald representative that it is as good as any franchise can be. Gen. Mullen, whose home is at Wabasha, will soon move to Duluth.

An Alliance Discussion.

This evening at its regular meeting in Parsons hall the alliance club will discuss the proposition to bond the city in the sum of $800,000 for a public water plant. As another weighty subject will come up this question of county railway bonds; and the late school board contract will be turned over for an airing. The late state alliance meeting, which will also be talked over, the meeting promises to be a warm and interesting one.

THE RECORD BROKEN.

Two Harbors Ore Shipments Nearly 50,000 Tons This Week; Marine.

During the week ending last night more ore was shipped from Two Harbors than in any week of the port's history. Five boats cleared in one day alone, and eight boats were in port during the same day. The great record is due to the arrival in a bunch of Davidson's six new boats, the steamers of which line are known as the "Big Four." Here are the figures:

	1891.	1890.
Shipments for season	249,918	350,424
Shipments for week	45,571	3,193
In dock	25,492	13,973
Total movement	275,410	364,397

As the Minnesota Iron company's fleet will be in port during the coming week, another lively week may be looked for. Shipments for the past two days have been as follows: City of Berlin, Adriatic, Mariska, Hesper, Henry Chisholm, John Martin, City of London, City of Glasgow, Celtic, 25,873 tons of Minnesota ore; Ketcham, barge 107, Fryer, 5800 tons of Chandler ore; total, 21,673. The Kirby and Matoa are now in port.

WALES NOT IN IT.

The Prince and His Little Baccarat Game Not in it Beside the Duluth Game.

The Latter is up Before Judge Stearns in the District Court This Afternoon.

A Number of Improvement Assessments Confirmed by the Court Today.

Judge Stearns is holding a special term of court this afternoon, with twenty-two cases on the docket. This afternoon the notorious gambling case of Nettleton vs. Howard is having an airing. Lane, of St. Paul, appears for Nettleton, and McGindley, of Duluth, for Howard.

This is a hearing demanded by Howard to show cause why the judgment taken against should not be set aside. The point is taken that in the winter it was agreed between Lane and Howard that the latter would not employ an attorney to defend the suit until further negotiations for a settlement were had. Later when the records were filed with the court Howard was advised by friends that it would be a breach of honor to employ an attorney and thus the judgment was taken by default. The agreement that a gambling debt is not a legal one is also depended upon.

A motion for a change of venue to Ramsey county in a suit on one of the notes will also be argued.

A divorce was granted to Annie McDonald from Chas. McDonald on several grounds. In A. A. Morgan and the Ontario Land company vs. D. L. Strickland judgmeut was ordered for the plaintiff.

Ten Assessments Confirmed.

Judge Stearns today confirmed the following assessments: Paving and curbing Fourth street from Fifth avenue west to Sixth avenue east, $37,899.84; sanitary sewer in Superior street from Fourteenth avenue west to Nineteenth avenue east, $3,329.47; sanitary sewer in Seventh avenue west from Second street to Third, $458.92; paving Second street from Sixth avenue west to Thirteenth east, $77,021.84; storm sewer and grading on Twenty-fifth avenue west from Michigan street to Eighth, $10,229.35; grading Ninth avenue east from Bench street to Eleventh, $37,625.42; macadamizing Michigan street from Twenty-fourth avenue west to south city limits, $8,470.21; sanitary sewer in Second street from Fourteenth avenue east to Ohio avenue., $55,717.01; grading and otherwise improving Pennsylvania avenue from South street to Fourth, $21,707.64.

Gas and Water Officers.

The Duluth Gas and Water company yesterday elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, S. M. Carey; vice-president, J. H. Upham; treasurer, R. B. C. Bement; secretary, Geo. C. Squires. This is a rise for Mr. Carey from the vice-presidency, formerly held by R. L. Belknap, the West Superior Land and River company's boomer, who recently lost his fortune in Wall street. It is believed that Major Upham has been made vice-president in order to make it appear that the company is a Duluth institution, but that has been tried before on various occasions, and Major Upham, in common with several other Duluthians, has but little stock and no voice.

Lakeside Wins.

Judge Stearns this morning heard arguments in the suit of the city of Lakeside vs. County Auditor La Vaque to compel him to sign an order on the county treasurer for $10,000 of tax money due the plaintiff. He decided for the plaintiff. The matter will be appealed. Crasweller and Cash & Williams appeared for the plaintiff and County Attorney Tear for the defendant.

TO THE READER.

The Herald gives considerable space today to short clippings from a Superior evening paper. These are but a few of hundreds, and in no manner cover the field. For two years such things have been said of Duluth and endorsed by the Superior chamber of commerce, including men of such financial standing as E. T. Buxton, vice president of the Superior Bank of Commerce. We have no space for comment today, further than to assure our readers that the contest, so far as the writer is concerned, has in no sense been a personal one. We have no personal interests at stake, and every word uttered by The Herald has been for Duluth, as will appear in time. To be sure the writer has been assaulted day after day with columns of abuse, has been charged with being a dead beat, "hungry mongrel," "contemptible chump," begging his meals, etc., and innumerable other equally silly and harmless things have been said. We have also been numerously cartooned as a hunchback, and learn that the responsible party thought at first our person was deformed, which we mention merely to show how vile and brutal he must be. But these things are immaterial to us. We care very little for ourself. We care very much for Duluth. We never treated a gentleman otherwise than with a sense of honor. If so, let him speak. We have never opened a personal quarrel, though compelled to close a few. What is necessary is never indecent. But read the clippings and compose yourself.

"The more we improve the poorer we get," said a Superior gentleman. "The money for our cedar blocks goes away, the money for our stone curbing goes away, the money for our second payments for morass goes away, and much of the money for labor goes away, for our workmen are largely floaters, with families elsewhere. Our banks are being drained dry, and though flush a little time ago, have begun rediscounting." One Duluth bank that had $113,000 deposits last winter has $335,000 now. Do you see?

THREE Superior ladies with their arms full of goods purchased at Panton & Watson's, called at The Herald office yesterday and urged us to keep up the fun. "We are going to trade in Duluth just the same," said one, "no pent up forty-mile morass confines our powers, and we want The Herald." They were all very handsome ladies, and they will read The Herald hereafter. The ladies are on our side, and we break no confidence in saying we are with them.

J. H. AGEN, W. F. Street and other Superior gentlemen have gone to the Sault to meet the congressional committee now making a tour of the lakes. They will offer them entertainment in Superior. Possibly the committee will come no nearer than Portage. It is important that the distinguished travelers should be hospitably received in Duluth.

WE have a communication from C. E. Lovett with the genuine Duluth ring to it. Along with many other good things it is crowded out today. It is non-perishable, and will keep.

NOT to mention extra days and ball games, the business of the street railway company is more than double what it was a year ago. Is Duluth growing?

A CONTEMPORARY vouchsafes the remark that lots of folks write themselves into oblivion. And then, again, lots of folks don't have to.

STREETS in Superior cannot be used by grading alone. Paving is imperative. Therefore the great burden on property owners.

DON'T lay awake nights worrying about The Herald. Everybody takes it. You take it yourself. Naughty, isn't it?

THERE is but one Duluth, and The Herald is its prophet.

These two are slop over lies;
Before Bede's hump became a tangible peg whereon the liar finally took up his resting place, the News was a prominent and unqualified enemy of everything that pertained to Superior. No subterfuge was too base, no lie too base to be given place in the News if only it was directed against Superior.

It is currently reported on the streets in Duluth this morning that one of its principal banks will shortly be compelled to go to the wall. There is not a Duluth bank that has been able to pay its rediscounts within the last seven months.

SAMPLE LIES.

The following are clippings from a Superior evening paper covering a few weeks:

Is it any wonder that Bede appeared frightened and could hardly speak last night when he saw that he had been recognized? The poor half starved mongrel! The gentlemen at the chamber meeting were, indeed, kind to him. They permitted him to go his way in peace.

This published there and also sent out as a dispatch: The traffic between the two towns is almost suspended and a large manufactory today discharged 250 workmen, who resided in Duluth, substituting Superior residents.

But the Duluth men [Mendenhall, Hartley and Craig] did what they have always done. They lied, as they have always lied. They thought that they might thus secure a temporary advantage. They feared the Superior bankers might ask for over half a million dollars of our money they are using over there, and they could not produce it. The Superior money is in Duluth on demand, and the Duluth bankers need it to avoid bankruptcy.

The contortions of the Duluth ape do not please the merchants, who must have the Superior trade or submit to bankruptcy.

Work on the new Union depot at Duluth is to be suspended. The necessity for a depot no longer exists and the railroads have withdrawn from the town with three exceptions, and these three have depots that more than suffice for the business done. When the work on the foundation for the depot was commenced some years ago the railroads hoped for a continuation of the growth of the town, but the falling off in population during the past year, and the withdrawal of a number of the roads which proposed operating in that city has caused the suspension of the work. The Duluth & Winnipeg, the Superior & Red Wing and the St. Paul & Duluth will not enter Duluth at all. The Eastern Minnesota, having all its terminals and docks in Superior, is concentrating its business here, and runs a transfer only to Duluth—just enough to cover the traffic requirements. The Omaha road has all its interests in this city, and is even now building both freight and passenger depots, so that that road is anxious to get away from Duluth. The Northern Pacific with its immense landed interests in the east end of the city, will have to build docks there and develop its holdings. Not one of the railroads has hope for the future or profit for the present in Duluth, and the abandonment of the Union depot scheme is indicative of how they feel about the head of the lakes business. Four-fifths of the freight and passenger business comes through Superior, and the railroads are forced to follow their interests by using their capital and influence here. It has not been decided what to do with the partly built Duluth Union depot, but it may be utilized for a repair shed.

E. T. Buxton: "As vice-president of the Bank of Commerce, I am constrained to say that the speaker is a liar."

Report of the meeting: To Mr. Frank A. Mannen belongs the honor, the felicity, of moving that the intruder be thrown out. It is needless to add, that Mr. Mannen's motion was adopted with unanmity, and the interloper was removed by the porter with a shovel, so as to speak, for that dignitary was somewhat chary of defiling himself.

[The Herald writer] he was sufficiently developed in manhood to be cognizant of what costumely implies etc.

A hump may cover a good many other drawbacks. But when J. Adam Bede counted on his hump to distract attention from his visage last evening and sneaked into the chamber of commerce room, hoping to escape observation, he reckoned with this host. He was discovered and fired—thrown out incontinently and without any consideration for the feeling nobody suspects him of having.

Report of the meeting: Then Mr. Alvord regretted being obliged to inform the chamber that the meeting was being polluted by an element of which it must be expurgated. He apologised for calling the attention of the members to the cowering form in the corner which hid a spy. He felt constrained to assure the shrinking figure that no personal violence would be offered in spite of the fact that there was something coming, but would even extend protection while the interloper explained his presence. For months the paper of which Bede was the nominal head, had villified and lied about this town, and an explanation of the motive of the individual in pushing himself into a gathering of gentlemen—and Superior gentlemen at that—would be tolerated before the intruder was thrown out.

The Duluth Herald has learned that Duluth people can no longer steal with impunity long columns of shipping statistics from Superior and escape the mockery that usually falls to the lot of a chicken thief when caught with pelt under his arm.

Even the circus which was billed for Duluth Monday had to stop seven miles out of town, at West Duluth, to get a place sufficiently level to give a performance.

The sewage in the drinking water of Duluth, which killed seventy-eight unfortunate cliff-dwellers last winter, has driven the rest of them mad.

The proprietors of The Duluth Herald were vaccinated with the Superior virus of truthfulness, but it didn't "take." The old disease of lying has them firmly in its grasp.

A number of wheat warehouses at Duluth, which have fallen into disuse, are being pulled down to make room for a cemetery. Rices Point is a great boon for Duluth in this respect. It's the only place within the limits of the town on the rocks where it is possible to get a grave without blasting.

The returns from the Duluth alms house have gotten into print, and a deplorable state of affairs is shown. There are seventy-two paupers being cared for and 516 applications for relief were rejected in May.

Yes, it is: The Herald is a lyre. So are its people, all liars.

The Lyceum is the pride of Duluth, but the question arises, now that it is built, what shall be done with it. By the aid of renewals and with forbearance on the part of the mortgagee, it should last for a long time, especially as the tear and wear will be light.

The way people are leaving Duluth for Superiar is indicative of the pace a town will attain when it once gets on the slide and begins to go down hill.

Duluth is dead, except those of its people who find employment in the city of Superior.

Inside property in Duluth has depreciated 30 per cent within a year, while Superior realty has enhanced 100 per cent.

The most prominent retail house in the city on the rocks has been saved from bankruptcy within a month by a timely loan secured from a Superior bank.

The Duluth Clearing House association no longer exists. Its certificates could not be honestly issued to any concern in the aggregation, and would not be collateral in any bank in the country.

Not a moment! Get! Fly! Vanish! We don't want Duluth barnacles here; they have been a hindrance to the town ever since it began to grow.

This regarding L. Mendenhall, G. G. Hartley and C. P. Craig: They need it to carry along the merchants and speculators ruined by the Bell bank failure last winter. That is what they wanted that money for. And they thought that a few days' delay might help them out, so they lied as usual.

There are plenty of empty houses in St. Paul and Duluth, but who wants to live in a town where you cannot earn enough to pay rent.

The old timers on the other side who had large holdings have watched the steady depreciation of the property values with a good deal of bitterness toward Superior.

John L. Lewis: Rents are cheap in Duluth because they haven't any people to occupy their houses.

The legislative committee that has been investigating the Duluth wheat steals finds no foundation for the charge. The committee discovered that there was no wheat in Duluth, and therefore it would not be possible to steal it.

That wen on the body politic of the state of Minnesota—Duluth.

The entire wheat business of the Northwest is done through Superior. Less than 20 per cent of this year's wheat shipments from the head of the lakes will go through Duluth and not 7 per cent of the flour shipments.

Duluth has one mile of paved streets and no sewerage system. Superior has fifteen miles of pavement and a complete sewerage system. Duluth's indebtedness is $49.42 per capita, and Superior's is $15.62.

Superior does not need Duluth!

Are the people of the Northwest aware of the significance to be attached to the many editorials in Duluth papers recently calling for more banking capital? It seems that their banks are on the verge of disaster unless fresh money comes in to help them out.

The business of the West Superior postoffice has increased 120 per cent in fourteen months, while that of Duluth has fallen off 22 per cent. The Duluth decrease is due to the removal of 1700 families to this side of the bay during the year.

It is announced on unquestionable authority that the last of the Duluth elevators will be torn down and the business all transacted at the Superior elevators.

Duluth's merchants, bankers, real estate dealers and other sharks have forever preyed on the good nature of Superior men.

If George Eliot could only have foreseen the reproach, in caricature of God's likeness, that was to bear the name, she would have chosen another title for her great novel, "Adam Bede."

The Lyceum is a nice building, 7-stories high in front and the rear attic makes a delightful sub-basement for the people who reside on the next street above. Duluth doesn't want to be amused; it wants to be buried, and eventually the Lyceum will make a great mausoleum.

The pauper editor of the Duluth paper which talks about mortgages, etc.

Now let Superior take away the support and Duluth will not need an editor with a hump, who prints stories about Wichita and Superior.

Duluth is at the limit of its bonded indebtedness. As a city it is bankrupt.

If people want you to do anything desirable, they will have to do what the West Superior chamber of commerce did—kick you. A hint is squandered when the subject is so obtuse as the editor of The Duluth Herald.

The poor devils whose business paper is thrown out of banks everywhere, and whose trade has fallen off faster even than their rating, etc.

The people of Duluth, who inhabit the caves burrowed in the cliffs, will presently head off the bat who has been used to abstaining from food through many years' practice in the fields of fakedom.

Duluth must give up all claim to our commerce. Let the boycott go on until she publicly disclaims our marine businesss.

The city statistician desires the Evening Telegram to state that the Duluth Herald is a liar. It's a little superfluous, but we cheerfully acquiesce.

"All that is beautiful and inviting" consists largely of broken banks and disgraced and broken citizens; a city that has neither money nor credit.

The corpse-like hunchback who, batlike, clings to Duluth, and whom they are afraid to throw off for fear he would turn his pen against them, and who lies about Superior at "space rates," is being supported in his work by money that is borrowed in Superior.

A number of wheat warehouses along Rices point in Duluth are being torn down because no further use for them exists, and the wood is being sold for fuel.

The salvation of Duluth was secured last year by Duluth men identifying themselves with new townsites platted as suburbs to Superior.

There is not a Duluth stock on the market that is worth par, while Superior stocks average in value from 107 to 548 premium.

If the prince of Wales were to meet a hunchback while looking for a quiet little game of baccarat the future emperor would follow it a mile to rub it and propitiate the fates. Over in Duluth it's different. When they rub Bede's hump the hoodoo begins to work.

□Duluth would not have a sound bank were it not for the forbearance of Superior bankers. There is a sum amounting to a trifle over $560,000 of Superior money in Duluth banks on call and a call would break every bank in the town.

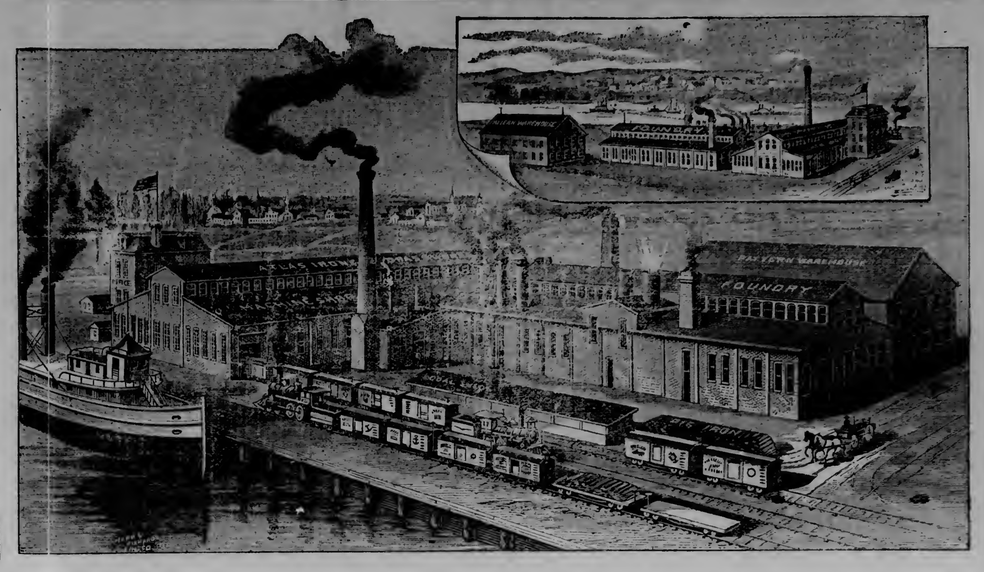

The most wealthy church society in Duluth cannot finish a projected new church because the Superior people who were furnishing the material and doing the building refuse to do any more work or let go of any more material until there is some money forthcoming.

Duluth was going to build a high school, and to that end laid a corner stone. Now the Superior men who got nipped by supplying stone to another public edifice over there, refuse to furnish any more material, and Duluth will try to get along without a high school.

THE TIME To Invest in Real Estate is when there is no rush. When the demand is normal, and strong enough to indicate good advances.

THE PLACE To invest in Real Estate is Where Improvements Are Being Made that will insure healthy growth. Where the improvements are of such character, that a backward step is impossible. Where the foundation has already been laid, and on a foundation solid enough to guarantee a substantial superstructure.

THE OPPORTUNITY For investing in Real Estate is ripe when the conditions of time and place are most favorable.

New Duluth

Offers you these conditions today. No suburb of Duluth has made such rapid strides or such substantial improvements as NEW DULUTH. Eight large manufacturing industries are now located which alone, when in full running order, will insure a population of 5000 people. Some of these are already in operation. The Atlas Iron and Brass Works, an illustration of which appears with this, has an order amounting to $45,000 for building paper machinery from one firm, the Marinette Paper Co., of Marinette, Wis. All the other plants are being pushed to completion as rapidly as men and money can. All of them have enough orders ahead, and are of such recognized standing that they will be run at their full capacity.

There are many other points too numerous to mention here that will convince any one that New Duluth offers the most substantial inducements for investors at the head of the lake today.

IS A MIXED QUESTION.

That Late School Board Contract is Exciting a Good Deal of Talk and Comment.

A Few Additional Facts in Relation to the Specifications and the Lowest Bidder.

What Wentworth & Co. Have to Say to Readers of The Herald on the Matter.

The action of the school board in discriminating against a Duluth firm, whose bid for ventilating the Emerson school was similar to that of an outside concern, and of throwing out altogether a reputable bid $2726 less than either, is the subject for general comment. Especially is this the fact when it is remembered that next Saturday, between the hours of 10 and 4 p. m. occurs the annual election to directorships on the board.

The fact most prominently brought before the public in the discussion has been that Dwyer & Bros., easily able to put up the required guaranty or bond, were turned down to allow a Minneapolis and Superior firm to take the job. Beyond even this it is well to notice that the bid of the Sturtevant company was $2725 less than either Dwyer's or Wentworth's. The plans of the building are minutely detailed in the matter of ventilation. Any contractor, with a reasonable amount of experience in heating or ventilating affairs, or with common sense, could follow them.

The Stuurtevant system was thrown aside with the remark by a director, "It is an experiment."

As a matter of fact it is one of the oldest of the ventilating systems. The Sturtevant hot blast heating and ventilating system has been known for years. It is in use in six plants in this city and three in Superior. These are the Scott & Holston mills, the Huntress & Brown mills, the Duluth Furniture factory, the Atlas Iron and Brass works, the Hurd Refrigerator factory, the Herman, Becklinger & Herman mill, the American Steel Barge buildings, the West Superior Iron and Steel plant and the Webster Manufacturing company's building.

This "experiment" is in use in the Metropolitan Opera house, New York; the national capitol, the Ottawa houses of parliament, half a dozen state capitols, the Carnegie Music hall in New York and the Carnegie Library in Pittsburgh, Boston city hall, massachusetts School of Technology, hundreds of factories, and many vessels of the United States navy.

Yet with all these facts before it in black and white the school board thought the Sturtevant system an "experiment" and is paying 40 per cent more for a different plant.

On this subject The Herald has received the following communication from C. S. Wentworth & Co.

"An article in The Herald has been handed us in which the writer has endeavored to mislead his readers by a misstatement of facts. The paper also gives space to a Duluth firm in the said firm also misrepresented. Passing over several minor statements which we quote the following: "We also want to say in regard to 'experience' that we have done, and are doing work which will figure up ten dollars to Mr. Wentworth's one, etc." Regarding experience. If they had the experience, it would have been easy to prove it. Again, if "changes" were necessary, why not do the work themselves, instead of bringing an expert from Chicago? Regarding the amount of work as compared with Wentworth & Co., there is nothing in the charge. Through the assistance of a certain architect they were given the contract for heating Piedmont Terrace at a price $10 lower than our bid. We had fairly won the contract by nearly $200 as can be proven if necessary. Regarding the reported $800 preference on the Burrows building, no one but Mr. Burrows has the audacity to make such a claim.

The Herald clearly shows the source of its information. Had it knowledge regarding these matters it would never refer to some of the buildings it mentioned as examples of the excellences of Messrs. Dwyers' workmanship. Nor would he refer to the Palladio as a comparison, for the facts are that the apparatus in that building worked with the utmost satisfaction for two years and without the least trouble, showing a saving of fuel of 50 to 75 per cent over the very buildings mentioned as example. Duluth may well be proud of her board of education for they have shown a degree of intelligence and experience in such matters unusual in school boards. So far as our employing Duluth workmen is concerned, nearly all our workmen that are now employed in Duluth live and spend their money there. Duluth men and institutions furnish a large amount of material and labor on the Union depot work.

A WISCONSIN OPINION.

A Milwaukee Newspaper Man on Two Villages and a City.

City Editor C. S. Clark, of the Milwaukee Journal, formerly a reporter on the St. Paul Globe, paid his first visit to Duluth yesterday. He came here from Gogebic Lake, Mich., and "took in" Ashland and the trios of Superiors croute. Of the trip he said to a Herald man:

"I have often heard of the various alleged 'head centers' of the Northern lakes, but never saw them until today. Ashland, I found abounding in ore dust, vacant lots, beer, saloons, and an elongated business street; Superior, the original, looked like a hill, a scattered settlement and a lot of tree stumps and signs marked 'cheap lots,' South Superior struck me as a new mining camp and a pile of foundations for something not foreseen, and the wonderful West Superior, of which we read so much was a nice looking place for several blocks in the center, but did not bear out the reports by any means, and I understand that its biggest thing is a $2,000,000 debt which, the Land company claim it is going to pay; what it was put into I can't see. But of Duluth—the place of the 'cliff dwellers'—I can only say I was agreeably surprised. The buildings now up, your streets and metropolitan business atmosphere would indicate that Duluth was already established as a good business center and a place that can be depended on in the future.

"No such buildings as I see two of your railway companies are jointly erecting, are ever put up in a town that does not possess stability and a prosperous future. Railway corporations are of a Davy Crocket nature as regards improvements—they are always sure before they go ahead. When you see railroads investing largely, you can pin your faith there."

A Tremendous Sensation

Would have been created one hundred years ago by the sight of one of our modern express trains whizzing along at the rate of sixty miles an hour. Just think how our grandfathers would have stared at such a spectacle! It takes a good deal to astonish people now-a-days, but some of the marvellous cures of consumption, wrought by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, have created wide-spread amazement. Consumption is at last acknowledged curable. "The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only known remedy for it. If taken at the right time—which, bear in mind, is not when the lungs are nearly gone—it will go right at the seat of the disease and accomplish the work as nothing else in the world can. It is the only medicine of its class, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee that it will benefit or cure in all cases of disease for which it is recommended, or money paid for it will be promptly refunded.

Through the medium of a a handsome folder just received, we learn that the Minneapolis Exposition reopens its doors this season on August 26, and continues one month. The folder contains a long list of attractions, from a perusal of which we are satisfied that the Exposition of 1891 will be superior to that of any other season. The list includes such sterling features as the Mexican Band that created such a furore at the New Orleans Exposition in 1885, a genuine Japanese village, the Sanford Girls orchestra, a display of weapons, many of them relics of the civil war, etc.

Homesteads.

Some Important Information Concerning Them.

Parties desiring homesteads would do well to have in mind that there is no place within 1000 miles of Duluth where they can secure as desirable homesteads as in Itasca county in the vicinity of Grand Rapids. No finer agricultural lands can be found in the whole Northwest than in the above mentioned region. Upon this point you have simply to go out and examine the country to be entirely satisfied. That is point No. 1. Now, point No. 2 is that a farm in this locality is wo:th vastly more in dollars and cents than would one of equally good soil in Southern Minnesota, Iowa or Dakota, several hundred miles farther away from the market. By reason of the great growth and development which Grand Rapids is morally certain to have from this time on, and by reason of the heavy lumbering operations now being carried on in the region tributary thereto—some 3000 to 4000 men being employed in that capacity, the farmers of Itasca county, will, for a long time, have a home market—the best of all markets—for all of their farm products of every description; and when the time comes that they will have a surplus, they will be able to secure a gilt-edge price for it, as they are only 100 miles from Duluth and on the line of a road whose policy it is and whose interest it is, to give them the most favorable freight rates.

Some two years ago when the Oklahoma region was opened up for settlement, some 11,000 people seeking homes, crossed over the line of that territory in a single day, and yet the resources of that region and the chances of profitable farming were not to be compared with those offered by the county of Itasca; and a few months hence when the advantages and the attractions of Itasca county shall have been more extensively advertised and shall have been better understood and more fully realized by the country at large, it is morally certain that the rush thither by home-seekers will be enormous. Indeed, to my certain knowledge several scores have already gone in there during the past three months and more are going by every train, and as it is "the early bird that gets the worm," as those who go in now will get their pick and choice of claims, both as to the character of the land and as to their distance from the railroad or from the town. Many choice tracts of land on that region are now subject to homestead entry, which would be well worth $10 per acre today, could the title thereto be obtained. Now, a person taking a homestead and living upon and cultivating it for five years is given his land free; or, if he prefer, he can prove up on his claim at the end of fourteen months and acquire a clear title to it, by paying therefor $1.25 per acre; but in either case he is not required to commerce his actual residence upon the land unless he so prefers, until six months after the date of his filing. The homesteader out on a Dakota prairie, for instance, in necessarily practically idle during the winter months at least, and has no chance during that period to perform any labor by which he can earn anything. About all that he can do during the winter is to build fires and feed his stock, and his horses during this long period are simply "eating their heads off," because he has nothing for them to do. Added to this, he must pay from $10 to $12 per ton for his coal or from $7 to $8 per cord for his wood. In other words, he must earn enough in the summer to support his family during the whole year and keep himself and his stock in idleness during the long winter. Now, contrast this with what an industrious farmer in Itasca county can do. First, he can work and he can have his teams work every day during the winter, either for himself or some one else. If he is a poor man and just starting out in life, he can secure employment for himself and his teams at good wages in some of the neighboring lumber camps, or in hauling wood, ties, or logs on contract. If not under the necessity of working for others, he can employ his time most advantageously in clearing up his land and cutting cordwood or trees, and he can employ his teams most profitably in hauling his wood and ties to town; while as to his fuel, it would cost him nothing except the cost of cutting.

Now, in view of the above facts, is it any wonder that the average farmer out on the bleak prairie finds it very hard to make the ends meet, and that he becomes unhappy and discontented, and that he imagines there is something radically wrong with our laws and that he flees from both of the old parties and betakes himself to the alliance party which organization promises to right all wrongs? And, on the other hand, is it any wonder that, as a rule, the farmers in regions that are well timbered are "getting on in the world" and that they are prosperous and happy? Now, there are hundreds of young men, and of men more advanced in life, but of limited means in Duluth who should lose no time in securing one of those choice Itasca county homesteads, either with the idea of making a permanent home thereon, or with the idea of "getting a start in the world," by selling it out at the expiration of fourteen months from the date of entry. I have no hesitation in saying that in a very few years Itasca county will be one of the most wealthy and populous inland counties in the state, and that it will be one of the most pleasant and desirable ones in which to have a home. It is destined to be settled up with marvelous rapidity and there is no time to lose if you would secure your pick and choice of the homestead claims. As it would be entirely impracticable for persons desiring homesteads to ramble around over the county and find desirable vacant land themselves, I have competent and thoroughly reliable explorers in the field who are familiar with the country and whose sole business it is to select choice pieces of land for homestead claims and these selections I am now prepared to sell at $100 each. Whenever desired, homesteaders, before making their filings, will be taken to and shown the land that has been selected for them.

I have also a large quantity of choice residence and business lots for sale in Grand Rapids, at prices suited to these quiet times and on the most favorable terms.

Said railway company desires aid from said St. Louis county, which shall consist of the bonds of said county maturing thirty (30) years from the date thereof, bearing interest at the rate of five (5) per cent per annum, payable annually, principal and interest payable at New York city; said bonds to be in denominations of one thousand dollars ($1000) each, and to amount in the aggregate at par value, the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($150,000); said bonds to be given to aid said Duluth, Missabe & Northern Railway Co. in the construction of a standard guage railroad from a point to be determined by said railway company on the navigable waters of St. Louis bay or St. Louis river, between Grassy Point and Minnesota Point, in the state of Minnesota, to a point to be determined by said railway company on the Missabe range, in township number fifty-eight (58) north of range eighteen (18) west, being in the county of St. Louis in said state of Minnesota, provided, if it shall be deemed impracticable by said company to construct an independent line to the waters of said St. Louis bay or St. Louis river said company may construct said line of railroad so as to connect for the purpose of running connections with the line of railroad which shall reach said waters within the points above named and the completion within the time herein required of a line of railroad making such connection shall be deemed a full compliance by said Duluth, Missabe & Northern Railway company with the terms of this proposition. Union Theological Seminary Likely to Lose its Endowment Because of Him.

Almost $800,000 in Jeopardy by the Vote of Confidence of its Directors.

Congregationalists Meet in London: Close of the Endeavor Meetings.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Eight hundred thousand dollars, nearly the entire cash endowment of Union Theological seminary, is in jeopardy because of action of the seminary's directors in the Dr. Briggs controversy.

The seminary was founded in 1836 by conservative presbyterians. It had no denominational alliance. When the institution was poor and needy, banker Brown proposed to give $300,000 towards an endowment, but hesitated because he had no assurance of permanency, either of existence or orthodoxy. To secure this endowment, the seminary was placed under the authority of the presbyterian church. Ex-Governor Edwin D. Morgan then donated $150,000 upon the assurance that the seminary was permanently under the control of the presbyterian church.

Now that the directorate by a vote of 20 to 2 refuse to be guided by the vote of general assembly disapproving of Dr. Briggs' election to the faculty, these and other large donations may be withdrawn. Russell Sage is waiting for the action of the directors in the fall before deciding to bring suit to recover his donation of $50,000.

The withdrawal of nearly the entire cash endowment of the seminary will depend on the action of the directors in the fall.

Congregationalists in London.

LONDON, July 13.—The international council of the congregationalists was called to order in Exeter hall this morning. Most of the 100 in London to represent the church in America were in their seats when the proceedings were opened by prayer, followed by an address of welcome by R. W. Dale, of Birmingham. In the course of his address he announced that among the topics which would come before the body for consideration would be the following: First, congregationalism in its domestic sense, or its own international working forces; second, in the nation; third, in the church catholic; fourth, congregationalism and the world. Among those who will read papers are Rev. S. Goodwin, of Chicago; Fullerton, of Waltham, Mass., and Cordley, of Lawrence, Kansas.

The Endeavorers Resolute.

MINNEAPOLIS, July 13.—Fully 15,000 people were in attendance at the closing session of the convention last evening, an overflow meeting of 3000 people was conducted. The following resolutions were adopted:

That we condemn intemperance in every form; that we stand for total abstinence; for the suppression of the saloon and for the annihilation of the power of the whisky ring in politics.

That we are intensely interested in the celebration of the Columbian exposition, and we especially rejoice that the intellectual and moral aspects and achievements of civilization are to be brought out by a series of world's congresses. That we affirm our allegiance to the sacred observance of the Sabbath day and express our condemnation of the opening of the Columbian exposition on that day.

That we urge active effort to prevent such opening; and to that end urge that all state and local gatherings appoint special committees.

Arrested by His Sons.

MONTICELLO, Ill., July 13.—Rev. Henry Howell, living at Laplace, has been arrested on a warrant sworn out by his two sons, charging him with adultery with a young lady whom Mr. Howell brought from the South with him during the winter. He has a wife and the affair has caused a sensation. Both were held to the grand jury.

The Newspaper Men.

ST. PAUL, July 13.—For the next four days the Twin Cities will entertain several hundred newspaper men from all parts of the country. They are the delegates to the seventh annual convention of the National Editorial association and elaborate arrangements have been made for their accommodation. The convention will be formally opened tomorrow morning.

How a Grudge Ended.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., July 13.—For some time Cynthian Adkins has had a grudge against the family of James Creamins at Barboursville. Last night their child was found murdered on the return of its mother. Miss Adkins was arrested, charged with the murder. She is about 30 years of age and of excellent family.

A Boom in Ex-Treasurers.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 13.—Aquilla Jones, Sr., ex-postmaster of this city and a prominent citizen and democrat, died yesterday afternoon after a short illness. Mr. Jones makes the second ex-treasurer of the state who has died in the past seventy-two hours.

False Economy

Is practiced by many people, who buy inferior articles of food because cheaper than standard goods. Surely infants are entitled to the best food obtainable. It is a fact that the Gail Borden "Eagle" Brand Condensed Milk is the best infant food. Your grocer and druggist keep it.

SCALDED TO DEATH.

Eleven People Killed by a Rail Wreck at Aspen, Colorado.

ASPEN, Col., July 13.—A fearful catastrophe occurred at Aspen Junction, on the Colorado Midland road, yesterday, by which eleven people were killed. A collision occurred between a Midland locomotive and the hind coach of the Saturday night excursion train running between Aspen and Glenwood Springs. Engineer Switzer, of the excursion train, had run his train up to the water tank for water. When backing down he struck the rear coach of the excursion train at the switch. The force of the collision tore the check valve from the engine and poured scalding steam and water into the wrecked coach load of people.

Of the twenty-five passengers in the car three colored men who were in the forward compartment were the only ones uninjured. The dead are: Mrs. Frank Ellis and 2-year-old child, of Aspen; Mrs. J. C. Baldwin, of Glenwood; Mrs. L. Willouby, of Woody; Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, of Woody; Miss Annie Phelan, of Cardiff; Thomas O'Donnell, Mary O'Donnell, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leonare, James Leach, all of Aspen. Coroner Hill of this city has gone to the scene of the accident and will hold an inquest.

ENGLAND'S GREATEST.

Mr. Gladstone Denies All the Reports About His Health.

LONDON, July 13.—For some time past roports have been in persistent circulation alleging that Mr. Gladstone, because of his advanced age and failing health, had determined to abdicate the leadership of the liberal party. The rumors gave rise to such confident predictions that he would never lead the liberal party in another general election, that many of his followers were induced to accept the statements. Recently a close personal friend of Mr. Gladstone's wrote to him, calling attention to these reports, and asking him to say what part, if any, he would take in the coming campaign. His reply is given to the public this morning. Mr. Gladstone writes that he has no intention of giving up the leadership, but intends to take up a very vigorous personal part in the next struggle for supremacy in the house.

The announcement is made that Joseph Savory, lord mayor of London, will shortly be knighted in recognition of his gorgeous entertainment of the German emperor. It is also stated that Mr. Augustus Harris, the manager of Covent garden will also be elevated, he having been lucky enough to number the kaiser and party among the occupants of his boxes.

OMAHA DOWNED.

Her Western League Club Disbanded and the Players After Jobs.

OMAHA, July 13.—The Omaha ball club has disbanded. The players are waiting for replies to telegrams asking for jobs. President Krauth this morning telegraphed Manager Shannon to take the club to Denver. Shannon replied: "It takes more than wind to do that," and the men would not recognize his authority without a guaranty of salaries. The club has died for want of support.

Jack Morrison, a local sport, late this afternoon agreed to guarantee the needed expenses to continue the schedule pending purchase by a syndicate. However, several players have better offers to play elsewhere and it is doubtful if Omaha will finish the season.

The Criminal Side.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 13.—A double homicide has occurred at Toas. In the small catholic church at that place Francis Bermlemans was shot and killed by Joseph Frank. Frank started down the roadway, but had gone but a short distance when he placed the revolver at his head and blew out his brains. His suicide prevented a lynching.

Brooklyn—Last night Alphonse Licerkowski, a tailor, was found dead on the street at the Larimore street station of the elevated. It is said Lickerskowski was struck and thrown from the train by the conductor. No arrests have yet been made.

Liberty, Mo.—Two negroes, named James Bones and James Diggs, were taken from their homes by a party of unknown men. They were carried to the outskirts of the town, tied hand and foot and given a severe whipping with rawhides. The negroes were bad characters, and suspected of committing many acts of depredation.

A Conflict Over the Body.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Warden Brown of Sing Sing says he is not alarmed over the threatened inquest on the body of the murderer Smiler by Coroner Levy. The warden says that the coroner has no right to exhume the body. He further states that neither he nor his witnesses at the execution last week will obey any summons from the coroner to attend an inquest on Smilers body, until the attorney general directs them to do so.

Coroner Ferdinand Levy says he has not yet decided as to what course he will pursue in conducting the investigation of the electrocution of Smiler. He was very indignant over Warden Brown's assertion that the whole thing was a political move on his part. He says that the warden will be present at the investigation and that he will not smoke cigars and keep his hat on while in his courtroom. In conclusion the coroner said. "I will have every one who was at the cloctrocution present at the investigation."

A Great Colliery Loss.

GONDON, July 13.—By a fire in the West Stanley colliery at Consett near Burham today. One hundred men are thrown out of employment, and the loss is estimated at about $300,000.

Spurgeon Better.

BREAD OF EUROPE.

That it Must Come From America Grows More Patent Almost Every Day.

A New Report of French Millers on the Shortage in That Country.

While Other European Nations Will Need all of Our Expected Surplus.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—A report on the harvest prospects in France and Europe has been received at the state department from France.

The National Millers association of France, the report says, has just issued an estimate founded on very carefully collected data of the probable wheat harvest of France and Europe for 1891. In order to meet the demand of France until the harvest is gathered in 1892 it is estimated that 128,000,000 hectolitres will be needed. The estimate yield of wheat for 1891 will be 82,779,000 hectolitres. This is the maximum estimate. It will be 31 per cent less than the harvest of 1890. Russia, Tunis, Egypt, Roumania and some of the Danubian provinces will have a fair harvest. In Hungary it will be below the average this year.

The estimates given by the millers, the report says, are optimistic. The desire to create an impression that there is a better supply than really exists, is all done with a purpose. They want to buy grain as cheaply as possible in the fortunate countries that have of their abundance to export. In 1890, 17,687,752 acres were sown with wheat. In conclusion the report says, not only France, but all Europe is looking longingly to the wheat fields of the United States. Last year many hoped that South America would help supply the deficit, especially the Argentine republic, but today no mention is made of those countries. All hope is built upon the United States harvest. The fact, as recently stated, is that the bread of Europe must come from America.

Chicago's Sunday Record.

CHICAGO, July 13.—Five deaths by drowning is the record in this city for yesterday. John McNeff and Lucy Kaiser were drowned while boating at Columbia Park. Henry Campbell and Leslie Young lost their lives while bathing near Pullman boathouse. Teamster John Swanson was also drowned in the lake at the foot of Berry avenue, while watering his horses.

Ore shipments from Two Harbors during the past forty-eight hours were: Kirby, Manola, 4403 tons of Minnesota ore; Maton, Masaba and Maruba, 6540 tons of Chandler ore; total, 10,943 tons. The Colgate Hoyt is now in port.

Saturday night the tug Paige lost a raft of 600,000 feet of logs, which were washed ashore for some miles below here. This morning as the Paige was picking them up she got a line in her wheel and ran ashore near the pumping station of the gas and water company. The tug Buffalo pulled her off.

For Breach of Contract.

Tulloch Bros., the contractors, today brought suit against W. K. Rogers and the Highland Improvement company to compel the payment of $3923 alleged to be due for building the foundation of the Hardy school on Duluth Heights. The complaint alleges that the plaintiffs and defendant Rogers on May 6, 1890, entered into an agreement whereby the plaintiffs agreed to build the foundation of Hardy hall to the satisfaction of the architects, and Rogers agreed to pay plaintiffs therefor. The complaint prays for a lien against the property, which is on land of the Highland Improvement company.

Bids Opened.

The board of public works this afternoon opened the following bids for the construction of a storm sewer in Lake avenue between Fifth street and Piedmont avenue east: E. J. Amory, $4890; M. Fitzgerald, $4934.50; Sam Mencice, $5000; Carlson, Traff & Co., $5354; Thomas & Sheridan, $5390; J. D. O'Connell, $7027.50.

For Making Gloves.

A movement is on foot, urged by a West Duluth man who has had twenty years' experience as a maker of heavy gloves, to start production at West Duluth, and if encouraged he will do so. He is a thorough workman and able to compete with others outside; in fact he has in former years sold large bills of goods to Duluth and neighboring retailers. He will make chiefly heavy gloves for winter use, and it is to be hoped he may succeed in getting started.

THE SEA, SURE.

A Colorado Deserteer Has His Theory of the Great Lake.

COLTON, Cal., July 13.—Capt. Frazer, of Banning, on the edge of Colorado desert, an old river captain on the Colorado, furnishes a new theory of the source of the water in Salton lake. He says he is confident the water is a genuine arm of the Gulf of California, and that this mysterious lake will be permanent.

He says: "The water of Salton lake comes from the Hardis Colorado, a branch of the great Colorado, which commences in the river about fifteen miles from the Gulf of California, and its course is to north and east."

Misery in Melbourne.

MELBOURNE, July 13.—The incessent and heavy rains which have prevailed for some time past, have caused a serious overflow of the Yarra-Yarra river in this city, the streets were inundated, a thing which has not occurred since 1863. Railroad travel is blocked, and the streets in the suburbs are entirely under water. Thousands of people have been rendered homeless.

RUSSELL AND DULUTH.

Sol Smith Russell Will First Produce His New Play in Duluth.

At the Lyceum theater everything will be in readiness by the opening date, Aug. 3. The marble men, brass men, decorators, and in fact all contractors about the immense structure, are putting on the finishing touches, and the theater has an air of richness and comfort about it that makes one feel that here is a place where there is to be comfort, but quiet elegance and beauty. All in all, the house is simply grand. Two weeks from tonight will be the auction sale, and it will be large. Manager Haycock is asked many times a day by people to reserve seats for them. This can not be done by him, as in that case everyone would not have a fair show, and it is the intention to give outsiders the same chance to get choice seats as the resident.

It is probable that Shepard's noted minstrels will appear a day or two after the opening. The Wilbur Opera company is also booked for the first week, and on the 11th and 12th Sol Smith Russell produces here, for the first time, his new play. It is quite an honor to Duluth to get this first night, as Mr. Russell has had offers from many cities to open the play. Its production here at the Lyceum will be the first time it will be seen by the public anywhere. He will depart from his usual custom and will carry a car load of magnificent and complete scenery and stage settings. Much of the scenery is very beautiful. It is a beautiful stage production as well as a strong play, and a rich treat is in store for the large audience that will greet Mr. Russell and his company.

Annie Abbott, the Georgia wonder, appears in Temple Opera this evening. There is a good deal of question as to the honesty of her manifestations, and a Southern doctor claims that he can explain by mechanical devices and copy all her remarkable feats.

Miss Hopkins left today for Minong, a short distance south of the city on the Omaha road, where she will spend a few days with her parents, preparatory to starting for a long visit at Tacoma.

Professor W. F. Phelps, late secretary of the Duluth chamber of commerce, but now of the St. Paul's agency for gathering in growth, is in Duluth, looking hearty and happy. He called on The Herald to say that he read it with more interest than any other paper he took, and was pleased with the appearance of everything. He looks for a very prosperous fall and winter in the entire Northwest and believes that Duluth and St. Paul will be in on the ground floor.

Social Notes.

Tomorrow afternoon and evening, at the residence of Mrs. E. W. Glass, 2721 Huron street, there will be a lawn social. It will be for the benefit of Grace methodist church, and a large attendance is hoped for.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Radcliffe entertained about thirty friends at their home on East Second street Saturday evening, the occasion being the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding.

Mrs. George Rupley gave a most delightful "old ladies' tea party" Saturday afternoon. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers and many of the costumes were very elegant. Among those present were Mrs. Graves, Mrs. Cutler, Mrs. McCormick, Mrs. McLaren, Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Chapin, Mrs. Stone, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Ray, Mrs. Markell, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Nettleton, of St. Paul. Mrs. Rupley gives a "young ladies' party" this week, which will undoubtedly be a very enjoyable affair.

TO KEEP THE LAW.

The Sheriff Puts Four Special Deputies at Work After Game Law Violaters.

They Will Stop Deer Killing. Illegal Fishing and Seining in the County.

The County Commissioners Meet Today and Transact Usual Business.

For some days back numerous complaints have been coming in to Sheriff Sharvy that the game laws of the state were being broken. This morning the sheriff swore in six special deputies, who are experts in matters pertaining to hunting and fishing.

Four of them at once started out over the hill to capture the parties who are selling deer for food to the lumber camps. The other two started for Sucker river to try to detect who are the parties that are seining brook trout and sending them to the city to be sold. The public will soon be well posted on the game laws through the action of the courts in the cases of arrested offenders.

County Commissioners Meet.

The county commissioners are holding their monthly meeting this afternoon, all being present except Commissioner Bonham, of Tower. Several Rice Lake citizens are present to petition for a new school, an extension of the Rice Lake road for two and a half miles and an extension of the Schulz road two miles. Capt. McDougall is also present to protest against what he considers the exorbitant personal tax levied on the American Steel Barge company, amounting to over $2000.

The overseer of the poor farm reported that during June six persons had been admitted and eight discharged, leaving twenty-two inmates July 2. The superintendent of poor reported as follows: Number applications for aid, 32; visits made, 31; aid given, $113; patients sent to hospitals, 11; patients now supported in hospitals, 14.

THE WEATHER.

Fair For a Few Days and a Colder Time Later.

"We will probably have fair weather for a few days now," said Weather Observer Bronson this morning, "but within a short time a cool spell will come on. You see out to the West the heat has been quite great and as the heated air has risen the cold air has rushed in. Within a few hours the conditions will be such that the wind will shift around to the northwest, bringing back the cold air. Of course the sun will modify it somewhat.

"Duluth was the coldest place in these parts this morning by several degrees. It was fifty-two degrees here while at Marquette and La Crosse it was seventy-eight degrees, St. Paul, seventy degrees and Moorhead, St. Vincent and Port Arthur fifty eight degrees. Away up at Calgary and Swift Current, however, the thermometer was down to forty-four degrees. The rainfall was over two inches at Port Arthur. The storm center during the early morning hours was on the western half of Lake Superior."

Union Bible Meeting.

A large audience gathered at the union service last night at the methodist church. The first part of the meeting was devoted to the American Bible society. D. H. Holmes, the president of the Auxiliary society, presided. Rev. Geo. H. Kemp offered prayer and Rev. T. Evans, the superintendent of the society for the state, gave then an address on the Bible work engaged in during the past year. W. S. Woodbridge, the treasurer, gave his report. The officers of the society were re-elected. Mr. Holmes then gave place to Dr. Maxwell, who opened the Sunday rest question. His remarks were frequently very pointed and dealt very fairly with the question. R. R. Briggs then took up the legal question and armed with a copy of the statutes of the state he gave a vigorous talk on the only question at issue whether we should urge upon the mayor o disobey the law and his official oath. Several anthems were sung by the choir and petition were largely signed at the close of the meeting.

Because of Ignorance.

Arthur White, assistant cook for Boyle Bros. was drowned yesterday morning, his death being solely the result of ignorance on the part of some amateur sailers. There were nine who started out in the boat Ayesha, and whoever was running the craft let her jibe, when the boom hit White and knocked him into the bay. He had on an overcoat and before those on the boat could reach him he was drowned. The accident happened in the bay.

Whisky Cases.

James Simpson, of the Rising Sun hotel on Lake avenue south, was bound over this morning to the September term of the United States district court on the charge of selling whisky to Indians. John Birch of Kettle River, was also bound over on the charge of furnishing whisky to Mille Lacs Indians. He could not furnish bonds and so was ordered committed to the Hennepin county jail.

Lost Seventy-five Tons of Coal.

Saturday evening when a scow towed by one of Inman's tugs was opposite Lester Park, the pressure of the coal upon the deck caused the compressed air to escape. The deck was badly torn and seventy-five tons of coal were dumped into the lake. The coal belonged to Williams, Upham & Co. and was being taken to Grand Marais for the dredge on government work.

THE DUDES COME DOWN.

As a result of the ridicule heaped upon their movement by The Herald, the Superior dudes who so recently talked boycott and issued high-sounding manifestoes have surrendered. They were called down by the sensible men of their city, and the manager of the Telegram was forced to come out Saturday in a half-column letter to the public urging forbearance for the sins of Duluth. He says:

The citizens of Superior are justly indignant; they are ready to do anything to express their feelings at this time, but I would caution forbearance. I believe in protection to home institutions. . . . but I do not like the word "boycott." It has an ugly sound, and it ought to be possible for our broad citizenship to get along without it. . . . With the motto, "Superior money for Superior people," I think that our glorious city will maintain its lead, and that within five years our people will have forgotten that it was ever so small as to think of boycotting Duluth.

This is coming down about as fast and as far as realty values are tumbling across the bay. They imagined they had the earth by the axle tree when they were merely sitting under the canopy of a bubble that is bursting over their heads. A few days ago Superior didn't need Duluth and the battle cry was "boycott," but they saw Duluth moving right along with her new railroads and cable lines merely laughing at their grief-laden contortions. Then untrue telegraphic reports were sent out from Superior only to make the outside press join in the ridicule of the the tadpoleons of finance. So the whole thing flattened out on a level with their townsite. Like the soldier, mortally wounded in the canteen, these dear little lambs of commerce go bleating home. The commercial union may be formed by which the grocers will eat their own wares and the saloon keepers drink their own beer—just as they've always done before—and such is the end of the sewer gas explosion over the bay, a fitting finale for the performance of inflated bluffers. It is deserving of notice, also, in this connection that since the 8th instant that sheet hasn't called The Herald writer any names, though for a month previous it was full of personal filth. So, much good has been accomplished, and in ninety days Superior real estate will be as flat as that of Wichita, to be resurrected only in spots. Already, we are reliably informed, a prominent contractor on their streets is unable to meet obligations here because he can't get his pay for work performed, improvements are being quietly abandoned, and the collapse has practically begun. The bubble has burst, and darkness is settling over the morass. This is but the natural and the inevitable. The fortune wheel has turned. The whole boom was founded on a lie, and Satan will gather his own.

FOR MEMBER OF SCHOOL BOARD.

In looking around for a suitable candidate to supply one of the vacancies on the school board, a number of gentlemen have suggested John Panton, of the popular firm of Panton & Watson. So far as The Herald is concerned it has no candidate, only urging that a loyal and representative Duluthian be selected, one whose treasure is in our city and whose heart is with it; one whose business success has displayed executive ability, whose interests lie in the upbuilding of Duluth, and whose career in private life has shown him worthy of public honors. There are many who would fill the bill, and perhaps none better than Mr. Panton. With a growing city, school affairs are of vast importance. They should be in able and impartial hands. The Herald believes Mr. Panton would give the fullest satisfaction. The voter need hardly look further. The election will be held next Saturday.

The News shows very conclusively that Porter's census statistics affecting Duluth are about as unreliable as those of the Superior chamber of commerce. Mr. Porter's character and life are summed up in the fact that he is an Englishman who hates England and thinks he was ordained of God to run America. Duluth's annual municipal expenses per capita are less than $8 instead of $26.31 as given by the census bulletin. Mr. Porter's tariff figures are almost as reliable as his census compilations.

BONDING FOR THE MESABA.

An election of the voters of St. Louis county has been called for Tuesday, July 28, to determine whether or not $150,000 5 per cent thirty-year county bonds shall be issued in exchange for $150,000 of stock of the Duluth, Mesaba & Northern, of which company Mr. K. D. Chase, of Faribault, is president, and with which Lon Merritt and others of this city are prominently identified. The matter is complicated with other interests as well as by the provisions of the law. Let us briefly present the facts as The Herald understands them:

If we vote on and carry this proposition now we cannot under the law vote on any other before January 1, 1892.

We cannot under the law vote on two propositions at the same time.

The only way we can vote bonds this year in aid of all roads, is by issuing bonds for a general terminal which all could use.

The only remaining means of aiding other roads should the Mesaba bond election be carried, is a guaranty fund or the taking of stock by private individuals.

The city has no power to bond for the purposes in question, the county having sole authority.

The proposition is not to give a bonus, but to give bonds in exchange for stock. It is in substance a loan from the county for which the stock is put up as collateral. The value of the collateral depends on the success of the enterprise, and it is probable that in a few years every cent would be received back should the county desire to sell its stock.

The assessed valuation of the county is about $13,000,000, and the $150,000 would be less than one-half of 1 per cent.

The Herald has always held that Duluth should own its own terminals and make them free to all roads. A terminal line from Lester river to Fond du Lac and on Minnesota point would be of marvelous advantage. We also believe in backing the Duluth & Winnipeg by taking stock if it will give Duluth its terminals. But much time has already been lost. It is time for action, and if we can't have all and exactly what we want, then let us favor the definite proposition now presented and insure the immediate building of the Mesaba which is a strictly St. Louis county road. It will benefit all parts of the county, and unless something bigger and better is ready for submission, the bonds of the Mesaba will "and of right ought to be" voted by the people.

NOT TOO LATE TO CORRECT FIGURES.

There is yet time if immediate action is taken by the proper authorities, to correct Superintendent Porter's figures on Duluth. Complaints are being made to the census bureau from all parts of the country and the controller of New York city has written Mr. Porter, from which letter we clip the followiug to show the situation, feeling, and course of action there:

There appeared in the city newspapers yesterday a dispatch from Washington containing a copy of a letter said to have been issued from your office in April last, addressed to me, requesting a careful examination and correction of the statement above mentioned. I beg to assnre you that I never heard of the existence of such a communication until I saw it printed in the press yesterday. The errors in census bulletin No. 82, relating to the city of New York, are many and grave, and of such a nature as to do great injustice to the city and government. Corrected figures, in conformity with the requirements of your census tabulation, are now being prepared. I trust that you will substitute these corrected figures in the final publications of the census office.

Six short blocks of Sixth street from Cumming avenue to Catlin in West Superior have been paved at an expense of $18,549, which is assessed against 1680 feet of lot frontage—more than $5.50 per front foot on each side. This is merely a second or third class residence street lined with shacks, and never will be anything else. This cost does not include the grading of the street; building sewers nor laying sidewalks. The average travel on this street is about three teams a day, and this is but a sample of dozens we can mention.

DULUTH'S real estate transfers for Saturday were $48,110, and for Friday $57,747 all for purposes of improvement. Superior's transfers have run so low the Telegram does'nt publish them, but we learn from the Call that for Thursday last they were $21,410 and other days about the same. A month ago the Telegram was making boastful comparisons. The bubble has been pricked. The boom is busted. The transfers now made there are old deals or those of investors who are anxious to pull out. Don't make any mistake. The thing is skwushed.

THINK of employing Frank Flower of West Superior to write up Duluth in the American encyclopedia! Iago describing the character of Desdemona! And yet it was done, though Mr. Flower hasn't been over Duluth since '88, and has since been busy advertising Superior.

THE HERALD is in receipt of a bundle of communications urging us to keep up the fight on Superior. We should be pleased to comply, but there isn't anything left to fight. However, we shall have some pleasing descriptive articles from time to time.

DULUTH advertisers have insisted on doing so much editorial work for The Herald of late that many communications and even poetic contributions have been crowded out and temporarily laid on the table.

SEEN AND HEARD.

Newspaper men learn to become close observers of life in its Kaleidoscopic changes, and one who has been "in the harness" for a long time usually has a store of interesting reminiscences that make good reading. One of this class is B. H. Barrows, now advertising agent of the Union Pacific railroad, who passed through Duluth a day or two ago and paid a visit to The Herald. Like the drinking habit, the newspaper habit clings to an old war horse for good, and he is never happy until he strikes a printing office. Barrows was for several years editor and manager of the Omaha Republican, until in 1876 he was relieved of the demnition grind by an appointment as consul to Dublin, under President Grant. This place Barrows held until Cleveland called him home. In Dublin he was one of the committee appoited to distribute the Irish relief fund sent by Bennett, of the New York Herald, saw Parnell imprisoned, was in the midst of the tumult which led to the imprisonment, saw the worst of Ireland's famine and had his hands full keeping American boys out of political scrapes. All in all seeing what was one of Ireland's most important historical epochs. The one thing which galls the sweetness of reflection of these years of interesting service for Uncle Sam is that he might have made a fortune in real estate if he had remained in Omaha.

Most people who have tried to get into the Lyceum theater to look at its beautiful interior have come in contact with that unyielding guardian of the front entrance, Capt. McNabb. The captain is well known to the old residents and has served to adorn many a tale in days gone by. Not long ago a trio of gentlemen wished to enter the theatre, but were hindered by the doughty captain. Just then Mr. Miller, the owner, sauntered along and gave the desired permission. As they were going out after their inspection the youngest of the trio approached the captain and said in a triumphant way: "Do I look as if I would steal anything?" "No," came the ready reply, "I was not afraid of that, but I dare not let you in for fear your face might spoil some of the decorations."

Every once and a while we read of or attend some entertainment given in behalf of the Womans home, and the general public has little conception of the good work being constantly done by this organization. The Womans home as it exists today might more appropriately be styled a Childrens home. About twenty little unfortunates, ranging in age from 7 years to as many months, are now under the protecting care of the home, having experienced the kindly touch of those charitably disposed ladies of the city who, in their own fortunate condition, have not been insensible to the sufferings and misfortunes of others, nor inactive in the exercise of their privileges to relieve their sufferings and provide for these a way to useful and happy lives.

The little ones are tenderly cared for by the matron, Miss Scott, and their comfort and happiness is always a consideration to those interested in this work. They are supplied with clothing and articles of amusement by voluntary contributions, and on the Fourth of July, too, they were remembered, and all those old enough were "invited out" and enjoyed the hospitality of a lady whose heart is fervent in the work that the home has so nobly undertaken. The present quarters of the home, however, are inadequate for the proper care and entertainment of the children. Instead of a small lot in the heart of the city, it should have acres in some suburb, and a building thereon commensurate to the present needs and future prospects of the institution. It is to be hoped that some one abundantly able may be so charitable as to dedicate a site in the aid and encouragement of this commendable work.

The Lake Drive.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Now that our park commissioners have achieved such valuable results in saving for the city and its future need the beautiful terrace drive, let them lose no time in laying hold of an equal prize; viz, the lake drive. The drive as a part of the park system should begin with the bend of the car track on Lake avenue below the canal, and continue some five miles to the lighthouse at the entry. It should tread the graceful line of the shore upon a slightly elevated bank commanding a view of the lake and of the north shore as well the city itself which rises in unrivalled beauty as seen from the curve of this shore line.

The lak drive would, of course, include the trees which are the crownine glory of Minnesota Point. The belt to be condemned would naturally reach to the street railway and would conserve a magnificent forest for all time where tired multitudes might delight to worship in God's first temples. It is hoped that for at least a half mile in length the park could run across the whole width of the Point. Such a strip would include the present platform and would extend north and south from it.

It was an irreparable loss to fail to bequeath this drive and its natural avenue (with music of the waves and the pines on either side) to the citizens of Duluth and their grateful successors.

Duluth Versus Minneapolis.

The Northwestern Miller today unwittingly booms Duluth as against Minneapolis as a flouring point as follows: "Other Minneapolis millers complain severely of Mr. Pillsbury's policy in keeping the price of cash wheat abnormally high in Minneapolis, and thereby giving the Duluth mills fully twenty-five cents per bushel the advantage of us. Cash wheat in Duluth is selling for about four cents per bushel less than here, and freight rates on flour are at least nineteen cents per barrel higher from Minneapolis. These parties advance as Mr. Pillsbury's object a desire to keep his neighbors from selling flour while he fills up the market with a product from wheat bought some time ago. On the other hand Mr. Pillsbury contends that had it not been for his selling freely within the past few days the wheat market would have ascended out of sight."

This Has the Right Ring.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Will you allow me space in your paper to say that I did not intend to hurt your feelings, and regret that my article in the News had that effect. I do not propose to enter into any controversy over figures as to the area covered by the city of Paris. You took Dr. Shaw as authority and I took what I believe to be better authority. I wish to say here that Dr. Shaw is incorrect in some of his figures. For instance, he states in his Century article that London has a population of 4,000,000 and covers 118 square miles, and that Chicago has about the same amount of territory. The same issue of the Century contains an article which puts the size of London at 441,587 acres, or a fraction less than 690 square miles. As to the size of Chicago he is also wrong. However, I did not get my information from the Century, but from what I consider reliable sources. I wish in this connection to say something in reply to insinuations that I am not loyal to Duluth. I have no interests whatever at Superior, and never owned a foot of land in Douglas county. On the contrary, all of my interests at the head of the lakes are in Duluth and its suburbs, and the facts warrant me in saying that I have worked about as hard and spent about as much money in helping to bring industries to Duluth as any one. I don't claim any special credit for what I have done, but I feel that it is hardly fair to intimate that I am not thoroughly loyal to Duluth. There never has been the shadow of a doubt in my mind that Duluth will ultimately become by all odds the greatest financial and commercial city of the Northwest, and second in importance only to Chicago in the whole West. I have no fears of Superior and have no patience with those who appear to get rattled and sound the alarm whenever things don't go their way. There is no ground whatever for alarm and these calamity shriekers do Duluth more harm than they can do it good if they use thetr best endeavors, No one who has studied the situation doubts that it is only a question of time when West Duluth will overtake West Superior in population. At the spring elections West Duluth cast half as many votes as the whole of Superior (which includes Old Superior and West Superior) did three or four weeks previous. Look up the facts and you will be surprised at the growth of West Duluth. Let the people of Duluth pull together, with no local jealousies, and you will see Duluth and all its suburbs grow as they never did before.

Shall Women be Allowed to Vote.

The question of female suffrage has agitated the tongues and pens of reformers for many years, and good arguments have been adduced for and against it. Many of the softer sex could vote intelligently and many would vote as their husbands did, and give no thought to the merits of a political issue. They would all vote for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for they know it is a boom to their sex. It is uncqualed for the cure of leucorrhea abnormal discharges, morning sickness, and the countless ills to which women are subject It is the only remedy for womens peculiar weakness and ailments, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. THE WORST FOR YEARS.

Duluth Has the Most Severe Loss by Fire That Has Taken Place In Several Years.

It Causes a Total Loss of Not Far From $100,000 With Total Insurance of $160,000.

Col. Cullyford and Kilgore & Siewert Bear the Only Serious Uncovered Losses.

At midnight last night Duluth suffered the greatest fire loss it has known since the big elevator fire six years ago, a loss not only severe in itself but still more so from the fact that it cuts off a good share of the city's hotel accommodation at a time when it is particularly needed. The loss in money nearly all falls on the insurance companies except in the case of Col. Cullyford who owned the hotel furniture, and Kilgore & Siewart, whose furnishing stock was injured above the insurance carried. Harry Cullford, lessee of the hotel, also loses a good deal by the loss of trade during the summer.

The fire caught in the top of the seventh story part of the building put up two years ago, and before the department could get water up there the entire seventh floor was well ablaze. Just how it caught is unexplained, but Col. Cullyford believes it to have been from a wet electric wire or the exhaust pipe. In what room is not known. Slowly the flames worked downward to the third floor where they were stayed and in two hours after the alarm was given the firemen had control. The guests in the house were awakened and hustled to the street, some with clothes and some without. Most of those in the building saved a large part of their goods, but the occupants of the upper floors, including the help, lost nearly everything.

The following is the insurance on the building:

Total		$135,000

The total insurance on both parts of the building was $135,000, of which $85,000 was on the new part building, $15,000 on new part rents, $20,000 on old part building and $15,000 on old part rents.

Col. Cullyford had $9000 insurance on furniture, which was only half what he carried a short time ago, he having let some lapse to take again later in order that it might expire with the lease. His loss, above insurance, on furniture, on kitchen and diningroom fixtures, etc., was probably $15,000. Harry Cullyford, lessee of the house, loses $500, uninsured, on liquors, cigars and bar fixtures, besides the much greater loss of the profit of the business during the busiest months of the year, when the house would undoubtedly be crowded for several months. This loss though it can hardly be reckoned in money, is heavy.

The occupants of stores in the building lose somewhat, but none of them any considerable amount except Kilgore & Siewert. These young men had a $17,000 stock of furnishing goods, hats, etc., on which they had $11,500 insurance, and which so closely resembles ruin that there will not be a salvage of over $3000, making their net loss $2500. The Security bank has $1750 insurance on fixtures, covering its loss. James Cullyford, who occupied a Michigan street store, has $1000 insurance in the Norwich Union, covering his loss. James W. Bruner, manufacturing confectioner, also on Michigan street, has $750 insurance in the Bowery, of New York, probably covering his loss. Nelson & Swanson, tailors, in the old part of the building, lose a little by water, as do the American Express company, the Northwestern road, Kimball's cut-rate office and the A. D. T.

The total insurance, therefore, is $159,250, and the total loss is $50,000 on building, $25,000 on stocks, $500 on bar goods, $24,000 on furniture and an unsettled amount on business, besides the rents for several months, about $10,000 in personal effects of boarders in the hotel and a few minor amounts.

Work will begin at once on the building and as the three or four upper floors will need complete repairs, and the plastering throughout the new part will all need replacing, it will be some months before it will be able to accommodate its full quota of guests. Of the occupants of the building the Security bank has gone directly across the street, James Cullyford has moved to the west corner of the hotel on the Michigan street side and most of the boarders have gone to the Spalding and elsewhere. The St. Louis building belongs to the Realty company, a corporation composed chiefly of Boston capitalists and incorporated under the laws of Maine.

After careful inspection of the building the building inspector this afternoon decided to barricade Michigan street and to post notices of danger on Superior street at the scene of the fire. He states that the east wall of the building must come down to the second story, while the Michigan street wall will have to be torn down two or three stories. Owing to the weight of the iron balcony and the standpipe near the top the upper stories may fall outward at any time.

Kinsella's Time to Laugh.

John Kinsella, who last March was "tarred and feathered and rode on a cart," not by the women of Marblehead but by some Two Harborites, has not been idle since then. He has secured evidence and has begun suit for $20,000 damages by his attorney John Jenswold, of Duluth, against Malcolm McFadden, M. E. Foote, George Mumford, Thomas A. Bury, James Urey, Charles Watson and Fred Woodward. He claims that they "did, March 22, with force and violence and against his will assault and violently lay hands upon him and took him into their custody and dragged and carried him out of his bed and house and into a barn where they tarred and feathered him, shot, bruised and injured him in different parts of his body."

IT WILL TAKE.

An Improvement That Duluth People Will Enjoy Hugely.

The Herald has already described the new Thurston restaurant, showing what its superb arrangements for ventilation and comfort really are to be. It wants now to particularize a little on the opening night.

About July 17, Mr. Thurston will move from his present quarters at No. 7 East Superior street to the new quarters opposite the Spalding, Nos. 417 and 419 West Superior street, which have been built especially for him. Thurston's ability as a first-class caterer is so well known that any description of his appetizing dishes, his famous deep sea delicacies, his best coffee in the world, his splendid bread and gilt edge butter, is unnecessary.

In the new restaurant not only are the ordinary arrangements for ventilation included, but there are to be super heated flues to force draughts, large roof openings, etc. The cooking will be done in plain sight by the best chef and staff of cooks ever brought to Duluth, and the force of waiters will be the best ever employed in that capacity in the Northwest. Everything is arranged, also, for quick service and a general oversight by Mr. Thurston himself. Five private cabinets for small parties, desiring exclusiveness in service, have been put in. As those who know Mr. Thurston feel assured, no improper characters will be allowed in the restaurant. The big range and broilers are surmounted by a highly ornamental canopy which aids in ventilation. Thurston's famous deep sea delicacies and his, "best cup of coffee on earth" will be found in the new quarters as in the old.

It is the intention of Mr. Thurston to make a gala night of the grand opening with Hoare's full orchestra, and every lady attending will receive a boquet of roses. Mr. Thurston will be ready to conduct his visitors during the opening, over the establishment explaining the details of the cooking paraphernalia. He proposes to make the opening an event long to be remembered. Watch for his later announcements.

Through the medium of a a handsome folder just received, we learn that the Minneapolis Exposition reopens its doors this season on August 26, and continues one month. The folder contains a long list of attractions, from a perusal of which we are satisfied that the Exposition of 1891 will be superior to that of any other season. The list includes such sterling features as the Mexican Band that created such a furore at the New Orleans Exposition in 1885, a genuine Japanese village, the Sanford Girls orchestra, a display of weapons, many of them relics of the civil war, etc.

HOPPERS IN THE GRAIN.

The Grasshoppers are Beginning to do Damage.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 13.—Startling reports from Eastern Colorado and western Kansas about the reported grasshopper invasion are received here. The grasshoppers cover an area of 460 square miles, where the Santa Fe road crosses the Colorado line.

They are young and not able to fly, but they are hopping eastward at the rate of two miles a day and much damage is anticipated. In the region infested by the hoppers the few fields of corn and wheat have been swept clean.

New York Money and Stocks.

NEW YORK, July 13.—Money 2 per cent. Exchange quiet. Posted rates 486@488; actual rates, 485@¼ for sixty days and 487¼ for demand. Governments quiet; currency 6's, 110 bid; 4's coupon, 116½ bid; 4½'s do., 100 bid.

This morning the market was lacking in features, but prices were somewhat better. Prices advanced steadily throughout the first hour under the lead of St. Paul, Atchison, Burlington, Rock Island, New England and Lake Shore.

The speculative interest will probably continue light for a few weeks longer. The market for the past few days looks better for the rest of the list.

A Tremendous Sensation

Would have been created one hundred years ago by the sight of one of our modern express trains whizzing along at the rate of sixty miles an hour. Just think how our grandfathers would have stared at such a spectacle! It takes a good deal to astonish people now-a-days, but some of the marvellous cures of consumption, wrought by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, have created wide-spread amazement. Consumption is at last acknowledged curable. "The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only known remedy for it. If taken at the right time—which, bear in mind, is not when the lungs are nearly gone—it will go right at the seat of the disease and accomplish the work as nothing else in the world can. It is the only medicine of its class, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee that it will benefit or cure in all cases of disease for which it is recommended, or money paid for it will be promptly refunded.

'TIS J[illegible] TO BILL.

The [illegible]remost Advocate of the Knight Comes Out for Bill McKinley.

The McKinley Bill has Made Him the Strongest Republican Candidate.

He Will Sweep the West, Says Ingersoll, if he can Carry Ohio.

CHICAGO, July 14.—Col. Robert G. Ingersoll is at the Grand Pacific on his way from Helena, where he has been arguing on the famous Davis will case before the Montana supreme court.

He began to talk politics. "Who will be the republican candidate for President?" he asked. "Mr. Blaine," came from the reporters. "I don't believe you," replied the colonel. This was a thunderbolt, coming from Col. Ingersoll. When Blaine was nominated in 1884 the nominating speech, made by Col. Ingersoll, was said to be one of the greatest efforts of his life. He has always had a good word for Blaine, and only a few months ago he complimented the secretary of state very highly when asked by a reporter what Mr. Blaine's chances would be in 1892.

"Blaine will not be nominated," continued the speaker. "Not because of his health, but because he is not the strongest man in the republican party. The coming campaign will be an exciting one and the republicans will want their best card. There are half a dozen men in the republican party who would make a better race than Blaine.

"McKinley is the very man if he wins the coming election in Ohio. If he carries the Buckeye state with a good majority he will be nominated by acclamation. Nothing can stop McKinley from being the biggest man in the republican party if he is successful in the coming struggle.

"He could be elected easily; with McKinley as the standard bearer I am not afraid of any of the so-called doubtful states. Iowa, Kansas, Indiana and others will give McKinley a large majority."

Sold Her Skin.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14.—Mr. Lucy Pratt, a young widow, today sold forty-five inches of her skin for $100. A strip was cut from her body and grafted onto the leg of A. Daggett, a railway mail clerk who was frightfully injured in a railroad accident. His right leg would not heal and as a last resort skin grafting was resorted to. Mrs. Pratt is a trained nurse, she has three children and needed money, so she offered to furnish the necessary amount of skin.

Louisville on the Rocks.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 14.—The Louisville Baseball club will be sold at auction in a few days. The Falls City bank, which failed last week, held a $6000 mortgage on the club which had never been foreclosed. It will be realized on. The present directors of the club have stated that they will not advance another cent, and it is not known who will buy the club. The club is very much in debt and playing bad ball.

A Great Horse Race.

NEW YORK, July 14.—Michael Dwyer has matched his great horse, Longstreet, against Ed Corrigan's Riley for $10,000 a side and a purse of $5000 to be given by the Brighton Beach Racing association. The distance has not yet been definitely decided upon, but will be either 1¼ or 2 miles. The race will probably be run early next week.

The Chilean Situation.

LISBON, July 14.—The new Chilean cruiser Frazeuriz sails today from France for a Portuguese port where she will complete the work of taking on supplies. The hurrying away of the vessel, incompletely victualed, from French shores shows how uncertain the dictator feels his position to be.

Those Grasshoppers Neglect Corn.

TOPEKA, Kas., July 14.—Persons arriving here yesterday from Eastern Colorado bring the information that the grasshoppers there are not the red legged variety which devastated Kansas in 1874, and are not destructive. They are not moving this way and are doing no harm to the corn crop.

A DULUTH SCOOP.

The Laugh on Superior Over the Congressional Delegation.

When S. A. Thompson and N. F. Hugo left Saturday night to meet the congressional commerce and river and harbor committees that are now on their way up the lake it was generally supposed that they went only to the Sault and would there get hold of the distinguished and expected visitors. Last night a Superior city delegation consisting of J. B. Thayer, J. H. Agen, B. S. Loney and A. P. Swineford left on the same errand—to meet the visitors at the Sault and pour into their ears the praises of Superior.

It will be something of a surprise to the Superiorites when they stand on the dock at the Sault Thursday to see on the vessel bearing the congressmen the familiar forms of the representatives of the Duluth chamber of commerce and city council, who will then have sojourned with the westbound lawmakers since leaving Detroit.

As the party will leave Detroit on its way to the Sault before the Superiorites, now at the Sault, can possibly reach the city of the straits no amount of red hot telegraphing will now remedy the difficulty. The matter is one of little importance, but it is a case where Duluth has the good-natured laugh on its usually wide-awake over the bay suburb.

Mayor Davis has received a telegram from Alderman Hugo dated from Mackinaw Island in which it stated that the congressional delegation will not arrive here until Monday. The Duluth committee will accompany them as far as the Sault. There are thirty-five persons in the party.

ASSAULTED BY EDITORS.

St. Paul Besieged by 800 Editors From All Over America.

ST. PAUL, July 14.—The seventh annual convention of the National Editorial association opened here today. The headquarters of the executive committee are at the Hotel Ryan, and here up till 10 o'clock this morning delegations of newspaper men from every state and territory have registered. Altogether over 800 newspaper men, many of them accompanied by their wives and other members of their family, are the guests of the city. There are many prominent visitors.

The opening session was called to order at 10 o'clock in the Grand Opera house. Hon. R. A. Smith, mayor of St. Paul, said a few words of greeting, and the formal address of welcome was delivered by United States Senator Davis. President E. W. Stephens, of Columbia, Mo., responded in behalf of the convention.

In the course of his remarks he said it was the first time in history that representatives of the press from every state and territory had gathered in one convention. The newspapers of the United States were the most eloquent expressions of its freedom and its progress. Within the century they had grown from one hundred to eighteen thousand in a ratio nine times greater than that of the population and which doubles with each successive decade. They gave employment to half a million of people and represent an annual product of $100,000,000. Their development as a moral and intellectual force had been even greater, and the convention which he addressed was therefore in the highest sense representative of modern civilization. The speaker went on to discuss the good that had already been wrought by the National Editorial association. It had established a better feeling among the sections, it had stimulated discussion upon many subjects of interest to the craft and by the interchange of ideas and the initiation of policies touching the practical operation of the newspaper business it had accomplished many needed reforms and substantial improvements. In the modification of the libel and other laws of many states, especially, it had effected marked and lasting improvements.

The object of the association, he said, was to bring the newspapers of the country to a better understanding of their interests and of each other, and a higher conception of their duties and a more thorough organization for their own benefit and protection. In this spirit he cordially welcomed delegates and expressed a hope that the aim of the body would be elevate journalism not only to a position of business prosperity but to a point where it would be recognized as the handmaid of truth and honor and justice and virtue; the surest safeguard of the liberty, the prosperity and the happiness of the American people.

This afternoon was devoted to a carriage drive and tonight the president will deliver his annual address. The gathering is the largest assembly of newspaper men ever held in America.

Campbell it Is.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 14.—The political situation grows constantly more favorable to Campbell, who arrived at noon today accompanied by Allen W. Thurman and other prominent democrats. A rousing reception was tendered them. Party leaders, including Congressmen Carter, Johnson, and others are holding a conference on the silver question, Mr. Harter being opposed to free coinage. Harter is looked upon as a possible dark horse, but the anti-Campbellites have really no hope, except at the polls. The nominations will not be made until tomorrow afternoon.

Decorating Americans on the French Natal Day.

PARIS, July 14.—Among those whom President Carnot today decorated in honor of the fall of the bastile were three Americans, Mr. Van Bergen, Dr. Nachtel and Mr. Schweitzer, a delegate from the New York Benevelent society. The first two were appointed officers of legion of honor and Mr. Schweitzer a knight of legion of honor.

BIG BLOCKS BLAZE

Montreal's Manufacturing District Has a Most Severe and Serious Fire.

Large Lumber Mills and Yards and Shops of Various Kinds Swell the Loss.

Many Narrow Escapes, and the Fire is by no Means Out Yet.

MONTREAL, July 14.—The greatest conflagration Montreal has witnessed for years is in progress here. Beginning shortly after midnight, it raged with fury all the morning, and at noon shows little sign of being controlled. The entire square bounded by Papineau road, St. Catherine street, Shaw street, Kent street and Josephat lane, was destroyed before daylight.

The flames rapidly spread to blocks of bricks dwellings and stores on the south and east without possibility of guessing where the fire will be stopped. Hundreds of thousands dollars worth of property has been consumed, but owing to the immense heat it is impossible to get near enough to it to obtain correct details as to losses or insurances.

The fire started in the great lumber yard of Prefontaine Brothers & Co. and spread with tremendous rapidity. At first a high wind spread the flames over St. Brights and Lukes churches on Champlain street and to the immense French lying-in hospital. Only the change of wind saved these structures and possible fatalities had they burned. Never has the fire department worked so hard as this morning. Men lay in the streets while comrades played water on them to save them from burning. Several of these men are seriously burned and it seems almost impossible that the fire should end without fatalities. A Mrs. Tott, on Shaw street, was ill in bed, and to remove her, so intense was the heat, several men narrowly escaped with their lives.

A partial list of losers, the majority of whom are total, follow: A. Brosseau, lumber mills; J. Prefontaine, lumber mills; Chas. Brouilletue & Co., sash factory; Laurie & Co., engine manufacturers; The Bordeau & Bowdoin lumber yard; J. Beauchamp, hotel; D. Glean & Bros.; The Parent boarding house; The Thomas boarding house; Mrs. G. Tott, boarding house; Mrs. Green, dwelling. More or less damage was done to houses from 135 to 147 Papineau road and from 102 to 145 Shaw street.

The flames aided by a high wind spread to the opposite side of the streets named and a score or more of stores, dwellings, restaurants and boarding houses were burned, together with the greater part of their contents. The total loss is very large though the estimates and insurances have not yet been completed.

LEECH LAKERS EXCITED.

Those Transferred to White Earth Believe They are Defrauded.

ST. PAUL, July 14.—The band of Leech Lake Indians at the White Earth agency are greatly excited over the rumor that the government intends to pay them damages for the losses incurred by the overflow from the government reservoirs, in stock and farm implements instead of cash as promised. John St. Martin, an ex-policeman of the reservation is in this city to see the army officials. He is much wrought up over the matter and states that the Indians are as near an outbreak as they can be without really going on the war path.

On Saturday, so St. Martin says, the Indians made an onslaught on the police for trying to stop a dance. At army headquarters but little credence is placed in the report and no trouble is anticipated.

Indian Agent Schuler and Robert Beaulieu, of White Earth, arrived in St. Paul this morning. Mr. Schuler remarked upon the absurdity of the report of serious Indian trouble, and says that they have no knowledge of the threatened commotion telegraphed over the country. As to the tearing down of the council house, the fact is that the building was used by the Indians for dancing, and that the government has prohibited the Indians from holding dances and that some dissatisfaction is felt in consequence, but the thought of violence is not entertained.

Edison Loses His Patent.

NEW YORK, July 14.—Judge Wallace of the supreme court today handed down a decision in the case of the Edison Electric company vs. the United States Electric company. The plaintiff charged infringment of a patent granted to Thos. A. Edison, claiming that every incandescent lamp for electric lighting, consisting essentially of a filamentary carbon burner hermetically sealed in a glass vacuum comes within the terms of its patent. The judge decided the first claim of the plaintiff invalid because the leading wires of defendant's lamps are not secured to the filaments according to the method of patent. As to the second claim he says: "It seems almost preposterous to argue that the substitution of carbon filament for the platinum burner was an obvious thing to electricians."

NO ARRANGEMENT YET.

President Bardon, of the Superior Land Co., Corroborates The Herald.

The Herald has alone steadily held the position that the Duluth & Winnipeg road had made no contract with the Consolidated Land company of Old Superior to put its terminals there, while other local dailies have had the whole matter settled and have so telegraphed to the outside world.

President Bardon, of the Land company, in conversation this morning said: "The recent statement from a Duluth paper concerning the Duluth & Winnipeg terminals is incorrect. No contract has been made by the Duluth & Winnipeg. Of course we would like to get the ore docks and a passenger and freight depot of the road, and we have made offers that ought to bring them to the Nemadji river. However Manager F. B. Clarke of our company is ill, in fact is on his way to Carlsbad, Germany, for his health, and probably little can be done, further than has been done, regarding the Duluth & Winnipeg or any other enterprise until his return, which we look for in a few months."

Duluth vs. Kansas City.

W. C. Tenney, a leading capitalist of Kansas City, has been in Duluth a few days on his third annual visit to his old friend, Capt. Triggs. Yesterday he spent in traveling over nearly all the city, and today he sums it up as follows: "I went all day, up one street and down another. Not once on a single building did I see a sign 'for rent.' At Kansas City 25,000 people have moved away in a year and these signs are the most numerous things about the place."

TOUGH ON TRUNK LINES.

The Duluth and Minneapolis New Flour Rate to the East.

CHICAGO, July 14.—The Soo line and the Canadian Pacific and the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic announce a thirty-cent flour rate between St. Paul and Duluth and Boston. This is regarded as a most serious attack on the revenues of Chicago-St. Paul lines, and these lines may be compelled to ignore the long and short clause and meet the rates from St. Paul via Chicago.

Rail Presidents Meet.

NEW YORK, July 14.—The advisory board of the Railroad Presidents association met this morning. The attendance was large, the leading Western roads being represented. Jay Gould says that his opinion is that they would be in session three days.

THE MESABA BOND MATTER.

Other Plans Practically Fallen Through; Election in Two Weeks.

A meeting of the Duluth, Mesaba & Northern men with Mr. Harrington and others interested in the terminal scheme is in session this afternoon, but nothing seems likely to come of it. If some general plan that will include them can be devised at once the Mesaba folks are willing to withdraw their proposition for county bonds' but otherwise they will permit it to come to a vote on the 28th inst.

Already they have plans for hauling 300,000 feet of logs daily to the Mitchell-McClure mill from above Cloquet, and are anxious to push the road through this season. It does not now seem probable that any other practical scheme can be presented in time to head off the election on the $150,000 of county bonds in aid of the Mesaba.

How Superior Gets Duluth Money.

No work is being done on the methodist church building and nothing will be done until Contractor Myers arrives here, which will be within a week. The status is this: Mr. Myers is a resident of Ohio, does nothing but build churches, and always has two or three contracts under way. He is a thoroughly responsible man. When he received the contract he sublet it to the Bass Island Brownstone company, of Superior, the secretary and manager of which is Cam Leach. All estimates made by the architect were made from figures agreed upon by representatives of Leach and the building committee and were readily paid. Leach, without a word, stopped work after the last estimate was given, although his own foreman was one who furnished the figures. It has been learned that Leach is thoroughly irresponsible and has been using the money received from the church to pay up his notes in Superior instead of recompensing his laborers. The church will lose nothing, as it made a contract with a responsible party. Mr. Myers will probably lose something on Leach. He has built eleven churches similar to this one going up here.

Sunk by Dynamite.

NEW YORK, July 14.—The steamship R. C. Booth, 20000 tons, lying at Brooklyn with a cargo consigned to Spence & Co., New York, was seriously damaged this morning while loading a box of dynamite cartridges, it exploding, killing two men, Jim Reagan and Cornelius Hays. Two others were injured. A large hole was blown in the starboard side of the steamship and she is sinking.

PONTIAC A WRECK

The Big Steel Steamship Pontiac Sunk Twelve Miles Below the Sault Canal.

A Trial Trip Here This Afternoon of the New Steamship A. D. Thomson.

The Standard Oil Company's Pacific Bulk Carrier; Some Other Marine News.

SAULT STE. MARIE, July 14.—[Special to The Herald.]—The steamships Athabasca and Pontiac collided near Churches Landing at 11 this morning. The Atabasta was up bound and the Pontiac down bound, both loaded. They struck stern on. The Athabasca arrived here with nearly the entire hurricane deck and anchor of the Pontiac on her deck. The wheelsman on the Pontiac had both legs broken, but no others were injured.

The Pontiac sunk in thirty feet of water and is badly damaged. Her bow is all stove in. She was built in Bay City in 1889, is a steel ship, and is owned by the Cleveland Iron Mining company, is valued at $200,000. She is loaded with 2800 tons of iron ore. The Athabasca's stern was bent and her forward deck damaged some.

The Thomson Tried.

The whaleback steamer, A. D. Thomson, named for a leading grain merchant of Duluth, had her trial trip this noon. She will load grain for Mr. Thomson for Buffalo. Capt. Edward Hewitt, recently in command of the 105, and a captain of long experience in both ocean and lake service, will have command. The engines and machinery of the Thomson are substantially the same as those of the Wetmore and Colby. Her furnishings are finer. The registered tonnage of the Thomson is 1075 tons. She will engage in lake trade until next spring, when the high water in the St. Lawrence will permit a safe passage to the ocean.

"S. O. C. 55."

Probably the next boat to be ready for service at the whaleback shipyard is "S. G. C. 55," a sort of half scow, half lighter, for the Standard Oil company, and to be used as a tow barge in carrying oil on the Pacific coast. The barge is 125 feet long and 10 feet deep, with 30 feet beam, and is not of the whaleback type. It has a low center dome measuring two-thirds of the deck in the middle. No spars will be carried. The boat contains three tanks which extend the full depth and beam of the boat, and together occupying 66 feet in length. The spaces at either end are vacant and are used to give buoyancy to the vessel. The three tanks will contain 500,000 gallons of oil, and are connected by big pipes so as to aid in trimming the vessel. A tank vessel to ply on the lakes and to somewhat resemble the Colgate Hoyt is among the possibilities, but has not been decided on yet and may not be. Any additional vessels for the Pacific trade will be built at the new yard on the west coast.

Marine Notes

The Northern King went down to Two Harbors early this morning, took on 1500 tons of ore and was back at noon, all in eight and a half hours.

The Colgate Hoyt took 2084 tons of Minnesota ore from Two Harbors yesterday.

A Fine Row of Flats.

P. M. Graff has taken out a building permit for a row of six brick flats to be built on lots 12, 13, 14, 15 and 16, block 34, Portland. The building will be a 3-story affair and will occupy a corner at Ninth avenue east and First street. The cost will be $45,000. McMillan & Radcliffe are the architects.

A permit was also taken out by Selma R. Anderson for a frame residence on lot 1, block 46, Endion, to cost $2000.

A Georgia Wonder.

The committee of citizens that last night at the Temple Opera tested the powers of Annie Abbott, the "Georgia Wonder" unite in believing her exhibition a phenomenal one. Among the committee were Capt. Triggs, P. M. Graff, Will Peyton, Fred Lewis and W. B. Dixon. They were, individually or collectively, utterly unable to perform any act either to the person of Miss Abbott or to people or objects she touched, unless she allowed them. Her exhibition was certainly remarkably. It will continue tonight.

DULUTH, July 14.—Local forecast for Duluth and vicinity for twenty-four hours ending at 8 a. m., July 15. Fair; slight change in temperature.

HOW TO VENTILATE.

In another column will be found a communication from Mr. W. C. White, president of the school board, relative to the letting of the contract for heating and ventilating the Emerson school building. The Herald has not, though the contrary might perhaps be inferred from the letter, given any editorial attention to the subject. Our columns have, however, been open to the parties in interest, and both Mr. Dwyer and Mr. Wentworth have availed themselves of the privilege. Today Mr. White has his turn. The Herald is printed for all and allows the widest latitude of discussion, in keeping with American institutions with which Mr. White seems not to be fully in accord. As school matters are not regularly published, there is all the more reason for permitting ventilation through our columns when that particular subject is called in question, and the board through its president is the first to complain of the freedom of the press in public matters. The Herald takes it for granted that men of such standing as Mr. Dwyer, Mr. Wentworth or Mr. White are sufficient authority for what appears over their own signatures, and does not critically scrutinize, nor arrogate to itself exclusive wisdom in determining, what they shall say. We insist only that they chide mildly the erring and maintain that gentle spirit of courtesy which ever pervades our editorial columns, lending to everyday life a flavor of gladness and delight and sweetening censure with an affectionate devotion to the highest good of all.

GIVE AN ITEMIZED STATEMENT.

Some one who signs himself "A Duluthian," probably because he is ashamed of his other name, sends us the following on a postal card:

"MR. BEDE: If you continue to lie and publish anything further than the news of Superior I will have fifty subscribers taken away from you and then you will have only seventy-five left. Mark my words."

Our correspondent is certainly mistaken. He must have thought we were editing the Tribune. If he stopped fifty Herald subscribers we should have just 3100 left, or something over forty times his estimate. We point out lies; now let him itemize his grievance. The Herald has no use for a liar even when he conceals himself under so distinguished a nom-de-plume as our pasteboard friend has taken.

LINCOLN AND JOHNSON.

As times passes by Messrs. Nicolay and Hay are likely to be regarded rather as the eulogists than the biographers of Lincoln. The Illinois lawyer may not have been an adept in turning short corners or fixing ballot boxes, but in the wider and nobler range of expediency, where politics becomes statesmanship, Mr. Lincoln, as is now sometimes said of George William Curtis, was no slouch. No one who has felt the prophecy in his speech accepting the popular nomination for senator from Illinois in '58, or the wonderful foresight displayed in the list of questions he asked Douglas in the campaign that followed, can doubt that while Lincoln was honest and uncouth, he stood peerless amid the party captains and their clammoring hosts for all action that required great magnitude of purpose. To direct the destiny of a nation is no mean thing. And if to perpetuate his own policy till the successful suppression of the Rebellion, Mr. Lincoln saw fit to suggest a loyal Southerner like Andrew Johnson for his running mate rather than Mr. Hamlin who hailed from the farthest and coldest quarter of the Union, it is no reflection on the purity of his character nor the loyalty and integrity of his motive. If he foresaw that victory might turn on the character and popularity of his associate, Mr. Lincoln was the sort of man that would have suggested the selection. We should feel inclined to blame him had he done less. And in the controversy that has risen over this point, the probability seems to be very much in the affirmative. The manner in which he silenced Seward's dictatorship, is evidence of the quiet subtlety of his movements. Mr. Lincoln nominated himself for the presidency in '58, and we have little doubt he nominated Johnson for second place in '64.

THOSE SHIPPING FIGURES.

One of the means by which the Superior customs officer inflates his statistics is well shown in an extract elsewhere from the Age of Steel. The Jim Hill line of boats mostly credit their entire cargoes to Superior though the greater part may be delivered at Duluth. For example the Northern Queen today unloaded 500 tons in Superior and 1500 in Duluth, all of which was credited to Superior. By such asssistance as this and the liberal juggling of figures, the cultured statistician of that suburb has made even some of Duluth people think possibly Superior was to become a greater city than their own. The Herald delves in these truths merely to keep its readers informed on matters at the head of the lakes. We should like to spread such facts before the world if Duluth people do not object.

MORE CONVERTS.

For once even the Tribune after two years untiring support of Superior comes out with creditable courage and defiantly remarks:

It is about time that West Superior called off its dogs of war. They may get the worst of the deal if they keep up the row after a time when the cause of any trouble has been removed. It is always the safest plan never to urge the patience of suffering humanity too far.

There is hardly a limit to the influence of The Herald when it opens up a crusade, but we had hardly hoped to convert the Superior Tribune itself. However if we have done so, the result will be helpful to Duluth and financially exhilarating to the Tribune. With a heart full of hope we take it in on suspicion.

There is no town in all the United States that so much resembles West Superior in important particulars as East St. Louis. Like West Superior it is built on a morass; it has the railroads, some elevators, the warehouses, the terminal yards, the round houses, and some manufactories, and yet what does it amount to as compared with St. Louis? A mere struggling mud-ridden village; the great city's barnyard. West Superior is ditto to Duluth.

Senator Daugherty happening to be in St. Paul the other day dropped in on the alliance meeting, and the apostles of the bad-weather-and-poor-crop party thought they had really caugh a repentant republican. But in political matters the St. Louis county senator never repents.

SO MANY propositions have been suggested relative to bonding for different railroad enterprises and for terminals that not only the general public but all the other fellows, too, are pretty much at sea. However, the county can't afford to miss a certainty for something in the air, and it may require several months to complete the details for a general terminal system. The Mesaba election is called for two weeks from today, and in the meantime the whole matter should be thoroughly canvassed. The Herald is for the proposition unless something better is immediately offered.

SIX OR eight months ago there was sold a corner on Hammond avenue, West Superior for $30,000, at the rate of $300 per front foot. Will somebody over there bet that any one can now be found fool enough to pay $200 a foot for that corner? Will you bet that the owner can get $100 a foot? Will you bet that if improved it would pay 8 per cent on $50 a foot! Will you bet that next year it will be worth more than $25 a foot?

THE Minneapolis labor temple has passed into the hands of a receiver as a result of many subscribers not paying for their stock in the building. A few years have greatly changed the course of labor matters in the twin cities, and the enthusiasm that prevailed when the enterprise was undertaken has in a great measure evaporated.

How Superior Gets Her Shipping Figures.

Age of Steel: The port of Duluth, on Lake Superior, is rapidly growing in importance. The total arrivals and clearances amounted in 1890 to 2534 vessels, with an aggregate tonnage of 2,740,354 tons, more than double the tonnage of five years ago. The receipts by lake, according to the customs returns, consist chiefly of coal, cement, lime, salt and railroad iron, and amounted to 1,000,023 tons; and the shipments, chiefly wheat, flour, other cereals and iron ore, aggregated 1,079,181 tons; but this in some respects does not represent half the real trade of the place, as the manifests of vessels landing part of their cargo at Duluth and then proceeding to Superior are surrendered at the latter port, which is thus credited with much that is landed at Duluth. The same custom is followed with outward vessels, which clearing light from Superior, are not credited in the customs records of Duluth with the cargo taken from that port.

The School Board Side.

To the Editor of The Herald:

It is easy to start what is called a newspaper controversy. All that is needed is for John Doe to ask if there is not something wrong somewhere, and twenty Richard Roes are ready at once to take it for granted there is, and without an investigation, to attack the first thing or person that comes within reach. I am of opinion that one of the greatest evils in the conduct of modern newspapers is the disposition of their managers (without thorough or perhaps any investigation) to lend their columns to any and all who have an attack to make on any system or thing that may be supposed to be of public interest, and thereby perhaps produce a sensation. Let a bit of sensation or gossip be offered, and private or public character may go to the dogs. We are all alike legitimate prey.

There has been some talk in the papers lately about the letting by the school board of a contract for heating and ventilating to Wentworth & Co., of Superior, at a bid that was identical with that of Dwyer & Bros., a Duluth firm, and at the same time rejecting a bid from the Sturtevant company several thousand dollars smaller than either; and your paper last Saturday night informed the people that this was of special interest at a time when some of the members of the board are up for re-election.

I now take time to make a brief statement, not because I believe either candidate for re-election needs justification or desires to sacrifice his time for the coming years to the onerous work required of a member of the school board; but because in all my observation I have never seen such intelligent work for schools done by any board as by this one, and because I believe it would be a public calamity to permit Messrs. Paine, Pearson and Phillips to retire from the service at the present time. If we use the Emerson school this fall, we must start the heating and ventilating plant at once. About three weeks ago bids were opened, for heating and ventilating on a plan adopted by the board after months of careful study. Wentworth and Dwyer bid alike, and the Sturtevant company something like $2000 lower, but on another system. Though time was precious, we deferred action to allow the last named company to show us that its system was as good for such buildings as the one in question, and to permit all other bidders to compete on the Sturtevant or some similar hot-blast system. The Sturtevant representative could not show a solitary example where his system had been used successfully in a school building in the Northwest; ventilation being a secondary matter in the institutions using it, whereas with us it is of primary importance. In such a building as ours it would be an experiment, and we could not afford to throw away a success for an experiment because of apparent cheapness; the agent of the system had failed and we had no time to continue investigation, besides being satisfied after careful study that our adapted system is better; and the present board can lay just claim to some knowledge (theoretical at least) on the subject.

Wentworth & Co. offered bids on the hot blast system, and Dwyer Bros. did not. In the course of the discussion over the two systems it became apparent that the Wentworths were experts in mechanical ventilation, and we learned that they had heated and ventilated twenty or thirty school houses in the Northwest, while the Dwyers had no offers to make on any system not mapped out by others, and we learned that they had not had experience in mechanical ventilation. In their particular line we would have given the award to them, in a matter so important as ventilation of a school building, on which depends the health of a vast number of children, we deemed it wise to let the award to experts and risk or disregard the censure that might come from those who were not fully informed.

The purchase of lots in Park Point has been mentioned in this connection. If you will institute inquiry, I think that you will find that the board did what was best in their judgement, after thorough investigation, and that their action was wise.

Women at the Big Fair.

The World's fair exhibit of the W. C. T. U. is to take 20 by 100 feet. Flags, banners, books and many other things will be shown, all prepared by women. Then the temperance union wants to give away ice water, sell temperance drinks, conduct a model creche and manage a hospital where patients will be treated without alcoholic stimulants. The ladies also want to distribute free literature on philanthropic and hygienic topics. The entire exhibit would be the result of woman's labor. They want room in the main building and also on the grounds, the latter being for the hospital. People who have babies can have them checked for a few hours in the creche. The hospital will be fitted up to take care of emergency cases. Flags from thirty-five national temperance unions will be used freely in decorating the building, and fountains will play in front of the hospital. The national superintendent of restaurants of the W. C. T. U. applies for space for a fine restaurant, in cnnnection with one of the large buildings, under the outside gallery. They will have unique toilet rooms for ladies. They will have an elegant silk hand made flag for every state and territory, finest satin hand painted banners that can be made, and will have the most unique and handsome set of state shields ever seen, all made of special products in the most artistic way—some of inlaid woods, some of native materials, some of slate, hand painted, and some of beaten brass. The women of Canada want to put up a fountain in a rookery, filled with all the ferns that grow in their country.

Where is Their Authority?

To the Editor of The Herald.

Considerable has been said in your paper about the Sunday rest law. We do not doubt the sincerity of many who are in favor of such a law, nor do we wish to impugn the motives of any. But we are somewhat surprised at the tactics of some in pleading for the enforcement of such a law upon the grounds of physical rest, and then all the while keep talking about desecrating the sanctity of the day, and arguing the question from a religious basis. The civil and physical rest arguments are used to court favor and create a public sentiment. It seems strange that ministers of the gospel, who ought to be well versed in the Scriptures should talk so fluently about desecrating a day, for which not one passage of Scripture can be adduced. Not once in the entire Bible do we find the first day of the week (Sunday) called a holy day, Lord's day, or any other title that would designate it as a sacred day. The sinaic command enjoins the seventh day (Saturday). God spake the fourth commandment of the decalogue with a voice that shook the earth, and with his almighty finger wrote it with its nine accompanying moral precepts on tables of stone, (see Ex. 20: 1, 8-11; 31:18.) Some claim that Jesus rescaled or eliminated this Sabbath commandment from the moral law. He did nothing of the kind. See Matt. v, 17-19. Not one of these sacred enactments was ever abrogated. The first monumental inscription calling the Sabbath Lord's day is dated A. D. 403. (See American encyclopedia.) The New Testament most emphatically teaches the perpetuity of the seventh day Sabbath. Both the seventh and first day are placed side by side in Matt. xxviii, 1, and inspiration gives them the respective titles of Sabbath and first day, and clearly teaches us that the Sabbath comes the day before the one that the churches are trying to enforce by law. We find by reading Acts xvii, 1, 2, that twenty years after Christ's resurrection it was Paul's manner to observe the seventh day Sabbath. It is often alleged that he preached in Jewish synagogues on the seventh day because he could not get an audience of the Jews on any other day. But as this claim comes from men who know no more of the first century than other men, and as the sacred writings do not in a single instance give any such reason, it is simply manufactured evidence. The advocates of a Sunday law have no Bible Sabbath. They have no Sabbath at all by authority of the Old or New Testament. They have a "Sunday." It is the old dies solis of Rome. It was adopted by our Saxon ancestors and called "Sunnentag." It comes on the first day of the week instead of the seventh day. The utmost that can be claimed for it by way of authority, in the absence of any command of God or Christ, is custom. As the Gospel commission from Christ enjoins upon his followers to teach only those things which he commanded (Matt. xxviii, 19, 20,) and so those who are so zealous for a Sunday law cannot point to the Scriptures where he commanded the first day to be kept holy, they had better be cautious how they command others to keep it.

A SUPREME JUDGE'S GIFT

Judge Vanderburg, of the State Supreme Court, Pleases the Duluth Law Library.

The Business of the Duluth and Lakeside City Councils Transacted Last Night.

Duluth & Iron Range Finds an Almost Impossible Barrier to an Eastern Line.

A very pleasant little incident creditable alike to Judge Vanderburg of the state supreme bench and to Duluth occurred within the past week. The judge has taken a generous interest in the Duluth law library from its start, furnishing it with boxes of briefs at the close of each term of court, which are highly appreciated by the local bar as they are very helpful in referring to cases and precedents. But the other day he went even further than this. A Duluth attorney being in his office the judge inquired if bonds of the old city of Duluth were of any value. Being assured that they were, he said he had a $100 bond which he would be glad to turn over to the library and let the association have what it would bring. The attorney accepted the freewill offering and today collected $112 interest, which he turned over to the library with the bond which is due in '93. Fourteen dollars more of interest will be collected, and then the face of the bond paid, making in all $126, a happy little cumulative gift which not only demonstrates that Duluth pays her debts but that the judge has alike a generous and judicial mind.

The Council.

At the council meeting last night Alderman Long, chairman of the special committee on waterworks moved an address to the people and wanted it adopted as the sense of the council. Alderman Kennedy contended that the address promised too much when it is said that as a result of voting $800,000 bonds every taxpayer would be supplied with good water. He said it would take $10,000,000 to make good the promise and moved that the address be laid over for one week. Alderman Long accepted the amendment and it carried. The address stated that it is the intention to issue only $200,000 worth of the bonds as a starter and the remainder in $100,000 blocks as occasion requires; figures were quoted to show that the city would be a saver because of the non-payment of guarantys, and the necessity of fire protection on the hill was strongly commented upon.

The board of works recommended a number of sidewalks; reported having let six sidewalk contracts to Edward Low; recommended improvement of the alley below Superior street, from Twenty-second to Twenty-eighth avenues.

The council voted $100 with which the chief of the fire department will pay his expenses in attending the National Fireman's meeting at Springfield, Mass.; authorized the purchase of a new fire team and a set of Pompier ladders.

The Gas and Water company was ordered to extend its mains up Summit avenue to Third street and to put in hydrants at the corner of Second and Third streets and Eleventh avenue west.

The following ordinances were passed: Consolidating the bill posting and bill scattering ordinances; annexing new territory to the different wards; repealing the ordinance prohibiting coasting on sidewalks; to prevent building on public property; concerning the leaving of animals unhitched; amending the ordinance to punish gambling; preventing driving faster than eight miles an hour on city streets; amending the ordinance granting railroads the right to lay tracks across Garfield avenue; establishing city dock lines, and providing for the inspection of all meters.

Two Lakeside Contracts Let.

At a meeting of the Lakeside council last night the contract for the new fire engine house at Lester Park was let to D. T. Denton. The contract for the sewer on the west end of London avenue was let to E. H. Stevens.

The aldermen informally discussed the change of action of the Duluth Street Railway company with reference to the route to be taken by the London extension. It was the unanimous opinion that the line ought to be built in the upper portion of the plat and that it would be better to get along without the railway than to have it near the water front and take the risk of stopping suburban service on the Duluth & Iron Range road.

A HARD COUNTRY.

The Possibilities for a Railroad East From Ely.

A survey party recently sent out by the Duluth & Iron Range road to find a route along the crest of the Vermilion range northeast from Ely toward the Canadian line and a connection with the Port Arthur, Duluth & Western near Gunflint lake, has returned with discouraging reports. The country was found to be very rough and such as would make railway building extremely expensive. Chief Engineer Angst was himself with the party, but was unable to find even a passably good line.

It is reasonably certain, therefore, that it will be several years before the Iron Range road builds any further east of Ely than the developed iron mines that may spring up may demand transportation facilities. It is understood that the Port Arthur, Duluth & Western has a route surveyed southwesterly from the boundary line at Gunflint lake that is comparatively easy of building. If it has Duluth may have direct connection in a year or two with Port Arthur and the Canadian Pacific, otherwise this connection will be delayed longer.

The Ore Market.

Considerable confusion is reported in ore shipments. Nobody can tell within 500,000 tons just how much ore has come down by lake thus far, but there are some who claim that the falling off this year over 1890 to date is fully 2,000,000 tons. Freights, which were decidedly bullish last week, are weak at this writing, but will receive considerable stiffening from the Southwestern grain crop. Some Bessemer ores were sold this week at the prices that have governed for the past month. Among non-Bessemer ores sold at the advance, were some of the Negaunees and some fair grades of Gogebic hematites. The pig iron market, although fairly active, is quiet. Most of the larger consumers have covered their immediate wants. Iron bought for October and November delivery is half a dollar higher than spot iron, and the demand for Bessemer has considerably stimulated the price.

Real Estate and Confectionery.

Having occasion to go the Douglass county court house yesterday, to learn why that po'itical subdivision of Wisconsin does not pay in correct coin of the realm certain and divers claims against it now in the hands of Duluth parties, I found myself about 3 o'clock loitering along the vacant part of Tower avenue and wondering if a street car would ever come along, for the short line trains to the old town have been discontinued since the bubble disappeared. The sun was bright and the morass very muggy, so I paused a small 1-story double-front building all lettered over with the real estate sign of William Befuss & Co. In busier times it had probably been used as a real estate office, but now it was in two compartments, one containing tables, chairs, maps, and such things as usually go to make up a spider and fly outfit; the other stocked with confectionary, while bottles of pop and the implements for producing lemonade lured the stranger in. Chairs from the real estate department were placed on the shaded sidewalk at the disposal of the lady who accompanied me, and while sipping a glass of nade a very pleasing dialogue was carried on, for there was no one present but the very genial and apparently duplex proprietor.

"How often do the cars run to the old town?"

"Can't tell much about that; they'll come when they get around to it."

"How are times in Superior now?"

"Well, they're pretty slow."

"You run a double-header?"

"Yes, fellow has to be into everything to keep up here."

"How's real estate?"

"It ain't doing much now; been boomed a little too hard, but I got fixed up all right and can sit down and laugh at the other fellows. Good many have got payments coming due that will pinch a good deal."

"What's property worth along here?"

"About $14,000 for a 25-foot lot."

"Six or seven hundred a front foot?"

"Yes, about that."

"Old timer here?"

"Came here four years ago."

"Won't the business center move over a few blocks east as the town grows."

"No, Tower avenue is laid out five miles long and runs right back from the water front."

"I thought maybe when you got 100,000 population, the legitimate business would follow the residences and leave nothing but the real estate dealers on Tower avenue. In St. Paul, you know, retail business jumped over from Third to Seventh street."

"There will be some stores on the other streets, but it will take more than 100,000 people to take it away from Tower avenue."

"There's been some rivalry at the head of the lakes as to which town would be the city, hasn't there?"

"Yes, they've got a big newspaper fight now. But you see they haven't any room in Duluth to build. The only way to get into Duluth is through Superior. All the railroads have to go through here."

"How about the St. Paul & Duluth, does it go through Superior to get to Duluth, or does get in on the other side?"

"That goes through here—no, that goes through Fond du Lac—I guess that must go in on the other side—yes, the Northern Pacific used to run in over its tracks—that goes in over there, but it has a line over here, too."

"I noticed something in one of the papers about Duluth. I wonder if it's true that work on the Union depot has stopped, and that the elevators are being moved away?"

"Well, there was some talk about it, and of course the reporters get hold of everything."

"I should think such things would react and do much harm to your own town if they are not true."

"Well, I guess they're all true, but I don't go over there. You see Duluth has always been jumping onto Superior, and the papers here have never said anything before."

Finally the car came along and the pleasing communion had to close, but here was a very agreeable fellow selling morass when the snow is on the ground and selling lemonade when the dew bedeck the lilies, having absolutely no knowledge of the Duluth side of the bay and yet assuming to disburse information to all comers. His lemonade was very good, much better than his realty or his knowledge of the situation, and he is fortunate in being able to turn his talents from real estate to the vending of those delicate draughts which all pilgrims need at this season in traversing the morass.

Mark Twain

Has become rich, fat, and as a consequence lazy— or else his talent for quaint sayings has left him. One of the best things he ever said, in his humorous days, was that the vital statistics of the United States Census showed that more people died at home in bed than were killed or fatally injured in railroad accidents; therefore it was far safer to travel than to stay at home. There is perhaps a flaw in Mark's syllogism, whether in premises or conclusion the reader can determine for himself, but there would be nothing illogical in a statement like this: All people like to avoid accidents when travelling: "The Burlington" has never lost a passenger by an accident; therefore all people prefer to travel by "The Burlington". This is reliable—for it comes from the "The Burlington" itself. For tickets, rates, etc., call on your nearest railroad agent, or address W. C. Kenyon, Gen. Pass. Agent, St. Paul, Minn.

Wise Men Grasp their opportunities while they are within reach. They have enough courage to take hold of that which their good judgment advises. Many men know a good thing when they see it, but often lack the courage to take advantage of it. This is especially true in what is called Real Estate Speculation. What to some seems a wild speculation is in fact no speculation at all, but a pure business transaction founded on good business principles. If you buy a piece of land where factories, mills and manufacturing plants of great magnitude are being erected, where these mills and factories are accessible by land and water, where the lay of the land is most advantageous for building a city, where the manufacturing plants are of such recognized stability that they will give steady employment to hundreds of men---would you call such an investment speculating?

New Duluth Offers you such a place for investment. The advantages cannot all be enumerated in a small space, but one visit to this New Suburb will give you much food for reflection. Call at the office of the New Duluth Land company, for tickets to New Duluth and for further information.

James W. Norton,
SECRETARY AND GENERAL MANAGER.
